To the Medical Profession.

THE treatment of deformities to be effected successfully requires good and perfect Mechanism. Good and perfect Mechanism is that which is especially adapted to the respective distortion for which it is intended.

To construct this demands not only long practical experience and a close acquaintance with the various deformities to which the human frame is liable, but also a knowledge of Anatomy, Physiology, Surgery, Mechanics, and Physics in general.

These desiderata Mr. HEATHER BIGG has combined by an earnest study of those collateral sciences by many years' practical experience, and an inspecting visit to the most celebrated Continental Orthopædic Institutions of Vienna, Paris, Berlin, Dresden, Stutgard, Cannstadt, &c., whereby he is enabled to carry out any idea entrusted to him by Medical Men in relation to cases under their care.

To complete the advantages which a professional man may derive by availing himself of Mr. BIGG's mechanical ingenuity, he has added to his establishment a Gymnasium on the Continental principle, where judicious Calisthenic treatment can be adopted when deemed expedient. The following books have also been published by Mr. HEATHER BIGG for the purpose of affording information as to the most scientific Anatomical appliances at present invented. They may be procured from Mr. CHURCHILL, New Burlington-street:—

Second Edition, considerably Enlarged, Plates, 8vo, cloth, 10s.

"The thanks of the profession are due to Mr. Thompson for the great care and assiduity he has bestowed in collecting evidence with regard to disputed points. The second edition of his work is well calculated to sustain the favourable impression produced by the first."—British and Foreign Medico-Chirurgical Review.

"The work has been considerably extended. It fully sustains the character it had attained, and the high reputation so justly acquired by the author in this branch of surgery."—Medical Times.

A TREATISE ON THE PATHOLOGY OF THE URINE,

INCLUDING A COMPLETE GUIDE TO ITS ANALYSIS.

By J. L. W. THUDICHUM, M.D.,

Lecturer on Chemistry at the Grosvenor-place School of Medicine.

With Coloured Plates, 8vo, cloth, 14s.

"To the student and practitioner alike the treatise is invaluable. It ranks from the first a standard work, every chapter of which indicates that its author has observantly studied his subjects in their practical bearings."—Med. Times and Gaz.

"This is a book which must gain a high reputation for the author. The plates, which are beautifully executed, are for the most part excellent representations of the various substances found in urine; and we thank him for the highly valuable treatise which he has offered to all scientific and truly practical physicians."—Brit. Med. Jour.

LECTURES ON THE DISEASES OF WOMEN.

By CHARLES WEST, M.D.,

Physician-Accoucheur to St. Bartholomew's Hospital.

Second Edition, 8vo, cloth, 16s.

"As a sound practical treatise, based on the extended experience of a close and accurate observer, whose views and acquirements are quite au niveau with the present state of medico-obstetrical science, this work is fairly entitled to the highest rank; and as such, we strongly and heartily commend it to the attention of our professional brethren."—Dublin Quar. Jour. of Med. Science.

"We have derived much pleasure and profit in the perusal of Dr. West's work; the way in which the subject is treated is lucid and full."—The Lancet.

ON THE DISEASES OF THE TESTIS AND OF THE SPERMATIC CORD AND SCROTUM.

By SAMUEL O. HABERSHON, M.D., F.R.C.P.,

Senior Assistant-Physician to, and Lecturer on Materia Medica at, Guy's Hospital.

8vo, cloth, 10s. 6d.

"The work of Dr. Habershon treats of the diseases of the alimentary canal throughout its entire extent. In this respect it resembles that of Dr. Abercrombie, and on perusal it will be found to resemble it in the mode in which the subjects are discussed. In comparing this work to that of Dr. Abercrombie, we have already stamped it with a mark of high approbation."—Dublin Quar. Journal.

By the same Author.

ON THE INJURIOUS EFFECTS OF MERCURY IN THE TREATMENT OF DISEASE.

Post 8vo, cloth, 3s. 6d.

"We would recommend practitioners to study this little work, and so test by their own experience the conclusions of the author."—British Medical Journal.

Surgeon-Oculist in Ordinary to her Majesty, Ophthalmic Surgeon to St. Mary's Hospital, &c.

With 17 Coloured Figures and 41 Woodcuts, 8vo, cloth, 12s.

"A book of very practical character, and one that contains a large amount of information on a subject upon which hitherto we have possessed no English monograph. The volume is profusely and elegantly illustrated, and bids fair to become a favourite with the profession."—Med.-Chir. Rev.

"We consider that a more able exposition of the doctrines of the new school of Ophthalmic Surgery than Mr. White Cooper's work has not emanated from the medical press of this country."—Brit. Med. Journal.

A TREATISE ON RHEUMATIC GOUT;

OR, CHRONIC RHEUMATIC ARTHRITIS OF ALL THE JOINTS.

By ROBERT ADAMS, M.D., A.M., M.R.I.A.,

Surgeon to the Richmond Hospital, Dublin.

8vo cloth, illustrated with numerous Wood Engravings, and accompanied by an Atlas of Plates, imperial quarto, £1 1s.

"The chapter on the anatomical characters of the disease as observed in Dublin is by far the best and most accurate account which has hitherto appeared. It, and the chapters on the diseases in each joint, must be referred to by every surgeon who wishes to master the pathology of diseases of the joints. We have only to add the most unqualified approbation of the work. Its value is increased by admirable woodcuts and lithographs; and it must be regarded not only as most creditable to the author, maintaining and enhancing his high reputation and that of the Dublin school, but as a real acquisition to the medical literature of the age."—Med. Times and Gaz.

From M. Malgaigne's Report on the work, read before the Academy of Medicine of Paris:—

"Mr. Adams's work is a most important and most complete monograph..... I think that the Academy will do an act of justice in ordering that the book be very honourably placed in its library, and the name of the author be added to the list of candidates for the appointment of foreign correspondent."—Gaz. Medicale.

"The work abounds in research and originality, and is written with all that felicitous clearness of description and propriety of language for which the writings of Mr. Adams have always been distinguished."—Dublin Hosp. Gaz.

ON THE DISEASES OF THE STOMACH;

WITH AN INTRODUCTION ON ITS ANATOMY AND PHYSIOLOGY.

By WILLIAM BRINTON, M.D.,

Physician to St. Thomas's Hospital.

Post 8vo, cloth, 10s. 6d.

"As one of our first writers upon the structure, functions, and diseases of the alimentary canal, the author of the present treatise has for some time established his reputation. We recommend Dr. Brinton's work as an honourable addition to the really scientific literature of the day."—The Lancet.

"These Lectures are intended to give a brief but complete account of what is at present known concerning the Diseases of the Stomach; the whole work will fully repay a careful study, and we heartily recommend it to our readers."—Med. Times and Gaz.

"Dr. Brinton has made for himself a legitimate claim to write a book, and to be looked to as an authority in the subject on which he professes to instruct."—Brit. Med. Jour.

ON EPILEPSY AND EPILEPTIFORM SEIZURES:

THEIR CAUSES, PATHOLOGY, AND TREATMENT.

By EDWARD H. SIEVEKING, M.D.,

Physician to, and Lecturer upon Materia Medica at, St. Mary's Hospital.

Post 8vo, cloth, 7s. 6d.

"We have perused this volume with unfeigned pleasure, and have completed our task with a feeling of increased respect for its able and accomplished author. It is precisely the kind of monographical treatise which is entitled to be read and studied, containing as it does no superfluous matter, but furnishing nevertheless a full and most satisfactory account of the important disease of which it treats."—Edin. Med. Journal.

"The above is a brief and imperfect outline of the chief subjects discussed in Dr. Sieveking's able work, which we recommend to the profession as containing a great amount of valuable information, put together with great skill and learning, and exhibiting no small amount of original observation."—Medical Times and Gazette.

"In glancing thus cursorily at a few of the interesting topics discussed by Dr. Sieveking, we have by no means done justice to the merits of his work, a volume which bears on every page the impress, not only of the learned and accomplished physician, but of the experienced and reflecting practitioner."—Dublin Medical Press.

PREFACE.

EACH succeeding Edition of the "Medical Directories" has been marked by certain alterations and improvements; but none hitherto made have been of so much importance as those which will be observed in the present volume. For the first time since its publication in 1845 (now sixteen years ago), we have altered the size and form of the "DIRECTORY" as well as the arrangement of its contents. In projecting the embodiment of the two Supplemental "Directories" for SCOTLAND and IRELAND with the LONDON AND PROVINCIAL Edition, a very great outlay and considerable risk was incurred; but it is highly gratifying to the Proprietors to find that these alterations have been so much estimated by the Members of the Profession, for in no former year has the number of our Subscribers been so large, or the expressions of approval so numerous. Such proofs of confidence can have no other effect than that of calling forth our energies, and increasing our determination to render future editions of the "Medical Directories," if possible, more useful than any of their predecessors.

We have to call attention to the following alterations and additions which will be found in the present volume:—

1. THE MEDICAL ALMANAC is so arranged as to supply all needful information respecting the time of meeting of the various Medical and Scientific Societies in London, Scotland, and Ireland, so far as the particulars could be obtained.

2. At the end of the "LONDON DIRECTORY" will be found a list of those Members of the Dental Profession who have obtained the Certificate in Dental Surgery from the Royal College of Surgeons.

3. To many of the names in the "London" and "Provincial" Lists has been appended the Medical School at which Members of the Profession were educated. This additional information has been supplied in compliance with the repeated suggestions of several well-known Practitioners; and although, for the present volume, perhaps, not more than one-half of the Profession have supplied the necessary data, it is very probable that, in the next edition, we shall be able to add the School to nearly every name.

4. In the MEDICAL DIRECTORY FOR SCOTLAND will be observed a great improvement in the arrangement of the "Local List." We have, under the cities Edinburgh and Glasgow, given an alphabetical list of the names, with the exact addresses, of the resident Practitioners, thus rendering the LOCAL LIST much more useful for reference.

5. In the MEDICAL DIRECTORY FOR IRELAND we have, under the city Dublin, given a similar STREET LIST, and have also added to the towns and villages named in the LOCAL LIST the number of the population as given in the Census for 1851.

6. In both the Directories for SCOTLAND and IRELAND, it will be seen that we have omitted the name of every Practitioner who had not been registered under the Medical Act prior to November 1st, 1860. We have done this very reluctantly, knowing that several Practitioners thus omitted were fully qualified. But, on the other hand, we had reason to fear that some of the unregistered gentlemen, whose names were retained in the last edition, possessed no qualification whatever. In endeavouring to select those who, although unregistered, were yet qualified, we met with a serious obstacle, in not being able to obtain from some of the licensing bodies in Scotland and Ireland a copy of their lists of Members, &c. Under these circumstances we were compelled, in order to avoid a charge of favouritism and unfairness, to omit the names of all unregistered Practitioners. We repeat, that in adopting this course we feel very great regret; especially, as in so doing, we are obliged to omit several names of which the Profession have reason to be proud. Although possessing greater facilities for testing the qualifications of the Practitioners in London and the Provinces, it is a question, which we reserve for further consideration, whether the same rule must not be applied to each département of the "Directories."

7. The List of "REGISTERED NON-RESIDENTS," at page 987, presents a considerable accumulation of names, which could not appear in any of the other alphabetical lists. It embraces all those Members of the Profession who are engaged in the Public Services, together with many others who reside abroad, and those who have no settled place of residence, or have removed to some place where we have not succeeded in tracing them. As this list numbers 1350 names, we must advise a reference thereto, if any particular name cannot be found in the other lists.

8. Death has been unusually busy in the ranks of the Profession during the past year. Our "OBITUARY" records the decease of upwards of Five hundred Medical Men, some of whom had attained a high position, and were justly regarded as "stars" of the Profession. Had space permitted, we would gladly have given a few biographical sketches of those whose character and acquirements entitle them to a lasting remembrance. For the information of those who have been interested in the recent discussion "On the Average Duration of Life in various Trades and Professions," we have ascertained that amongst the deceased members of the Medical Body whose ages are recorded in our "Obituary," the average duration of life was 56 years.

Having thus called attention to some of the alterations which have been made in the present Edition, we can only express a hope that the "Directory," as a whole, may prove as correct as it is comprehensive. It is scarcely necessary to state, that no expense has been spared in the production of this volume—a glance at its pages will prove this; and when it is remembered that we supply it to Subscribers for 8s. 6d., and to Non-Subscribers for 10s. 6d. (the cost of former Editions in their separate form having been 19s. 6d.), we may confidently assert, that so cheap a Book of Reference can scarcely be found.

THE MEDICAL ACT.

CAP. XC.

An Act to regulate the Qualifications of Practitioners in Medicine and Surgery.

[2nd August, 1858.]

WHEREAS it is expedient that persons requiring medical aid should be enabled to distinguish qualified from unqualified Practitioners: be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Short Title.

I. This Act may for all purposes be cited as "The Medical Act."

Commencement of Act.

II. This Act shall commence and take effect from the First Day of October, One thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight.

Medical Council.

III. A Council which shall be styled "The General Council of Medical Education and Registration of the United Kingdom," herein-after referred to as the General Council, shall be established, and Branch Councils for England, Scotland, and Ireland respectively formed thereout as herein-after mentioned.

Members of Council.

IV. The General Council shall consist of one person chosen from time to time by each of the following bodies; (that is to say,)

The Royal College of Physicians:

The Royal College of Surgeons of England:

The Apothecaries' Society of London:

The University of Oxford:

The University of Cambridge:

The University of Durham:

The University of London:

The College of Physicians of Edinburgh:

The College of Surgeons of Edinburgh:

The Faculty of Physicians and Surgeons of Glasgow:

One person chosen from time to time by the University of Edinburgh and the two Universities of Aberdeen collectively:

One person chosen from time to time by the University of Glasgow and the University of St. Andrew's collectively:

One person chosen from time to time by each of the following bodies:

The King and Queen's College of Physicians in Ireland:

The Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland:

The Apothecaries' Hall of Ireland:

The University of Dublin:

The Queen's University in Ireland:

And six persons to be nominated by her Majesty with the advice of her Privy Council, four of whom shall be appointed for England, one for Scotland, and one for Ireland; and of a President, to be elected by the General Council.

Provision in case the Universities of Glasgow, Aberdeen, and Saint Andrew's fail to appoint a person to represent them.

V. If the said Universities of Edinburgh and Aberdeen, of Glasgow and Saint Andrew's respectively, shall not be able to agree upon some one person to represent them in the Council, it shall be lawful for each of the said Universities to select one person; and thereupon it shall be lawful for her Majesty, with the advice of her Privy Council, to appoint one of the persons so selected to be a Member of the said Council for the said Universities.

Branches of the Council for England, Scotland, and Ireland.

VI. The Members chosen by the Medical Corporations and Universities of England, Scotland, and Ireland respectively, and the Members nominated by her Majesty, with the advice of her Privy Council, for such parts respectively of the United Kingdom, shall be the Branch Councils for such parts respectively of the United Kingdom, to which Branch Councils shall be delegated such of the powers and duties vested in the Council as the Council may see fit other than the power to make representations to her Majesty in Council as herein-after mentioned: the President shall be a Member of all the Branch Councils.

Qualification.

VII. Members of the General Council representing the Medical Corporations must be qualified to be registered under this Act.

Resignation or Death of Member of General Council.

VIII. The Members of the General Council shall be chosen and nominated for a term not exceeding five years, and shall be capable of re-appointment, and any Member may at any time resign his appointment by letter addressed to the President of the said Council, and upon the death or resignation of any Member of the said Council some other person shall be constituted a Member of the said Council in his place in manner herein-before provided; but it shall be lawful for the Council during such vacancy to exercise the powers herein-after mentioned.

Time and Place of Meeting of the General Council.

IX. The General Council shall hold their first meeting within three months from the commencement of this Act, in such place and at such time as one of her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State shall appoint, and shall make such rules and regulations as to the times and places of the meetings of the General Council, and the mode of summoning the same, as to them shall seem expedient, which rules and regulations shall remain in force until altered at any subsequent meeting; and in the absence of any rule or regulation as to the summoning a meeting of the General Council, it shall be lawful for the President to summon a meeting at such time and place as to him shall seem expedient by letter addressed to each Member; and at every meeting, in the absence of the President, some other Member, to be chosen from the Members present, shall act as President; and all Acts of the General Council shall be decided by the votes of the majority of the Members present at any meeting, the whole number present not being less than eight, and at all such meetings the President for the time being shall, in addition to his vote as a Member of the Council, have a casting vote, in case of an equality of votes; and the General Council shall have power to appoint an Executive Committee out of their own body, of which the quorum shall not be less than three, and to delegate to such Committee such of the powers and duties vested in the Council as the Council may see fit, other than the power of making representations to her Majesty in Council as herein-after mentioned.

Appointment of Registrars and other Officers.

X. The General Council shall appoint a Registrar, who shall act as Secretary of the General Council, and who may also act as Treasurer, unless the Council shall appoint another person or other persons as Treasurer or Treasurers; and the person or persons so appointed shall likewise act as Registrar for England, and as Secretary and Treasurer or Treasurers, as the case may be, for the Branch Council for England; the General Council and Branch Council for England shall also appoint so many clerks and servants as shall be necessary for the purposes of this Act; and every person so appointed by any Council shall be removable at the pleasure of that Council, and shall be paid such salary as the Council by which he was appointed shall think fit.

Appointment of Registrars and other Officers by Branch Councils.

XI. The Branch Councils for Scotland and Ireland shall each respectively in like manner appoint a Registrar and other officers and clerks, who shall be paid such salaries as such Branch Councils respectively shall think fit, and be removable at the pleasure of the Council by which they were appointed; and the person appointed Registrar shall also act as Secretary to the Branch Council, and may also act as Treasurer, unless the Council shall appoint some other person or persons as Treasurer or Treasurers.

Fees for attending at Councils.

XII. There shall be paid to the Members of the Councils such fees for attendance and such reasonable travelling expenses as shall from time to time be allowed by the General Council, and approved of by the Commissioners of her Majesty's Treasury.

Expenses of the Councils.

XIII. All monies payable to the respective Councils shall be paid to the Treasurers of such Councils respectively, and shall be applied to defray the expenses of carrying this Act into execution in manner following; that is to say, separate accounts shall be kept of the expenses of the General Council, and of those of the Branch Councils; and the expenses of the General Council, including those of keeping, printing, and publishing the Register for the United Kingdom, shall be defrayed, under the direction of the General Council, by means of an equal per-centage rate upon all monies received by the several Branch Councils; returns shall be made by the Treasurers of the respective Branch Councils, at such times as the General Council shall direct, of all monies received by them; and the necessary per-centage having been computed by the General Council, the respective contributions shall be paid by the Treasurers of such Branch Councils to the Treasurer or Treasurers of the General Council; and the expenses of the Branch Councils shall be defrayed, under the direction of those Councils respectively, out of the residue of the monies so received as aforesaid.

Duty of Registrars to keep the Register correct.

XIV. It shall be the duty of the Registrars to keep their respective registers correct in accordance with the provisions of this Act, and the orders and regulations of the General Council, and to erase the names of all registered persons who shall have died, and shall from time to time make the necessary alterations in the addresses or qualifications of the persons registered under this Act; and to enable the respective Registrars duly to fulfil the duties imposed upon them it shall be lawful for the Registrar to write a letter to any registered person, addressed to him according to his address on the register, to inquire whether he has ceased to practise, or has changed his residence, and if no answer shall be returned to such letter within the period of six months from the sending of the letter it shall be lawful to erase the name of such person from the register; provided always, that the same may be restored by direction of the General Council should they think fit to make an order to that effect.

Registration of Persons now qualified, and of Persons hereafter becoming qualified.

XV. Every person now possessed, and (subject to the provisions herein-after contained) every person hereafter becoming possessed, of any one or more of the qualifications described in the Schedule (A.) to this Act, shall, on payment of a fee, not exceeding two pounds, in respect of qualifications obtained before the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, and not exceeding five pounds in respect of qualifications obtained on or after that day, be entitled to be registered on producing to the Registrar of the Branch Council for England, Scotland, or Ireland the document conferring or evidencing the qualification or each of the qualifications in respect whereof he seeks to be so registered, or upon transmitting by post to such Registrar information of his name and address, and evidence of the qualification or qualifications in respect whereof he seeks to be registered, and of the time or times at which the same was or were respectively obtained: Provided always that it shall be lawful for the several Colleges and other Bodies mentioned in the said Schedule (A.) to transmit from time to time to the said Registrar lists certified under their respective seals of the several persons who, in respect of qualifications granted by such Colleges and Bodies respectively, are for the time being entitled to be registered under this Act, stating the respective qualifications and places of residence of such persons; and it shall be lawful for the Registrar thereupon, and upon payment of such fee as aforesaid in respect of such person to be registered, to enter in the register the persons mentioned in such lists, with their qualifications and places of residence as therein dated, without other application in relation thereto.

Council to make Orders for regulating Registers to be kept.

XVI. The General Council shall, with all convenient speed after the passing of this Act, and from time to time as occasion may require, make orders for regulating the Registers to be kept under this Act as nearly as conveniently may be in accordance with the form set forth in Schedule (D.) to this Act, or to the like effect.

Persons practising in England before 1st August, 1815, entitled to be registered.

XVII. Any person who was actually practising medicine in England before the first day of August one thousand eight hundred and fifteen shall, on payment of a fee to be fixed by the General Council, be entitled to be registered on producing to the Registrar of the Branch Council for England, Scotland, or Ireland, a declaration according to the form in Schedule (B.) to this Act, signed by him, or upon transmitting to such Registrar information of his name and address, and enclosing such declaration as aforesaid.

Council may require Information as to Course of Study, &c., required for obtaining Qualifications.

XVIII. The several Colleges and Bodies in the United Kingdom mentioned in Schedule (A.) to this Act shall from time to time, when required by the General Council, furnish such Council with such information as they may require as to the Courses of Study and Examinations to be gone through in order to obtain the respective qualifications mentioned in Schedule (A.) to this Act, and the ages at which such Courses of Study and Examinations are required to be gone through, and such qualifications are conferred, and generally as to the requisites for obtaining such qualifications; and any member or members of the General Council, or any person or persons deputed for this purpose by such Council, or by any Branch Council, may attend and be present at any such examinations.

Colleges may unite in conducting Examinations.

XIX. Any two or more of the Colleges and Bodies in the United Kingdom mentioned in Schedule (A.) to this Act may, with the sanction and under the direction of the General Council, unite or co-operate in conducting the examinations required for qualifications to be registered under this Act.

Defects in the Course of Study or Examination may be represented by General Council to Privy Council.

XX. In case it appear to the General Council that the Course of Study and Examinations to be gone through in order to obtain any such qualification from any such College or Body are not such as to secure the possession by persons obtaining such qualification of the requisite knowledge and skill for the efficient practice of their profession, it shall be lawful for such General Council to represent the same to her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

Privy Council may suspend the Right of Registration in respect of Qualifications granted by College, &c., in default, but may be revoked.

XXI. It shall be lawful for the Privy Council, upon any such representation as aforesaid, if it see fit, to order that any qualification granted by such College or Body, after such time as may be mentioned in the order, shall not confer any right to be registered under this Act: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for her Majesty, with the advice of her Privy Council, when it is made to appear to her, upon further representation from the General Council or otherwise, that such College or Body has made effectual provision, to the satisfaction of such General Council, for the improvement of such Course of Study or Examinations, or the mode of conducting such examinations, to revoke any such order.

Persons not to be Registered in respect of Qualifications granted by the College Body before Revocation.

XXII. After the time mentioned in this behalf in any such Order in Council no person shall be entitled to be registered under this Act in respect of any such qualification as in such Order mentioned, granted by the College or Body to which such Order relates, after the time therein mentioned, and the revocation of any such Order shall not entitle any person to be registered in respect of any qualification granted before such revocation.

Privy Council may prohibit Attempts to impose Restrictions as to any Theory of Medicine or Surgery by Bodies entitled to grant Certificates.

XXIII. In case it shall appear to the General Council that an attempt has been made by any Body, entitled under this Act to grant qualifications, to impose upon any candidate offering himself for examination an obligation to adopt or refrain from adopting the practice of any particular theory of medicine and surgery, as a test or condition of admitting him to examination or of granting a certificate, it shall be lawful for the said Council to represent the same to her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and the said Privy Council may thereupon issue an injunction to such Body so acting, directing them to desist from such practice; and in the event of their not complying therewith, then to order that such Body shall cease to have the power of conferring any right to be registered under this Act so long as they shall continue such practice.

As to the Making and Authentication of Orders, &c.

XXIV. All powers vested in the Privy Council by this Act may be exercised by any three or more of the Lords and others of the Privy Council, the Vice-President of the Committee of the said Privy Council on Education being one of them; and all orders and acts of the Privy Council under this Act shall be sufficiently made and signified by a written or printed document, signed by one of the Clerks of the Privy Council, or such officer as may be appointed by the Privy Council in this behalf; and all orders and acts made or signified by any written or printed document purporting to be so signed shall be deemed to have been duly made, issued, and done by the Privy Council; and every such document shall be received in evidence in all courts, and before all justices and others, without proof of the authority or signature of such clerk or other officer or other proof whatsoever, until it be shown that such document was not duly signed by the authority of the Privy Council.

As to Registration by Branch Registrars.

XXV. Where any person entitled to be registered under this Act applies to the Registrar of any of the said Branch Councils for that purpose, such Registrar shall forthwith enter into a Local Register in the form set forth in Schedule (D.) to this Act, or to the like effect, to be kept by him for that purpose, the name and place of residence, and the qualification or several qualifications in respect of which the person is so entitled, and the date of the registration, and shall, in the case of the Registrar of the Branch Council for Scotland or Ireland, with all convenient speed send to the Registrar of the General Council a copy, certified under the hand of the Registrar, of the entry so made, and the Registrar of the General Council shall forthwith cause the same to be entered in the General Register; and such Registrar shall also forthwith cause all entries made in the Local Register for England to be entered in the General Register; and the entry on the General Register shall bear date from the Local Register.

Evidence of Qualification to be given before Registration.

XXVI. No qualification shall be entered on the Register, either on the first registration or by way of addition to a registered name, unless the Registrar be satisfied by the proper evidence that the person claiming is entitled to it; and any appeal from the decision of the Registrar may be decided by the General Council or by the Council for England, Scotland, or Ireland (as the case may be); and any entry which shall be proved to the satisfaction of such General Council or Branch Council to have been fraudulently or incorrectly made may be erased from the Register by order in writing of such General Council or Branch Council.

Register to be published.

XXVII. The Registrar of the General Council shall in every year cause to be printed, published, and sold, under the direction of such Council, a correct Register of the names in alphabetical order according to the surnames, with the respective residences, in the form set forth in Schedule (D.) to this Act, or to the like effect, and medical titles, diplomas, and qualifications conferred by any Corporation or University, or by Doctorate of the Archbishop of Canterbury, with the dates thereof, of all persons appearing on the General Register as existing on the first day of January in every year; and such Register shall be called "The Medical Register;" and a copy of the Medical Register for the time being, purporting to be so printed and published as aforesaid, shall be evidence in all courts and before all justices of the peace and others that the persons therein specified are registered according to the provisions of this Act; and the absence of the name of any person from such copy shall be evidence, until the contrary be made to appear, that such person is not registered according to the provisions of this Act: Provided always, that in the case of any person whose name does not appear in such copy, a certified copy, under the hand of the Registrar of the General Council or of any Branch Council, of the entry of the name of such person on the General or Local Register shall be evidence that such person is registered under the provisions of this Act.

Names of Members struck off from List of College, &c., to be signified to General Council.

XXVIII. If any of the said Colleges or the said Bodies at any time exercise any power they possess by law of striking off from the lists of such College or Body the name of any one of their Members, such College or Body shall signify to the General Council the name of the Member so struck off; and the General Council may, if they see fit, direct the Registrar to erase forthwith from the Register the Qualification derived from such College or Body in respect of which such Member was registered, and the Registrar shall note the same therein: Provided always, that the name of no person shall be erased from the Register on the ground of his having adopted any Theory of Medicine or Surgery.

Medical Practitioners convicted of Felony may be struck off the Register.

XXIX. If any registered Medical Practitioner shall be convicted in England or Ireland of any felony or misdemeanour, or in Scotland of any crime or offence, or shall after due inquiry be judged by the General Council to have been guilty of infamous conduct in any professional respect, the General Council may, if they see fit, direct the Registrar to erase the name of such Medical Practitioner from the Register.

Registered Persons may have subsequent Qualifications inserted in the Register.

XXX. Every person registered under this Act who may have obtained any higher degree or any qualification other than the qualification in respect of which he may have been registered, shall be entitled to have such higher degree or additional qualification inserted in the Register in substitution for or in addition to the qualification previously registered, on payment of such fee as the Council may appoint.

Privileges of Registered Persons.

XXXI. Every person registered under this Act shall be entitled according to his qualification or qualifications to practise Medicine or Surgery, or Medicine and Surgery, as the case may be, in any part of her Majesty's dominions, and to demand and recover in any court of law, with full costs of suit, reasonable charges for professional aid, advice, and visits, and the cost of any medicines or other medical or surgical appliances rendered or supplied by him to his patients: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for any College of Physicians to pass a bylaw to the effect that no one of their Fellows or Members shall be entitled to sue in manner aforesaid in any court of law, and thereupon such bylaw may be pleaded in bar to any action for the purposes aforesaid commenced by any Fellow or Member of such College.

None but Registered Persons to recover Charges.

XXXII. After the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, no person shall be entitled to recover any charge in any court of law for any medical or surgical advice, attendance, or for the performance of any operation, or for any medicine which he shall have both prescribed and supplied, unless he shall prove upon the trial that he is registered under this Act.

Poor Law Medical Officers not disqualified if registered within Six Months of passing of Act.

XXXIII. Provided also, that no person who on the first of October one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight shall be acting as Medical Officer under an Order of the Poor Law Commissioners or Poor Law Board shall be disqualified to hold such office, by reason of his not being registered as herein required, unless he shall have failed to be registered within six months from the passing of this Act.

Meaning of Terms "legally qualified Medical Practitioner," &c.

XXXIV. After the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, the words "legally qualified Medical Practitioner," or "duly qualified Medical Practitioner," or any words importing a person recognised by law as a Medical Practitioner or Member of the Medical Profession, when used in any Act of Parliament, shall be construed to mean a person registered under this Act.

Registered Persons exempted from serving on Juries, &c.

XXXV. Every person who shall be registered under the provisions of this Act shall be exempt, if he shall so desire, from serving on all juries and inquests whatsoever, and from serving all corporate, parochial, ward, hundred, and township offices, and from serving in the militia, and the name of such person shall not be returned in any list of persons liable to serve in the militia, or in any such office as aforesaid.

Unregistered Persons not to hold certain Appointments.

XXXVI. After the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, no person shall hold any appointment as a Physician, Surgeon, or Medical officer either in the military or naval service, or in emigrant or other vessels, or in any hospital, infirmary, dispensary, or lying-in hospital, not supported wholly by voluntary contributions, or in any lunatic asylum, gaol, penitentiary, house of correction, house of industry, parochial or union workhouse or poorhouse, parish union, or other public establishment, body, or institution, or to any friendly or other society, for affording mutual relief in sickness, infirmity, or old age, or as a Medical officer of health, unless he be registered under this Act: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall extend to repeal or alter any of the provisions of the Passengers Act, 1855.

No Certificate to be valid unless Person signing be registered.

XXXVII. After the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, no Certificate required by any Act now in force, or that may hereafter be passed, from any physician, surgeon, licentiate in medicine and surgery, or other medical practitioner, shall be valid, unless the person signing the same be registered under this Act.

Penalty on wilful Falsification of Register.

XXXVIII. Any Registrar who shall wilfully make or cause to be made any falsification in any matters relating to the Register shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanour in England or Ireland, and in Scotland of a crime or offence punishable by fine or imprisonment, and shall, on conviction thereof, be imprisoned for any term not exceeding twelve months.

Penalty for obtaining Registration by False Representations.

XXXIX. If any person shall wilfully procure or attempt to procure himself to be registered under this Act, by making or producing or causing to be made or produced any false or fraudulent representation or declaration, either verbally or in writing, every such person so offending, and every person aiding or assisting him therein, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanour in England and Ireland, and in Scotland of a crime or offence punishable by fine or imprisonment, and shall, on conviction thereof, be sentenced to be imprisoned for any term not exceeding twelve months.

Penalty for falsely pretending to be a Registered Person.

XL. Any person who shall wilfully and falsely pretend to be or take or use the name or title of a Physician, Doctor of Medicine, Licentiate in Medicine and Surgery, Bachelor of Medicine, Surgeon, General Practitioner or Apothecary, or any name, title, addition, or description implying that he is registered under this Act, or that he is recognised by law as a Physician, or Surgeon, or Licentiate in Medicine and Surgery, or a Practitioner in Medicine, or an Apothecary, shall, upon a summary conviction for any such offence, pay a sum not exceeding twenty pounds.

Recovery of Penalties.

XLI. Any penalty to which under this Act any person is liable on summary conviction of any offence may be recovered as follows: (that is to say), in England, in manner directed by the Act of the Session holden in the eleventh and twelfth year of her Majesty, chapter forty-three, and in Ireland, in manner directed by "The Petty Sessions (Ireland) Act, 1851," or any other Act for the time being in force in England and Ireland respectively for the like purposes; and any such penalty may in Scotland be recovered by the Procurator Fiscal of the county, or by any other person before the Sheriff or two Justices, who may proceed in a summary way and grant warrant for bringing the party complained against before him or them, or issue an order requiring such party to appear on a day and at a time and place to be named in such order, and every such order shall be served on the party by delivering to him in person or by leaving at his usual place of abode a copy of such order and of the complaint whereupon the same has proceeded, and upon the appearance or default to appear of the party, it shall be lawful for the Sheriff or Justices to proceed to the hearing of the complaint, and upon proof on oath or confession of the offence, the Sheriff or Justices shall, without any written pleadings or record of evidence, commit the offender and decern him to pay the penalty named as well as such expenses as the Sheriff or Justices shall think fit, and failing payment shall grant warrant for recovery thereof by poinding and imprisonment, such imprisonment to be for such period as the discretion of the Sheriff or Justices may direct, not exceeding three calendar months, and to cease on payment of the penalty and expenses.

Application of Penalties.

XLII. Any sum or sums of money arising from conviction and recovery of penalties as aforesaid shall be paid to the Treasurer of the General Council.

Application of Monies received by Treasurer.

XLIII. All monies received by any Treasurer arising from fees to be paid on registration, from the sale of registers, from penalties, or otherwise, shall be applied for expenses of registration and of the execution of this Act.

Accounts to be published.

XLIV. The Treasurers of the General and Branch Councils shall enter in books to be kept for that purpose a true account of all sums of money by them received and paid, and such accounts shall be submitted by them to the respective General Council and Branch Councils at such times as the Councils shall require; and the said accounts shall be published annually, and such accounts shall be laid before both Houses in the month of March in every year, if Parliament be sitting, or, if Parliament be not sitting, then within one month after the next meeting of Parliament.

Notice of Death of Medical Practitioners to be given by Registrars.

XLV. Every Registrar of deaths in the United Kingdom on receiving notice of the death of any medical practitioner shall forthwith transmit by post to the Registrar of the General Council and to the Registrar of the Branch Council a certificate under his own hand of such death, with the particulars of time and place of death, and may charge the cost of such certificate and transmission as an expense of his office, and on the receipt of such certificate the Medical Registrar shall erase the name of such deceased medical practitioner from the Register.

Provision for Persons practising in the Colonies and elsewhere, and for Students.

XLVI. It shall be lawful for the General Council by special orders to dispense with such provisions of this Act or with such part of any regulations made by its authority as to them shall seem fit in favour of persons now practising medicine or surgery in any part of her Majesty's dominions other than Great Britain and Ireland by virtue of any of the qualifications described in Schedule (A.); and also in favour of persons practising medicine and surgery within the United Kingdom on foreign or colonial diplomas or degrees before the passing of this Act; and also in favour of any persons who have held appointments as Surgeons or Assistant-Surgeons in the Army, Navy, or Militia, in the service of the East India Company, or are acting as Surgeons in the public service, or in the service of any charitable institutions, and also, so far as to the Council shall seem expedient, in favour of Medical Students who shall have commenced their professional studies before the passing of this Act.

New Charter may be granted to the College of Physicians of London.

XLVII. It shall be lawful for her Majesty to grant to the Corporation of the Royal College of Physicians of London a new charter, and thereby to give to such Corporation the name of "The Royal College of Physicians of England," and to make such alterations in the constitution of the same Corporation as to her Majesty may seem expedient; and it shall be lawful for the said Corporation to accept such charter under their common seal, and such acceptance shall operate as a surrender of all charters heretofore granted to the said Corporation, except the charter granted by King Henry the Eighth, and shall also operate as a surrender of such charter, and of any rights, powers, or privileges conferred by or enjoyed under an Act of the Session holden in the fourteenth and fifteenth years of King Henry the Eighth, Chapter Five, confirming the same as far as such charter and Act respectively may be inconsistent with such new charter: Provided, nevertheless, that within twelve months after the granting of such Charter to the College of Physicians of London, any Fellow, Member, or Licentiate of the Royal College of Physicians of Edinburgh, or of the Queen's College of Physicians of Ireland, who may be in practice as a Physician in any part of the United Kingdom called England, and who may be desirous of becoming a Member of such College of Physicians of England, shall be at liberty to do so, and entitled to receive the diploma of the said College, and to be admitted to all the rights and privileges thereunto appertaining, on the payment of a registration fee of two pounds to the said College.

Her Majesty may grant Power to College of Surgeons to institute Examination, &c., for Dentists.

XLVIII. It shall, notwithstanding anything herein contained, be lawful for her Majesty, by charter, to grant to the Royal College of Surgeons of England power to institute and hold examinations for the purpose of testing the fitness of persons to practise as Dentists who may be desirous of being so examined, and to grant certificates of such fitness.

New Charter may be granted to College of Physicians of Edinburgh.

XLIX. It shall be lawful for her Majesty to grant to the Corporation of the Royal College of Physicians of Edinburgh a new charter, and thereby to give to the said College of Physicians the name of "The Royal College of Physicians of Scotland," and it shall be lawful for the said Royal College of Physicians, under their common seal, to accept such new charter, and such acceptance shall operate as a surrender of all charters heretofore granted to the said Corporation.

The Faculty at Glasgow may be amalgamated.

L. If at any future period the Royal College of Surgeons of Edinburgh and Faculty of Physicians and Surgeons of Glasgow agree to amalgamate, so as to form one united Corporation under the name of "The Royal College of Surgeons of Scotland," it shall be lawful for her Majesty to grant, and for such College and Faculty under their respective common seals to accept, such new charter or charters as may be necessary for effecting such union, and such acceptance shall operate as a surrender of all charters heretofore granted to such College and Faculty; and in the event of such union it shall be competent for the said College and Faculty to make such arrangements as to the time and place of their examinations as they may agree upon, these arrangements being in conformity with the provisions of this Act, and subject to the approval of the General Council.

New Charter may be granted to the King and Queen's College of Physicians in Ireland.

LL. It shall be lawful for her Majesty to charter to the Corporation of the King and Queen's College of Physicians in Ireland a new charter, and thereby to give to such Corporation the name of "The Royal College of Physicians of Ireland," and to make such alterations in the constitution of the said Corporation as to her Majesty may seem expedient; and it shall be lawful for the said Corporation to accept such charter under their common seal, and such acceptance shall operate as a surrender of the charter granted by King William and Queen Mary, so far as it may be inconsistent with such new charter.

Charters not to contain new Restrictions in the Practice of Medicine or Surgery.

LII. Provided always, That nothing herein contained shall extend to authorize her Majesty to create any new restriction in the Practice of Medicine or Surgery, or to grant to any of the said Corporations any power or privileges contrary to the common law of the land or to the provisions of this Act, and that no such new charter shall in anywise prejudice, affect, or annul any of the existing statutes or by-laws of the Corporations to which the same shall be granted, further than shall be necessary for giving full effect to the alterations which shall be intended to be effected by such new charters and by this Act in the constitution of such Corporation.

Provisions of 17 & 18 Vict. c. 114, as to University of London, to continue in force.

LIII. The enactments and provisions of the University of London Medical Graduates' Act, 1854, shall be deemed and construed to have applied and shall apply to the University of London for the time being, notwithstanding the surrender or determination of the therein-recited charter, and the granting or acceptance of the now existing charter of the University of London, or the future determination of the present or any future charter of the said University, and the granting of any new charter to the said University; and that every Bachelor of Medicine and Doctor of Medicine of the University of London for the time being shall be deemed to have been and to be entitled and shall be entitled to the privileges conferred by the said Act, in the same manner and to the same extent as if the charter recited in the said Act remained in force, subject nevertheless to the provisions of this Act.

British Pharmacopœia to be published.

LIV. The General Council shall cause to be published under their direction a book containing a list of medicines and compounds, and the manner of preparing them, together with the true weights and measures by which they are to be prepared and mixed, and containing such other matters and things relating thereto as the General Council shall think fit, to be called "British Pharmacopœia;" and the General Council shall cause to be altered, amended, and republished such Pharmacopœia as often as they shall deem it necessary.

Chemists, &c. not to be affected.

LV. Nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to prejudice or in any way to affect the lawful occupation, trade, or business of Chemists and Druggists and Dentists, or the rights, privileges, or employment of duly licensed Apothecaries in Ireland, so far as the same extend to selling, compounding, or dispensing medicines.

MEDICAL AMENDMENT ACT.

CAP. XXI.

An Act to amend the Medical Act (1858). [19th April, 1859.]

21st and 22nd Vict., c. 90.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, chapter ninety, "The Medical Act," provision is made for the Registration of Members of the Medical Profession, and certain Disabilities are imposed, after the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, on Members of that Profession who are not then registered: And whereas, by reason of the time required for the collection and examination of the proper evidence on the first formation of "The Medical Register," it is expedient to amend the said Act as herein-after mentioned: And whereas it is expedient that Schedule D. of the aforesaid Act should be amended: And whereas in Sections Thirty-one and Forty-seven of the Medical Act (1858) the terms "Fellow," and "Member" of the Royal College of Physicians of London and Edinburgh are made use of, whilst in Schedule A. in the same Act, "Fellows," "Licentiates," and "Extra Licentiates" of the said colleges are alone entitled to be registered: Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1st. July, 1859, to be substituted in ss. 32, 34, 36, and 37, of recited Act for 1st Jan., 1859.

I. The first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine shall be substituted, in sections thirty-two, thirty-four, thirty-six, and thirty-seven respectively of the said Act, for the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine; and the said several sections, and all provisions of the said Act having reference thereto, shall be construed and take effect as if the word July had been originally inserted in each of the said sections instead of the word January.

Section 33 of recited Act repealed.

II. Section thirty-three of the said Act shall be repealed, and no person shall by reason of the said Act be or be deemed to have been disqualified to hold such office as mentioned in the said section thirty-three, or any appointment mentioned in the said section thirty-six, unless he shall have failed to be registered on or before the first day of July one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine.

Fourth Column of Schedule D. repealed.

III. The fourth column of Schedule D. of the said Act with its heading shall be repealed and omitted.

The Term "Member" to be added in First and Second Heads of Schedule A.

IV. The term "Member" shall be added after the term "Fellow" to the qualifications described in the first and second heads of Schedule A.

The words "Forty-six" to be substituted for "Forty-five" in Schedule A.

V. And whereas in Schedule A. of the said Act there is a reference to Section "Forty-five," but the word "five" is there inserted by mistake: Now it is hereby enacted, That the words "Forty-six" shall be deemed to be substituted in this Schedule in the place of the words "Forty-five."

Any Person not a British Subject having obtained his Degree or Diploma may act as Resident Physician, &c., of any Hospital exclusively for Foreigners.

VI. Nothing in the said Act contained shall prevent any person not a British subject who shall have obtained from any Foreign University a Degree or Diploma of Doctor in Medicine, and who shall have passed the regular examinations entitling him to practise medicine in his own country, from being and acting as the Resident Physician or Medical Officer of any Hospital established exclusively for the relief of foreigners in sickness: Provided always, that such person is engaged in no Medical Practice except as such Resident Physician or Medical Officer.

CAP. VII.

An Act to amend the Medical Acts. [23rd March, 1860.]

21 and 22 Vict. c. 90. 22 Vict. c. 21.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the twenty-first and twenty-second years of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter ninety, intitled "The Medical Act," Provision is made for the Registration of Members of the Medical Profession, and the said Act was amended by an Act passed in the twenty-second year of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter twenty-one; and certain Disabilities are imposed by the said Acts, after a period mentioned therein, on Members of that Profession who are not then registered: And whereas it is expedient that the said recited Acts should be amended as herein-after mentioned: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Licentiate in Surgery of any University in Ireland entitled to be Registered under first-recited Act in like Manner as Masters in Surgery.

I. From and after the passing of this Act the Diploma or Licence in Surgery, granted by any University of that part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, legally authorized to grant the same, shall be considered a sufficient Qualification to practise under the said first-recited Act, and every person to whom such Diploma or Licence has been granted shall be entitled to be registered under the Provisions of the said first-recited Act, in the like Manner, and with the like Effect, and subject to the like Provisions as are prescribed by the said first-recited Act in respect of the Registration of any Master in Surgery of any University of the United Kingdom.

Certain Powers given to Medical Council extended to this Act.

II. The Powers given to the Medical Council in the said first-recited Act with respect to the Studies and Examinations required for obtaining a Qualification under the said Act shall be extended to the Studies and Examinations required for a Qualification under this Act.

1st January, 1861, to be substituted in Sections 32, 34, 36, and 37, of first-recited Act, for 1st July, 1859, so far as relates to Persons authorized to be registered under this Act.

III. The first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, shall be deemed to be substituted in sections thirty-two, thirty-four, thirty-six, and thirty-seven respectively of the said first-recited Act, as the same are amended by the said second-recited Act, for the first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, so far as the same relate to any Person authorized to be registered under this Act; and the said several Sections, as so amended, and all the Provisions of the said Act having reference thereto, shall, with respect to any such person so authorized to be registered under this Act, be construed and take effect as if the words "the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one" had been originally inserted in each of the said Sections instead of the words "the first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine."

No Person authorized to be registered under this Act disqualified to hold certain Offices, unless he has failed to be registered.

IV. No Person authorized to be registered under this Act who shall be acting as Medical Officer under an order of the Poor Law Commissioners, or Poor Law Board, shall by reason of the said recited acts, or either of them, be or be deemed to have been disqualified to hold such Office, or any appointment mentioned in Section thirty-six of the said first-recited Act, unless he shall have failed to be registered on or before the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one.

Recited Acts and this Act to be as one.

V. The said recited Acts and this Act shall be construed together as one Act.

Short Title.

VI. This Act may for all purposes be cited as "The Medical Acts Amendment Act, 1860."

CAP. LXVI.

An Act to amend the Medical Act (1858). [6th August, 1860.]

21 & 22 Vict., c. 90.

WHEREAS by "The Medical Act, 1858," it is provided that it shall be lawful for her Majesty to grant to the Corporation of the Royal College of Physicians of London a new Charter, and thereby to give to such Corporation the name of "The Royal College of Physicians of England," and to grant to the Corporation of the Royal College of Physicians of Edinburgh a new Charter, and thereby to give to the said College of Physicians the name of "The Royal College of Physicians of Scotland," and to grant to the Corporation of the King and Queen's College of Physicians in Ireland a new Charter, and thereby to give to such Corporation the name of "The Royal College of Physicians of Ireland;" but provision is not made by the said Act for reserving to the said Colleges, and the Presidents and Censors, Fellows, Members, Licentiates, and Extra Licentiates thereof respectively, by their said new names, the Powers, Privileges, Liberties, and Immunities to which they are respectively entitled by their existing names, and doubts have arisen whether, in case of the acceptance by these Colleges respectively of new Charters under such altered names respectively, the said Powers, Privileges, Liberties, and Immunities would legally attach and be preserved to them, and it is expedient that such doubts should be removed :

14 & 15 Hen. 8, c. 5.

And whereas by an Act passed in the fourteenth and fifteenth years of the reign of King Henry the Eighth, intituled "The Privileges and Authorities of Physicians in London," certain Letters Patent, dated the twenty-third day of September, in the tenth year of the reign of his said Majesty, whereby certain physicians in London therein named were incorporated by the name of "The President and College or Commonalty of the Faculty of Physic in London," were ratified and confirmed; and by the said Act it was enacted, that the six persons named in the said Letters Patent, and two more of the said Commonalty to be chosen by them, should be called Elects, and that the said Elects should yearly choose one of them to be President of the said Commonalty, and that as oft as any of the places of the said Elects should become void the survivors should choose and admit one or more, as need should require, of the said Faculty to supply the number of eight persons, and that no person should from thenceforth be suffered to practise in Physic through England until he be examined by the said President and three of the said Elects, and have from them Letters Testimonial, except he be a Graduate of Oxford or Cambridge: And whereas the main function of the said Elects, viz., that of examining and granting Letters Testimonial, has been virtually superseded by the said Medical Act, and they have ceased to grant Letters Testimonial in accordance with the provisions contained in the last-recited Act; and it is therefore expedient that the before-recited provisions should be repealed: Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Interpretation of Terms.

I. The expression in the Medical Act and this Act "The Corporation of the Royal College of Physicians of London," or "The Royal College of Physicians of London," shall be taken to denote the Corporation of "The President and College or Commonalty of the Faculty of Physic in London."

New Charters may be granted to the Colleges.

II. Any new Charter which, under the provisions of the Medical Act, shall be granted to the Corporation of the Royal College of Physicians of London, may be granted to them either by and in the name of the Royal College of Physicians of London, or, as provided by that Act, by and in the name of the Royal College of Physicians of England; and any such new Charter granted to the Corporation of the Royal College of Physicians of Edinburgh may be granted to that College either by and in its present name, or, as provided by the Medical Act, by and in the name of the Royal College of Physicians of Scotland; and any such new Charter granted to the Corporation of the King and Queen's College of Physicians in Ireland may be granted to that College either by and in its present name, or, as provided by the Medical Act, by and in the name of the Royal College of Physicians of Ireland.

Colleges to retain all existing Rights, notwithstanding Change of Name.

III. The granting of new Charters to the said Corporations respectively by and in the altered Names and Styles respectively, as provided in the Medical Act, shall not, in respect of such Alteration of Name or Style merely, alter or affect in any way the rights, powers, authorities, qualifications, liberties, exemptions, immunities, duties, and obligations granted, conferred, or imposed to or upon, or continued and preserved to the said Corporations respectively, and the respective Presidents, Censors, Fellows, Members, and Licentiates thereof, by the respective Charters and Acts of Parliament relating to the said Corporations respectively, or by the Medical Act, the Act to amend the Medical Act, the Medical Acts Amendment Act, 1860, and this Act respectively; but the said Corporations respectively, and the respective Presidents, Censors, Fellows, Members, and Licentiates thereof, shall, notwithstanding any such change of name and style, have and retain all such and the same rights, powers, authorities, qualifications, liberties, exemptions, and immunities, and be subject to all such and the same duties and obligations, as if such new Charters respectively had been granted to them by and in their respective names and styles as then existing.

Colleges to hold Property notwithstanding Change of Name.

IV. Each of the said Corporations shall also, notwithstanding any such alteration of name or style, have, hold, and enjoy, and continue to have, hold, and enjoy, all lands and other real and personal, heritable and moveable property belonging to such Corporation, either beneficially or in trust, at the date of the granting of such new Charter, and may execute and perform any use or trust for the time being vested or reposed in such Corporation.

Provisions in 14 and 15 Hen. 8, c. 5, as to the Elects repealed.

V. So much of the Act of the fourteen and fifteen Henry the Eighth, chapter five, as relates to the Elects of the said Royal College of Physicians of London, and their powers and functions, shall be and the same is hereby repealed; but this repeal shall not prejudice or affect the rights and privileges of any persons to whom the said President and Elects may have granted Letters Testimonial; and all trusts which by any deed, gift, devise, or bequest are vested in, or to be executed or performed by the Elects, or some defined number of them, shall vest in and accrue to, and be executed and performed by the Censors of the said College for the time being as if the name of the Censors had in such instruments respectively been used instead of that of the Elects, and the office and name of Elects of the said College shall henceforth wholly cease and determine.

Election of the President of the Royal College of Physicians of London.

VI. The Office of President of "The Royal College of Physicians of London" shall be an annual office; and Thomas Mayo, Doctor of Physic, the now President of the said Corporation, shall remain such President until the day next after Palm Sunday in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, when he shall go out of office; and the Fellows of the said Corporation shall, at a meeting to be holden by them for that purpose, on the same day, and on the same day in every subsequent year, elect some one of the Fellows of the said Corporation in such manner as shall be provided by any bylaw or bylaws made in that behalf by the said Corporation, and for the time being in force, to be President of the said Corporation, but the retiring President shall always be capable of being re-elected, and every President shall remain in office until the actual election of a new President; or in case of the death, resignation, or other avoidance of any such President before the expiration of his year of office, the said Fellows shall, at a meeting to be holden by them for that purpose, as soon as conveniently may be (of which due notice shall be given), elect one other of the Fellows of the said Corporation in such manner as aforesaid to be President for the remainder of the year in which such death, resignation, or other avoidance shall happen, and until such election the duties of president shall be performed by the senior Censor for the time being.

VACCINATION.

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 6, 1859.

At the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 1st day of December, 1859.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.—

To the Guardians of the Poor of all Unions and Parishes, to the Churchwardens and Overseers of all Parishes, Townships, and Places in which the Relief to the Poor is not administered by Guardians, in England and Wales, and to all Medical Practitioners.

WHEREAS by the Public Health Act, 1858, and by an Act since passed to perpetuate the same, it is enacted that the Privy Council may from time to time issue such regulations as they may think fit, for securing the due qualification of persons to be thereafter contracted with by guardians and overseers of unions and parishes in England for the vaccination of persons resident in such unions and parishes, and for securing the efficient performance of vaccination by the persons already or thereafter to be contracted with as aforesaid;—

Now, therefore, it is hereby ordered, by the Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom the Vice-President of the Committee of the said Privy Council on Education is one) that on and after the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, the following regulations shall be in force; viz. :—

Qualifications of Contractors.

1. Except where the Privy Council, for reasons brought to their notice, see fit in particular cases otherwise to allow, no person shall in future be admitted as a contractor for vaccination, unless he possess the same qualifications as are required by the orders of the Poor Law Commissioners as qualifications for a District Medical Officer, and produce a special certificate, given under such conditions as the Privy Council from time to time fix by some public vaccinator whom the Privy Council authorize to act for the purpose, and by whom he has been duly instructed or examined in the practice of vaccination, and all that relates thereto :—

but the production of this special certificate on occasion of the contract being made may be dispensed with, if the certificate, or some other which the Privy Council judge to be of like effect, have been among the certificates or testimonials necessary for obtaining any diploma, licence, or degree, which the candidate possesses ;—

and also in respect of persons legally admitted to practise before this regulation comes into effect, the special certificate may be dispensed with, on condition that the contract, during one year from its making, continue subject to the approval of the Poor Law Board ;—

and all persons now contracted with shall be deemed to be again contracted with.

Qualification of Deputies of Contractors.

2. Under the same conditions as are appointed for the admission of a contractor, any person qualified to be a contractor may, on the contractor's application, be admitted by the guardians or overseers to act as his occasional deputy ;—

but, if this admission be not part of the original contract, it must be notified by indorsement upon the contract ; and at least 15 days before it is intended to take effect, a copy of the proposed indorsement, together with all requisite evidence of the qualification of the person whom it is proposed to admit, must be transmitted to the Poor Law Board.

Vaccination and Inspection.

3. All vaccinations and inspections under contract shall be performed by the contractor in person, or by some other contractor of the same union or parish acting for him, or by a deputy duly admitted as above ;—

but at any station where the contractor is authorized (as above) to grant certificates, pupils and other candidates, aged not less than 18 years, may, in his presence and under his direction, take part in vaccinating.

All vaccinations and inspections under contract shall be performed in accordance with the annexed "Instructions for Vaccinators under Contract."

Register of Cases.

4. Until some new form of vaccination-register be duly prescribed, the person who performs any vaccination under contract shall, on the day when he performs it, legibly write in his register (as now provided) the letter R (for Re-vaccination) against the name of every person, adult or adolescent, who, having in early life been successfully vaccinated, is re-vaccinated ; and shall also enter in some column, or in the margin of the register, the source whence the lymph used in the vaccination was obtained ;—

thus : the name, or number (if any) in the register, of the subject from whom the lymph was taken ; or "N.V.E.," if the lymph was sent by the National Vaccine Establishment ; or the name or description of any other source ;— and where the vaccination or the inspection is done by a person acting as deputy for the contractor, the deputy shall write the initials of his name in the register side by side with the entry of the case ; viz. : in the left margin of the page if it be a vaccination which he performs, or in the right margin of the page if it be an inspection which he performs.

Contracts.

5. Guardians and overseers, in their respective unions and parishes, shall forthwith take measures to bring the performance of public vaccination into conformity with these regulations.

WM. L. BATHURST.

Instructions for Vaccinators under Contract.

(1.) Except there be immediate danger of small-pox, vaccinate only subjects who are in good health. Satisfy yourself that there is not any eruption behind the ears, or elsewhere on the skin ; nor any febrile state ; nor any irritation of the bowels. Under no circumstances vaccinate a subject to whom, from the state or prospects of his health, vaccination is likely to prove injurious. Do not re-vaccinate persons who in infancy have been efficiently vaccinated, unless they be more than 15 years of age, or, if during any immediate danger of small-pox, more than 12 years of age.

(2.) In all ordinary vaccinations, vaccinate by four or five separate punctures, so as to produce four or five separate good-sized vesicles ; or, if you vaccinate otherwise than by separate punctures, take care to produce local effects equal to those just mentioned.

(3.) Direct care to be taken for keeping the vesicles uninjured during their progress, and for avoiding afterwards the premature removal of the crusts.

(4.) Register the results of vaccination only after having yourself inspected the cases. Register as "successful" no case of primary vaccination, unless the course of the vesicle have been strictly regular according to the subjoined description, A ; and register as "successful" no case of re-vaccination, unless either the regular vaccine vesicle have ensued, or the results have been normally modified according to the subjoined description, B. Or if in either case you register as "successful" any result which does not agree with the subjoined descriptions, write also the word "irregular" in the column of the register where you record the result.

(5.) Endeavour to maintain in your district such a succession of cases as will enable you uniformly to vaccinate with liquid lymph directly from arm to arm; and do not, under ordinary circumstances, adopt any other method of vaccinating. To provide against emergencies, always have in reserve some stored lymph;—either dry, as on thickly-charged ivory points, constantly well-protected from damp; or liquid, according to the method of Dr. Husband of Edinburgh, in fine, short, uniformly capillary (not bulbed) tubes, hermetically sealed at both extremities. Lymph, successfully preserved by either of these methods, may be used without definite restriction as to time; but with all stored lymph caution is necessary, lest in time it have become inert, or otherwise unfit for use. If, in order to vaccinate with recent liquid lymph, you convey it from case to case in a vial or in other like manner, without its being hermetically sealed, do not let more than eighteen hours, and in very hot weather not more than twelve hours, intervene before it is used.

(6.) Consider yourself strictly responsible for the quality of whatever lymph you use or furnish for vaccination. Take lymph only from subjects who are in good health; especially satisfying yourself that they are free from eruption on the skin. Take it only from well-characterized, uninjured vesicles. Do not take it from cases of re-vaccination. Take it (as may be done in all regular cases on the day week after vaccination) at a time when the vesicles are plump, either just before the formation of the areola, or, at the latest, not more than twenty-four hours after the areola has begun to form.

(7.) In vaccinating from arm to arm, and still more in proceeding to store lymph, avoid draining any vesicle which you puncture. From such a vesicle as vaccination by puncture commonly produces, do not, under ordinary circumstances, take more lymph than will suffice for the immediate vaccination of five subjects, or for the charging of seven ivory points, or for the filling of three capillary tubes; and from larger or smaller vesicles take only in like proportion to their size.

(8.) Scrupulously observe in your inspections every sign which tests the efficiency and purity of your lymph. Note any case wherein the vaccine vesicle is unduly hastened, or otherwise irregular in its development, or wherein any undue local irritation arises; and if similar results ensue in other cases vaccinated with the same lymph, desist at once from employing it.

(9.) If from any cause your supply of lymph ceases, or becomes unsuitable for further use, take immediate measures for obtaining a new supply.

(10.) Keep in good condition the lancets or other instruments which you use for vaccinating, and do not use them for other surgical operations.

N.B. Supplies of lymph, guaranteed by the National Vaccine Board, are furnished on application to all medical practitioners. Letters of application for this lymph should be addressed "To the Registrar of the National Vaccine Establishment, Privy Council Office, London, S.W."

Signs of successful Vaccination and of successful Re-vaccination.

(GREGORY, revised by CEELY and MARSON.)

(A.) "When vaccination has been successfully performed on a healthy infant, the puncture may be felt elevated on the second and third day, and soon afterwards, if examined with a magnifying glass, appears surrounded by a slight redness. On the fifth or sixth day a distinct vesicle is formed, having an elevated edge and depressed centre. On the eighth day it appears distended with a clear lymph. The vesicle, on this, its day of greatest perfection, is circular and pearl-coloured; its margin is turgid, firm, shining, and wheel-shaped. Late on the seventh, or early on the eighth, day an inflamed ring or areola begins to form around the base of the vesicle, and, with it, continues to increase during the two following days. This areola is of a circular form, and its diameter extends from one to three inches. When at its height, on the ninth or tenth day, there is often considerable hardness and swelling of the subjacent cellular membrane. On the tenth or eleventh day the areola begins to subside, leaving, as it fades, two or three concentric circles of redness. The vesicle now begins to dry in the centre, and acquires there a brownish colour. The lymph which remains becomes opaque, and gradually concretes; so that about the fourteenth or fifteenth day the vesicle is converted into a hard, round scab, of a reddish-brown colour. This scab contracts, dries, blackens, and, about the twenty-first day, falls off. It leaves a cicatrix, which commonly is permanent in after life, circular, somewhat depressed, dotted or indented with minute pits, and, in some instances, radiated. The above described local changes, while in active progress, are attended by feverishness; first, from the fifth to the seventh day, so slightly that often the fact passes unobserved; and again more considerably during those days when the areola is about its height; the infant now being restless and hot, with more or less disturbance of stomach and bowels. About the same time, especially if the weather be hot, children of full habit not infrequently show on the extremities, and less copiously on the trunk, a lichenous, roseolar or vesicular eruption, which commonly continues for about a week. When vaccination is performed on such adults or adolescents as have not previously been vaccinated, and likewise when lymph is employed which has recently been derived from the cow, the resulting phenomena, as compared with the preceding description, are somewhat retarded in their course; and the areola is apt to be much more diffuse. There is also more feverishness; but eruption is less frequently seen."

(B.) "When persons who have once been efficiently vaccinated are, some years afterwards, re-vaccinated with effective lymph, there sometimes result vesicles which, as regards their course and that of the attendant areola, cannot be distinguished from the perfect results of primary vaccination. But far more usually results are more or less modified by the influence of such previous vaccination. Often no true vesicles form, but merely papular elevations surrounded by areolæ; and these results having attained their maximum on or before the fifth day, afterwards quickly decline. Or if vesicles form, their shape is apt to vary from that of the regular vesicle, and their course to be more rapid; so that their maturity is reached on or before the sixth day, their areolæ decline on or before the eighth day, and their scabbing begins correspondingly early. In either case the areolæ tend to diffuse themselves more widely and less regularly, and with more affection of the cellular membrane, than in primary vaccination; and the local changes are accompanied by much itching, often by some irritation of the axillary glands, and in some cases on the fourth or fifth day by considerable febrile disturbance."

NOTIFICATION.

Qualification of Public Vaccinators.

WHEREAS under the provisions of the Public Health Act, 1858, and of an Act since passed to perpetuate the same, the Privy Council have this day issued Regulations "for securing the due qualification of persons to be hereafter contracted with by Guardians and Overseers of Unions and Parishes in England for the vaccination of persons resident in such Unions and Parishes, and for securing the efficient performance of vaccination by the persons already or hereafter to be contracted with as aforesaid;" and whereas in these regulations it is, among other things, required that, on and after the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, persons to be contracted with for vaccination, and persons to be allowed to act in their stead, shall, except in certain cases, produce evidence of being duly qualified in all that relates to the practice of vaccination; which evidence must consist in a certificate given after due instruction or examination by some Public Vaccinator whom the Privy Council authorize to act for the purpose.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN—

1) that, subject to Orders of the Privy Council, the Public Vaccinators named in the following list are authorized by the Privy Council to give the required certificates of proficiency in vaccination to persons whom they have instructed therein, and those whose names in the following list are printed in italic letters are also authorized to give such certificates after examination to persons whom they have not themselves instructed;

2) that from and after the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, the Vaccinating-Stations, at which these Vaccinators officiate, will be open, under conditions set forth in the annexed memorandum, for the purposes of teaching and examination; and

3) that from time to time, as additions are made by the Privy Council to the list of persons whom they now authorize to give certificates of proficiency in vaccination, the names of the other persons thus authorized will be published in the London Gazette.

COUNCIL OFFICE, 1st December, 1859.
WILLIAM L. BATHURST.

Memorandum of Arrangements made in England for the Public Teaching of Vaccination, and for the granting of such Certificates of Proficiency in Vaccination as will qualify the bearers (if otherwise eligible) to be contracted with by Guardians and Overseers for the performance of Public Vaccination.

The stations at present established for educational purposes are all in places where there are recognised medical schools. They are stations where the appointed public vaccinator uniformly attends in person, and where the annual number of vaccinations, as compared with the number of vaccinating-days, is sufficiently large to promise that the student, during his period of attendance, will, as a rule, always find many cases together for observation. They are stations from which vaccine lymph is furnished for the public service; the vaccinators in charge of them having, for this purpose, been selected by the National Vaccine Board to be Members of the National Vaccine Establishment.

The vaccinator of an educational vaccinating-station, during his attendance thereat, will exhibit and explain the course and characters of the vaccine vesicle, will practically teach the best method or methods of performing vaccination, and of taking lymph for present or future use, will inculcate all precautions which are necessary with regard to the health of subjects proposed for vaccination, and with regard to the selection and preservation of lymph, and will give all such other instruction as is requisite for the scientific and successful performance of vaccination and re-vaccination. During his course of instruction, he will make provision to ensure that always some cases come for inspection on the tenth, as well as on the eighth day; and, for the purpose of showing these cases to his pupils, he will give, on the day appointed for their coming, a second weekly attendance at his station. He will further enable and direct each pupil to see at least six cases of vaccination on at least two other days of their progress; viz., before the eighth and after the tenth day. In the teacher's presence, and under his direction, any pupil, aged not less than eighteen years, may take part in vaccinating; but not till he has attended the station on at least two vaccinating-days.

Any person, desirous of being admitted as pupil at an educational vaccinating-station, shall pay a fee not exceeding one guinea, and thereupon receive a ticket entitling him to attend the public vaccinations of the teacher. When the pupil has attended at the station, during the times of vaccinating and teaching, for at least six weeks, the teacher, if satisfied of his proficiency, shall, on receiving back his ticket, but without further payment, give him a certificate in the appointed form.

At stations where the teacher is also authorized to give certificates of proficiency in vaccination to persons whom he has not himself instructed therein, such persons will, on appointed occasions, be examined by the teacher, on payment of a fee not exceeding one guinea, and if he find them competent, receive certificates accordingly. In case of failure to pass this examination, the candidate may be admitted to a second examination on payment of a fee not exceeding half a guinea.

The certificate of proficiency will be understood to imply—and therefore the teacher who signs it will have taken care to ascertain—that the person to whom it is given can skilfully vaccinate, both with liquid lymph (including such as is preserved in capillary tubes) and also from ivory points;—that he can properly charge ivory points or capillary tubes with lymph;—that he is aware of the relative advantages of recent and preserved lymph, and of all precautions which are requisite in using the latter;—that, from among vaccinated subjects presented for eighth-day inspection, he can select, and give reasons for preferring, those who are fittest to furnish lymph;—that, besides being thoroughly familiar with all local changes which, from first to last, normally ensue on vaccination, he has learnt what causes may accelerate or retard the local changes, or give them undue severity, or otherwise render them irregular;—that he is well-informed as to the constitutional effects of vaccination (including the eruptions which sometimes follow it) and as to the treatment which cases of vaccination, under various circumstances, may require;—that he knows how far the protective influence of vaccination is affected by lapse of time, and how far by the mode in which vaccination is performed—especially by the number or size of vesicles, and knows generally under what circumstances re-vaccination is to be recommended;—finally, that he is acquainted with the laws and regulations relative to public vaccination, and understands the local arrangements which are necessary for maintaining a constant supply of lymph.

MEDICAL WITNESSES' ACT.

6 & 7 WILLIAM 4, c. 89.

An Act to provide for the Attendance and Remuneration of Medical Witnesses at Coroners' Inquests. [17th Aug. 1836.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the attendance of Medical witnesses at coroners' inquests, also remuneration for such attendance, and for the performance of post-mortem examinations at such inquests; be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, that from and after the passing of this Act, whenever, upon the summoning or holding of any coroner's inquest, it shall appear to the coroner that the deceased person was attended at his death or during his last illness by any legally-qualified Medical practitioner, it shall be lawful for the coroner to issue his order in the form marked (A.) in the schedule hereunto annexed, for the attendance of such practitioner as a witness at such inquest; and if it shall appear to the coroner that the deceased person was not attended at or immediately before his death by any legally-qualified Medical practitioner, it shall be lawful for the coroner to issue such order for the attendance of any legally-qualified Medical practitioner being at the time in actual practice in or near the place where the death has happened; and it shall be lawful for the coroner, either in his order for the attendance of the Medical witness, or at any time between the issuing of such order and the termination of the inquest, to direct the performance of a post-mortem examination, with or without an analysis of the contents of the stomach or intestines, by the Medical witness or witnesses who may be summoned to attend at any inquest; provided that if any person shall state upon oath before the coroner that in his or her belief the death of the deceased individual was caused partly or entirely by the improper or negligent treatment of any Medical practitioner or other person, such Medical practitioner or other person shall not be allowed to perform or assist at the post-mortem examination of the deceased.

II. And be it further enacted, That whenever it shall appear to the greater number of the jurymen sitting at any coroner's inquest, that the cause of death has not been satisfactorily explained by the evidence of the Medical practitioner or other witness or witnesses who may be examined in the first instance, such greater number of the jurymen are hereby authorized and empowered to name to the coroner in writing any other legally-qualified Medical practitioner or practitioners, and to require the coroner to issue his order, in the form herein-before-mentioned, for the attendance of such last-mentioned Medical practitioner or practitioners as a witness or witnesses, and for the performance of a post-mortem examination, with or without an analysis of the contents of the stomach or intestines, whether such an examination has been performed before or not; and if the coroner, having been thereunto required, shall refuse to issue such order, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanour, and shall be punishable in like manner as if the same were a misdemeanour at common law.

III. And be it further enacted, that when any legally-qualified Medical practitioner has attended upon any coroner's inquest in obedience to any such order as aforesaid of the coroner, the said practitioner shall for such attendance at any inquest in Great Britain be entitled to receive such remuneration or fee as is mentioned in the schedule hereunto annexed; and for any inquest held in Ireland the said practitioner shall be paid in the manner provided by the laws in force in that part of the United Kingdom; and the coroner is hereby required and commanded to make his order for the payment of such remuneration or fee, when the inquest shall be held in Great Britain, and such order may be addressed and directed to the churchwardens and overseers of the parish or place in which the death has happened; and such churchwardens and overseers, or any one of them, is and are hereby required and commanded to pay the sum of money mentioned in such order of the coroner to the Medical witness therein mentioned, out of the funds collected for the relief of the poor of the said place.*

IV. Provided nevertheless, and be it further enacted, that no order of payment shall be given, or fee or remuneration paid, to any Medical practitioner, for the performance of any post-mortem examination which may be instituted without the previous direction of the coroner.

V. Provided also, and be it further enacted, that when any inquest shall be holden on the body of any person who has died in any public hospital or infirmary, or in any building or place belonging thereto, or used for the reception of the patients thereof, or who has died in any county or other lunatic asylum, or in any public infirmary or other public medical institution, whether the same be supported by endowments or by voluntary subscriptions, then and in such case nothing herein contained shall be construed to entitle the Medical officer whose duty it may have been to attend the deceased person as a Medical officer of such institution as aforesaid, to the fees or remuneration herein provided.

VI. And be it further enacted, that where any order for the attendance of any Medical practitioner as aforesaid shall have been personally served upon such practitioner, or where any such order not personally served shall have been received by any medical practitioner in sufficient time for him to have obeyed such order, or where any such order has been served at the residence of any Medical practitioner, and in every case where any Medical practitioner has not obeyed such order he shall for such neglect or disobedience forfeit the sum of five pounds sterling, upon complaint thereof made by the coroner or any two of the jury before any two justices having jurisdiction in the parish or place where the inquest under which the order issued was held, or in the parish where such Medical practitioner resides; and such two justices are hereby required, upon such complaint, to proceed to the hearing and adjudication of such complaint, and, if such Medical practitioner shall not show to the said justices a good and sufficient cause for not having obeyed such order, to enforce the said penalty by distress and sale of the offender's goods, as they are empowered to proceed by any Act of Parliament for any other penalty or forfeiture.

VII. And be it enacted, that nothing in this Act contained shall extend to Scotland.

MATRICULATION.*

[N.B. Candidates for the Degree of B.A., and Candidates for the Degree of B.Sc. or of M.B. who have not graduated in Arts in one of the Universities of the United Kingdom, are required, except in the cases stated below,† to have passed the Matriculation Examination.

The Matriculation Examination is among those Examinations of which every Medical Student commencing his professional studies after September, 1861, will be required (by the Regulations of the Medical Council) to have passed some one. And it is accepted by the Royal College of Surgeons of England in place of the Preliminary Examination otherwise imposed on Candidates for its Fellowship.]

There shall be two Examinations for Matriculation in each year; one commencing on the second Monday in January, and the other on the first Monday in July. No candidate shall be admitted to the Matriculation Examination unless he have produced a certificate ‡ showing that he has completed his sixteenth year. This certificate shall be transmitted to the Registrar at least fourteen days before the commencement of the examination. A fee of two pounds shall be paid at Matriculation. No candidate shall be admitted to the examination unless he have previously paid this fee to the Registrar. If a candidate fail to pass the examination, the fee shall not be returned to him, but he shall be admitted to any subsequent examination for Matriculation without the payment of any additional fee, provided that he give notice to the Registrar at least fourteen days before the commencement of the examination. The examination shall be conducted by means of printed papers; but the Examiners shall not be precluded from putting, for the purpose of ascertaining the competence of the candidates to pass, visà voce questions to any candidate in the subjects in which they are appointed to examine. Candidates for the Matriculation Examination shall be examined in the following subjects:—Mathematics: Arithmetic and Algebra; Geometry. Natural Philosophy: § Mechanics. Hydrostatics, Hydraulics, and Pneumatics. Acoustics. Optics. Chemistry.

* The Examinations for Matriculation will be held at Burlington House, London; and the Pass Examinations will also be held, under special arrangement (see p. 36 of the Calendar for 1860), in other Cities, Towns, and Colleges of the United Kingdom.

† Candidates for the Degree of B.Sc. who shall have attained the age of twenty-two years, will be admitted to the First B.Sc. Examinations of 1861, 1862, and 1863, without having previously passed the Matriculation Examination. Candidates for the Degree of M.B. who commenced their professional studies in or before January 1839, are exempted from the Matriculation Examination.

‡ A certified copy from the Baptismal Register, or a Certificate from the Registrar-General in London or from the Superintendent Registrar of the District, will be required in every case in which it can possibly be procured.

§ The knowledge required of these subjects in Natural Philosophy is such as may be attained by attending a course of Experimental Lectures.

Classics: The Greek and Latin Languages. One Greek and one Latin subject, to be selected one year and a half previously by the Senate.* The paper in Greek shall contain passages to be translated into English, with questions in Grammar, History and Geography. The paper in Latin shall contain passages to be translated into English, with questions in History and Geography. A separate paper shall be set containing questions in Latin Grammar, with simple and easy sentences of English to be translated into Latin; and a corresponding paper shall be set in Greek: between these two papers an option shall be allowed to candidates. The English Language: Outlines of English History and Modern Geography. The French or the German Language, at the option of the candidate. Candidates shall not be approved by the Examiners unless they show a competent knowledge in: 1. Classics; 2. The English Language, English History, and Modern Geography; 3. Mathematics and Natural Philosophy; 4. Chemistry; 5. Either the French or the German Language. In the first week of examination the examinations shall be conducted in the following order:—Monday: Afternoon, two to four, Roman Classic and History; four to six, Latin Grammar and Composition, or Greek Grammar and Composition. Tuesday: Morning, ten to one, Greek Classic and History; Afternoon, three to six, French or German. Wednesday: Morning, ten to one, Arithmetic and Algebra; Afternoon, three to six, Geometry. Thursday: Morning, ten to one, English Language; Afternoon, three to six, English History. Friday: Morning, ten to one, Natural Philosophy; Afternoon, two to five, Chemistry. On Monday morning at nine o'clock in the week next but one ensuing, the Examiners shall publish the names of all the candidates who have passed. The names shall be arranged in three divisions, each in alphabetical order. And a pass certificate, signed by the Registrar, will be delivered to each candidate who shall apply for it.

EXAMINATION FOR HONOURS.

Any candidate who has passed may be examined for honours in Mathematics and Natural Philosophy, Classics, Chemistry, and Natural History.† Candidates for honours in Mathematics and Natural Philosophy shall be examined in the following subjects:—Arithmetic and Algebra; Geometry; Plane and Spherical Trigonometry; Conic Sections; the elements of Statics and Dynamics; the elements of Hydrostatics; the elements of Optics. This Examination shall take place on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, in the week next but one after the Matriculation Examination: in the morning from ten to one, and in the afternoon from three to six. In the course of the following week, the Examiners shall publish, in the order of proficiency, a list of the candidates who acquit themselves to their satisfaction. Candidates shall be bracketed together if the Examiners are of opinion that there is no clear difference between them. In determining the relative position of candidates, the Examiners shall have regard to the proficiency in Mathematics evinced by the candidates at the Matriculation Examination. Candidates for honours in Classics shall be examined in any of the following subjects:—The Greek and Latin Languages; Composition in Latin and in English. The papers in Classics shall contain passages of the ancient authors to be translated into English, and passages of English to be translated into Latin. The papers shall also contain questions in Grammar, History and Geography. This Examination shall take place on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, in the week following the examination for honours in Mathematics and Natural Philosophy; in the morning from ten to one, and in the afternoon from three to six. In the course of the following week, the Examiners shall publish, in the order of proficiency, a list of the candidates who acquit themselves to their satisfaction. Candidates shall be bracketed together if the Examiners are of opinion that there is no clear difference between them. In determining the relative position of candidates, the Examiners shall also have regard to the proficiency in Classics, History, and Geography, evinced by the candidates at the Matriculation Examination. Candidates for honours in Natural History shall be examined in one or both of the following subjects:—Botany; Zoology. The examination for honours in Chemistry shall take place on the Friday in the week next but one after the Pass Examination, in the morning from ten to one; and the examination in Natural History, on the same day, in the afternoon from two to five. Such candidates for honours in Chemistry and in Natural History as acquit themselves to the satisfaction of the Examiners, shall be arranged in the order of proficiency in each subject. If in the opinion of the Examiners any candidate of not more than twenty years of age shall possess sufficient merit, the candidate who shall distinguish himself the most of those who are not more than twenty years of age in Mathematics and Natural Philosophy, and the candidate who shall distinguish himself the most of those who are not more than twenty years of age in Classics, shall each receive an Exhibition of thirty pounds per annum for the next two years, payable in quarterly instalments; provided that on receiving each instalment he shall declare his intention of presenting himself within three years from his passing the Matriculation Examination either at the second examination for the degree of B.A. or B.Sc., or at the first examination for the degree of M.B. If in the opinion of the Examiners any candidate of not more than twenty years of age shall possess sufficient merit, the candidate who shall distinguish himself the most of those who are not more than twenty years of age in Chemistry, and the candidate who shall distinguish himself the most of those who are not more than twenty years of age in either branch of Natural History, shall each receive a prize to the value of ten pounds in books or money.

* The Classical subjects for 1861 and 1862 are:—For January, 1861: Homer—Odyssey, Book IX.; Sallust—Conspiracy of Catiline. For July, 1861: Xenophon—Memorabilia, Book I.; Ovid—Metamorphoses, Book XIII.; Heroides, Epistola X., Ariadne Theseo. For January, 1862: Xenophon—Cryopædia, Book I.; Horace—Odes, Books III. and IV. For July, 1862: Homer—Iliad, Book IX.; Livy—Book V.

† Candidates who may obtain honours either in Classics or in Mathematics and Natural Philosophy at the Matriculation Examination in January, shall be admissible to the First B.A. and First B.Sc. Examinations in the following July. But such candidates shall not be admissible to the Second B.A. and B.Sc. Examinations in the ensuing year, unless they shall have then attained the full age of eighteen years.

ARTS—BACHELOR OF ARTS.

Candidates for the Degree of Bachelor of Arts shall be required to have passed the Matriculation Examination, and to pass two subsequent examinations.* First B.A. Examination.—The first B.A. examination shall take place once in each year, and shall commence on the third Monday in July. No candidate (with the exception of such as have obtained honours either in Classics or in Mathematics and Natural Philosophy at the Matriculation Examination in January) shall be admitted to this examination within one academical year of the time of his passing the Matriculation Examination; nor unless he have produced a satisfactory certificate of good conduct. This certificate shall be transmitted to the Registrar at least one calendar month before the commencement of the examination. The Fee for this examination shall be five pounds. No candidate shall be admitted to the examination unless he have previously paid this fee to the Registrar. If a candidate fail to pass the examination, the fee shall not be returned to him, but he shall be afterwards admissible to the first B.A. Examination without the payment of any additional fee, provided that he give notice to the Registrar at least fourteen days before the commencement of the examination. Latin, and Roman History—The Latin Language; Two Latin subjects, one in prose, the other in verse; to be selected two years previously by the Senate.† The papers in Latin shall contain passages of the ancient authors to be translated into English, and short passages of English to be translated into Latin. The papers shall also contain questions in Grammar, History, and Geography. History: The English Language, Literature, and History; The French or the German Language. Candidates shall not be approved by the Examiners unless they show a competent knowledge in 1. Latin, and Roman History; 2. English Language, Literature, and History; 3. Mathematics; 4. Either the French or the German Language. In the first week of examination the examinations shall be conducted in the following order:—Monday: Morning, 10 to 1, English History; Afternoon, 3 to 6, English Language and Literature. Tuesday: Morning, 10 to 1, Mathematics; Afternoon, 3 to 6, Mathematics. Wednesday: Morning, 10 to 1, Latin; Afternoon, 3 to 6, Latin, and Roman History. Thursday: Morning, 10 to 1, French; Afternoon, 3 to 6, German. On Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock in the following week, the Examiners shall publish the names of all the candidates who have passed. The names shall be arranged in two divisions, each in alphabetical order. And a Pass Certificate, signed by the Registrar, will be delivered to each candidate who shall apply for it.

EXAMINATION FOR HONOURS.

Any Candidate who has passed the first B.A. examination may be examined for honours (1) in Mathematics and Mechanical Philosophy, (2) in Latin, and (3) in English; and for prizes in the French and German Languages and Literature. Candidates for honours in Mathematics and Mechanical Philosophy shall be examined in the following subjects:—Algebra, including the Theory of Equations; Analytical Geometry; The Differential and Integral Calculus; Calculus or Finite Differences; Theory of Probability; Statics and Dynamics; Hydrostatics, Hydraulics, and Pneumatics; Optics; Acoustics. This examination shall take place on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, in the week following the first B.A. Examination; in the morning from 10 to 1, and in the afternoon from 3 to 6. In the course of the following week the Examiners shall publish, in the order of proficiency, a list of the candidates who acquit themselves to their satisfaction. The Examiners shall publish in the course of the ensuing week the names of the candidates whom they shall consider to be entitled to the prizes, together with the names of any other candidates whom they may deem worthy of creditable mention, arranged in the order of proficiency. Candidates shall be bracketed together if the Examiners are of opinion that there is no clear difference between them. In determining the relative position of candidates, the Examiners shall have regard to the proficiency in French and German evinced by the candidates at the first B.A. Examination. If in the opinion of the Examiners any candidate of not more than twenty-two years of age shall possess sufficient merit, the candidate who shall distinguish himself the most of those who are not more than twenty-two years of age in French, and the candidate who shall distinguish himself the most of those who are not more than twenty-two years of age in German, shall each receive a prize to the value of ten pounds in books or money.

Second B.A. Examination.—The Second B.A. Examination shall take place once a year, and shall commence on the fourth Monday in October. No candidate shall be admitted to this examination within one academical year of the time of his passing the first B.A. Examination; * nor unless he have produced a satisfactory certificate of good conduct. This certificate shall be transmitted to the Registrar at least one calendar month before the commencement of the examination. The fee for this examination shall be five pounds. No candidate shall be admitted to the examination unless he have previously paid this fee to the Registrar. If a candidate fail to pass the examination, the fee shall not be returned to him, but he shall be afterwards admissible to the second B.A. Examination without the payment of any additional fee, provided that he give notice to the Registrar at least fourteen days before the commencement of the examination. Candidates shall be examined in the following subjects:—Mechanical and Natural Philosophy:—Statics; Dynamics; Hydrostatics, Hydraulics, and Pneumatics; Optics (Geometrical); Acoustics; Optics (Physical); Astronomy. Animal Physiology. Classics: The Greek and Latin Languages. One Greek subject and one Latin prose subject, to be selected two years previously by the Senate.† The papers in Classics shall contain passages of the ancient authors to be translated into English, and short passages of English to be translated into Latin. The papers shall also contain questions in Grammar, History, and Geography

* Candidates who have been admitted to the first B.A. Examination within six months after passing the Matriculation Examination will be required to give evidence of having completed their nineteenth year.

† The subjects for 1861 and 1862 are: For 1861: Sophocles—Antigone; Cicero—The Second Philippic. For 1862: Thucydides—Book IV.; Cicero—De Naturâ Deorum, Book I.

History. Logic and Moral Philosophy.* Candidates shall not be approved by the Examiners unless they show a competent knowledge in 1. Classics; 2. Grecian History; 3. Mechanical and Natural Philosophy; 4. Animal Physiology; 5. Logic and Moral Philosophy. In the first week of examination the examinations shall be conducted in the following order:—Monday: Morning, 10 to 1, Greek; Afternoon 3 to 6, Greek and Latin. Tuesday: Morning, 10 to 1, Grecian History; Afternoon, 3 to 6, Animal Physiology. Wednesday: Morning 10 to 1, Afternoon 3 to 6, Mechanical and Natural Philosophy, Thursday: Morning, 10 to 1, Afternoon, 3 to 6, Logic and Moral Philosophy. On Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock in the following week the Examiners shall publish the names of all the candidates who have passed. The names shall be arranged in two divisions, each in alphabetical order. And a certificate, under the Seal of the University and signed by the Chancellor, shall be delivered to each candidate.

EXAMINATION FOR HONOURS.

Any candidate who has passed may be examined for honours in Mathematics and Natural Philosophy, Classics, Logic and Moral Philosophy, Chemistry, Animal Physiology, and Vegetable Physiology and Structural Botany. Candidates for honours in Mathematics and Natural Philosophy shall be examined in the following subjects:—Algebra, including the Theory of Equations; Analytical Geometry; The Differential and Integral Calculus; Calculus of Finite Differences; Theory of Probability; Statics and Dynamics; Hydrostatics and Hydrodynamics; Common Optics; Acoustics; Physical Optics; Plane Astronomy; Physical Astronomy. This examination shall take place on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday in the week following the second B.A. Examination; in the morning from 10 to 1, and in the afternoon from 3 to 6. In the course of the following week the Examiners shall publish, in the order of proficiency, a list of the candidates who acquit themselves to their satisfaction. Candidates shall be bracketed together if the Examiners are of opinion that there is no clear difference between them. In determining the relative position of candidates the Examiners shall have regard to the proficiency in Mechanical and Natural Philosophy evinced by the candidates at the second B.A. examination. Candidates for honours in Classics shall be examined in any of the following subjects:—The Greek and Latin Languages; Composition in Greek, Latin, and English. The papers in Classics shall contain passages of the ancient authors to be translated into English, and passages of English to be translated into Latin and Greek. The papers shall also contain questions in Grammar, History, and Geography. This examination shall take place on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, in the week following the examination for honours in Mathematics and Natural Philosophy; in the morning from 10 to 1, and in the afternoon from 3 to 6. In the course of the following week the Examiners shall publish, in the order of proficiency, a list of the candidates who acquit themselves to their satisfaction. Candidates shall be bracketed together if the Examiners are of opinion that there is no clear difference between them. In determining the relative position of candidates, the Examiners shall also have regard to the proficiency in Classics evinced by the candidates at the second B.A. Examination. Candidates for honours in Logic and Moral Philosophy shall be examined in the following subjects:—Names, Notions, and Propositions; Syllogism; Induction and subsidiary operations; The Senses, the Intellect; The Emotions; The Will; The Theory of Ethics. This examination shall take place on Thursday and Friday in the week following the examination for honours in Mathematics and Natural Philosophy; in the morning from 10 to 1, and in the afternoon from 3 to 6. In the course of the following week the Examiners shall publish, in the order of proficiency, a list of the candidates who acquit themselves to their satisfaction. Candidates shall be bracketed together if the Examiners are of opinion that there is no clear difference between them. In determining the relative position of candidates, the Examiners shall have regard to the proficiency in Logic and Moral Philosophy evinced by the candidates at the second B.A. examination. The examinations for honours in Chemistry, Animal Physiology, and Vegetable Physiology and Structural Botany, shall take place in the week immediately following the examination for honours in Classics; that in Chemistry, on Wednesday, in the morning from 10 to 1; that in Animal Physiology, on Thursday, in the morning from 10 to 1, and in the afternoon from 3 to 6; and that in Vegetable Physiology and Structural Botany, on Friday, in the morning from 10 to 1. The Examiners shall publish in the course of the ensuing week a list of the candidates who acquit themselves to their satisfaction, in the order of proficiency in each subject. If in the opinion of the Examiners any candidate of not more than twenty-three years of age shall possess sufficient merit, the candidate who shall distinguish himself the most of those who are not more than twenty-three years of age in Mathematics and Natural Philosophy, the candidate who shall distinguish himself the most of those who are not more than twenty-three years of age in Classics, and the candidate who shall distinguish himself the most of those who are not more than twenty-three years of age in Logic, and Mental and Moral Philosophy, shall each receive fifty pounds per annum for the next three years, with the style of University Scholar. Under the same circumstances, the candidate who shall distinguish himself the most of those who are not more than twenty-three years of age in Chemistry, the candidate who shall distinguish himself the most of those who are not more than twenty-three years of age in Animal Physiology, and the candidate who shall distinguish himself the most of those who are not more than twenty-three years of age in Vegetable Physiology and Structural Botany, shall each receive a prize to the value of ten pounds in books or money.

* The extent of acquirement expected in Logic and Moral Philosophy is such as may fairly be attained by a course of instruction in a class during the year preceding examination.

MASTER OF ARTS.

The Examination for the Degree of Master of Arts shall take place once in each year, and shall commence on the first Monday in June. No candidate shall be admitted to the examination for the degree of M.A. until after the expiration of one academical year from the time of his obtaining the degree of B.A. in this University or in one of the Universities of Oxford, Cambridge, Dublin and Durham, nor unless he have shown evidence of having completed his twentieth year. The certificates shall be transmitted to the Registrar at least fourteen days before the examination begins. The fee for the degree of M.A. shall be ten pounds. No candidate shall be admitted to the examination unless he have previously paid this fee to the Registrar. If a candidate fail to pass the examination, the fee shall not be returned to him, but he shall be admissible to any subsequent examination for the same degree without the payment of any additional fee, provided that he give notice to the Registrar at least fourteen days before the commencement of the examination. The examination shall be conducted by means of printed papers; but the Examiners shall not be precluded from putting, for the purpose of ascertaining the competence of the candidates to pass, vivâ voce questions to any candidate in the subjects in which they are appointed to examine. Candidates for the degree of M.A. shall be examined in one or more of the following branches of knowledge:—1. Classics; 2. Mathematics and Natural Philosophy; 3. Logic and Moral Philosophy Political Philosophy, History of Philosophy, Political Economy. No candidate shall be approved by the Examiners unless he show a competent knowledge in one of these branches of knowledge. The candidates who pass to the satisfaction of the Examiners shall be arranged in the order of proficiency. Candidates shall be bracketed together if the examiners are of opinion that there is no clear difference between them. If in the opinion of the Examiners any candidate shall possess sufficient merit, the candidate who shall distinguish himself the most in branch I., the candidate who shall distinguish himself the most in branch II., and the candidate who shall distinguish himself the most in branch III., shall each receive a gold medal of the value of twenty pounds; and if the same candidate distinguish himself the most in two or more of the said branches, he shall receive a gold medal in right of each branch in which he shall so distinguish himself. The examination in branch I. shall take place in the first week on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday; in the morning from 10 to 1, and in the afternoon from 3 to 6. The examination in branch II. shall take place in the next week on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday; in the morning from 10 to 1, and in the afternoon from 3 to 6. The examination in branch III. shall take place in the third week on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday; in the morning from 10 to 1, and in the afternoon from 3 to 6.

SCIENCE.—BACHELOR OF SCIENCE (B.SC.).

Candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Science shall be required to have passed the Matriculation Examination,* or to have taken a degree in Arts in one of the Universities of the United Kingdom, and to pass two subsequent examinations. Nevertheless, Bachelors of Arts of this University, and Undergraduates who have passed the First Examination for the degree of Bachelor of Medicine of this University, will be admitted to the degree of Bachelor of Science on passing the Second B.Sc. Examination only.

FIRST B.SC. EXAMINATION.

* The First B.Sc. Examination shall take place once in each year, and shall commence on the third Monday in July. No candidate (with the exception of such as shall have obtained honours either in Classics or in Mathematics and Natural Philosophy at the Matriculation Examination in January) shall be admitted to this examination within one academical year of the time of his passing the Matriculation Examination, nor unless he have produced a satisfactory certificate of good conduct. Such certificate shall be transmitted to the Registrar at least one calendar month before the commencement of the examination. The fee for this examination shall be five pounds. No candidate shall be admitted to the examination unless he have previously paid this fee to the Registrar. If a candidate fail to pass the examination, the fee shall not be returned to him, but he shall be afterwards admissible to the First B.Sc. Examination without the payment of any additional fee, provided that he give notice to the Registrar at least fourteen days before the commencement of the examination. The examination shall be conducted by means of printed papers; but the Examiners shall not be precluded from putting, for the purpose of ascertaining the competence of the candidates to pass, vivâ voce questions to any candidate in the subjects in which they are appointed to examine. Candidates shall be examined in the following subjects:—Mathematics; Arithmetic and Algebra; Geometry; Plane Trigonometry; Mechanical and Natural Philosophy. The subjects marked with an asterisk are to be treated independently of mathematical symbols, or only by simple geometrical methods. *Statics; *Dynamics; *Hydrostatics, Hydraulics, and Pneumatics; *Optics; Heat; Electricity; Magnetism; Inorganic Chemistry; Botany and Vegetable

* Candidates who shall have attained the age of twenty-two years will be admitted to the First Examination for the degree of Bachelor of Science in the years 1861, 1862, and 1863, without previous matriculation.

Physiology; Zoology. Candidates shall not be approved by the Examiners unless they show a competent knowledge* in the fundamental principles of 1. Mathematics; 2. Mechanical and Natural Philosophy; 3. Chemistry; 4. Biology, including Botany and Vegetable Physiology, and Zoology. The Examinations shall be conducted in the following order:—Monday: Morning, 10 to 1, afternoon, 3 to 6, Chemistry. Tuesday: Morning, 10 to 1, afternoon, 3 to 6, Mathematics. Wednesday: Morning, 10 to 1, Mechanical Philosophy; afternoon, 3 to 6, Natural Philosophy. Thursday: Morning, 10 to 1, Botany and Vegetable Physiology; afternoon, 3 to 6, Zoology and Animal Physiology. On Monday morning at nine o'clock in the following week the Examiners shall publish the names of all the candidates who have passed. The names shall be arranged in two divisions, each in alphabetical order. And a pass certificate, signed by the Registrar, will be delivered to each candidate who shall apply for it.

EXAMINATION FOR HONOURS.

Any candidate who has passed the First B.Sc. Examination may be examined for honours (1) in Mathematics and Mechanical Philosophy, (2) in Chemistry and Natural Philosophy, and (3) in Biology. Candidates for honours in Mathematics and Mechanical Philosophy shall be examined in the following subjects:—Algebra, including the Theory of Equations; Analytical Geometry; the Differential and Integral Calculus; Calculus of Finite Differences; Theory of Probability; Statics, Dynamics, Hydrostatics, Hydraulics, Pneumatics, Optics, and Acoustics. This Examination shall take place on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, in the week following the First B.Sc. Examination: in the morning from 10 to 1, and in the afternoon from 3 to 6. In the course of the following week the Examiners shall publish, in the order of proficiency, a list of the candidates who acquit themselves to their satisfaction. Candidates shall be bracketed together if the Examiners are of opinion that there is no clear difference between them. In determining the relative position of candidates, the Examiners shall have regard to the proficiency in the corresponding subjects evinced by the candidates at the First B.Sc. Examination. Candidates for honours in Chemistry and Natural Philosophy shall be examined in any of the following subjects:—Elementary Substances and their Combinations; Electro-Chemistry; Radiant Chemical Action; Heat; Static and Dynamic Electricity; Magnetism. This Examination shall take place on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, in the week following the Examination for honours in Mathematics and Mechanical Philosophy; in the morning from 10 to 1, and in the afternoon from 3 to 6. In the course of the following week the Examiners shall publish, in the order of proficiency, a list of the candidates who acquit themselves to their satisfaction. Candidates shall be bracketed together if the Examiners are of opinion that there is no clear difference between them. In determining the relative position of candidates, the Examiners shall have regard to the proficiency in the corresponding subjects evinced by the candidate at the First B.Sc. Examination. Candidates for honours in Biology shall be examined in any of the following subjects:—Vegetable Histology; Vegetable Morphology; Vegetable Physiology (including Development); Systematic Botany; Zoology. This Examination shall take place on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, in the week following the Examination for honours in Chemistry and Natural Philosophy; in the morning from 10 to 1, and in the afternoon from 3 to 6. In the course of the following week the Examiners shall publish, in the order of proficiency, a list of the candidates who acquit themselves to their satisfaction. Candidates shall be bracketed together if the Examiners are of opinion that there is no clear difference between them. In determining the relative position of candidates, the Examiners shall have regard to the proficiency in Biology displayed by the candidate at the First B.Sc. Examination. If in the opinion of the Examiners any candidate of not more than twenty-two years of age shall possess sufficient merit, the candidate who shall distinguish himself the most of those who are not more than twenty-two years of age in Mathematics and Mechanical Philosophy, the candidate who shall distinguish himself the most of those who are not more than twenty-two years of age in Chemistry and Natural Philosophy, and the candidate who shall distinguish himself the most of those who are not more than twenty-two years of age in Biology, shall each receive an exhibition of forty pounds per annum for the next two years, payable in quarterly instalments; provided that on receiving each instalment he shall declare his intention of presenting himself at the Second B.Sc. Examination within two years from the time of his having passed the First B.Sc. Examination.

SECOND B.SC. EXAMINATION.

The Second B.Sc. Examination shall take place once in each year, and shall commence on the fourth Monday in October. Every candidate for this Examination shall be required either to have passed the First B.Sc. Examination at least one academical year previously,† or to have obtained the degree of B.A., or to have passed the First M.B. Examination in this University: he shall also be required to produce a satisfactory certificate of good conduct, which shall be transmitted to the

* The extent of acquirement expected in Natural Philosophy, Chemistry, and Biology is such as may fairly be attained by attendance on a course of lectures on each of these subjects, extending through an academical session.

Registrar at least one calendar month before the commencement of the Examination. The fee for this Examination shall be five pounds. No candidate shall be admitted to the Examination unless he have previously paid this fee to the Registrar. If a candidate fail to pass the Examination, the fee shall not be returned to him, but he shall be afterwards admissible to the Second B.Sc. Examination without the payment of any additional fee, provided that he give notice to the Registrar at least fourteen days before the commencement of the Examination. The Examination shall be conducted by means of printed papers; but the Examiners shall not be precluded from putting, for the purpose of ascertaining the competence of the candidates to pass, visà voce questions to any candidate in the subjects in which they are appointed to examine. Candidates shall be examined in the following subjects:—Mechanical and Natural Philosophy:—The following subjects are to be treated mathematically as well as experimentally: Statics; Dynamics; Hydrostatics, Hydraulics, and Pneumatics; Optics (Geometrical); Acoustics; Optics (Physical); Astronomy; Organic Chemistry; Animal Physiology; Geology and Palæontology; Logic and Moral Philosophy.* Candidates shall not be approved by the Examiners unless they show a competent knowledge in—1. Mechanical and Natural Philosophy; 2. Chemistry; 3. Animal Physiology; 4. Geology and Palæontology; 5. Logic and Moral Philosophy. In the first week of examination the Examinations shall be conducted in the following order:—Monday: morning, 10 to 1, afternoon, 3 to 6, Chemistry. Tuesday: morning, 10 to 1, Geology and Palæontology; afternoon, 3 to 6, Animal Physiology. Wednesday: morning, 10 to 1, afternoon, 3 to 6, Mechanical and Natural Philosophy. Thursday: morning, 10 to 1, afternoon, 3 to 6, Logic and Moral Philosophy. On Tuesday morning at nine o'clock in the following week, the Examiners shall arrange in two divisions, each in alphabetical order, such of the candidates as have passed. And a certificate, under the seal of the University and signed by the Chancellor, shall be delivered to each candidate.

EXAMINATION FOR HONOURS.

Any candidate who has passed may be examined for honours in Mathematics and Natural Philosophy, Chemistry and Biology (taken together), Geology and Palæontology, and Logic and Moral Philosophy. Candidates for honours in Mathematics and Natural Philosophy shall be examined in the following subjects:—Algebra, including the Theory of Equations; Analytical Geometry; the Differential and Integral Calculus; Calculus of Finite Differences; Calculus of Variations; Theory of Probability; Statics; Dynamics; Hydrostatics and Hydrodynamics; Common Optics; Acoustics; Physical Optics; Plane Astronomy; Physical Astronomy. This Examination shall take place on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, in the week following the Second B.Sc. Examination; in the morning from 10 to 1, and in the afternoon from 3 to 6. In the course of the following week the Examiners shall publish, in the order of proficiency, a list of the candidates who acquit themselves to their satisfaction. Candidates shall be bracketed together if the Examiners are of opinion that there is no clear difference between them. In determining the relative position of candidates, the Examiners shall have regard to the proficiency in Mathematics and Natural Philosophy evinced by the candidates at the Second B.Sc. Examination. Candidates for honours in Chemistry and Biology shall be examined in any of the following subjects:—Chemistry; Vegetable Histology, Morphology, and Physiology; Animal Histology, Comparative Anatomy, and Physiology. The subjects of the previous Examinations in a more advanced state, especially as related to the more recent researches and discoveries, and as applied to the purposes of life. This Examination shall take place on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, in the week following the Examination for honours in Mathematics and Natural Philosophy; in the morning from 10 to 1, and in the afternoon from 3 to 6. In the course of the following week the Examiners shall publish, in the order of proficiency, a list of the candidates who acquit themselves to their satisfaction. Candidates shall be bracketed together if the Examiners are of opinion that there is no clear difference between them. In determining the relative position of candidates, the Examiners shall also have regard to the proficiency in Chemistry and Biology evinced by the candidates at the Second B.Sc. Examination. Candidates for honours in Logic and Moral Philosophy shall be examined in the following subjects:—Names, Notions, and Propositions; Syllogism; Induction and Subsidiary Operations; the Senses; the Intellect; the Emotions; the Will; the Theory of Ethics. This Examination shall take place on Thursday and Friday in the week following the examination for honours in Mathematics and Natural Philosophy; in the morning from 10 to 1, and in the afternoon from 3 to 6. In the course of the following week the Examiners shall publish, in the order of proficiency, a list of the candidates who acquit themselves to their satisfaction. Candidates shall be bracketed together if the Examiners are of opinion that there is no clear difference between them. In determining the relative position of candidates, the Examiners shall have regard to the proficiency in Logic and Moral Philosophy evinced by the candidates at the Second B.Sc. Examination. Candidates for honours in Geology and Palæontology shall be examined in the following subjects:—Descriptive Geology; Physical Geology; Palæontology. This Examination shall take place on Monday and Tuesday in the week immediately following the Examination for honours in Chemistry and Biology, in the morning from 10 to 1, and in the afternoon from 3 to 6. In the course of the following week the Examiners shall publish, in the order of proficiency, a list of the candidates who acquit themselves to their satisfaction. Candidates shall be bracketed together if the Examiners are of opinion that there is no clear difference between them. In determining the relative position of candidates, the Examiners shall have regard to the proficiency in Geology and Palæontology evinced by the candidates at the Second B.Sc. Examination. If in the opinion of the Examiners any candidate of not more than twenty-three years of age shall possess sufficient merit, the candidate who shall distinguish himself the most of those who are not more than twenty-three years of age in Mathematics and Natural Philosophy, the candidate who shall distinguish himself the most of those who are not more than twenty-three years of age in Chemistry and Biology, the candidate who shall distinguish himself the most of those who are not more than twenty-three years of age in Logic and Mental and Moral Philosophy, and the candidate who shall distinguish himself the most of those who are not more than twenty-three years of age in Geology and Palæontology, shall each receive fifty pounds per annum for the next three years, with the style of University Scholar.

DOCTOR OF SCIENCE.

The examination for the degree of Doctor of Science shall take place annually within the first fourteen days of June, and shall occupy four days. No candidate shall be admitted to the examination for the degree of D.Sc. until after the expiration of two academical years from the time of his obtaining the degree of B.Sc. in this University. Candidates for the degree of D.Sc. in any year must give notice of their intention to the Registrar, and pay to him a fee of ten pounds, on or before the 1st of April. If a candidate fail to pass the examination, the fee shall not be returned to him, but he shall be admissible to any subsequent examination for the same degree without the payment of any additional fee, provided that he give notice to the Registrar at least fourteen days before the commencement of the examination. The examination shall be conducted by means of printed papers; but the Examiners shall not be precluded from putting, for the purpose of ascertaining the competence of the candidates to pass, viva voce questions to any candidate in the subjects in which they are appointed to examine. Every candidate for the degree of D.Sc. shall be examined in some one of the following branches of knowledge, to be selected by himself; and no candidate shall be approved by the Examiners unless he show a thorough practical knowledge of the principal subject, and a general acquaintance with the subsidiary subjects, specified as belonging to the branch so selected:—

Physical Science.—Branch I. Mathematics; II. Mechanical Science; III. Astronomy; IV. Inorganic Chemistry; V. Organic Chemistry; VI. Electricity; VII. Magnetism; VIII. Physical Optics; Heat; Acoustics, Biological Science: IX. Animal Physiology; X. Comparative Anatomy; XI. Zoology; XII. Vegetable Physiology; XIII. Systematic Botany; Geological and Palæontological Science: XIV. Geology; XV. Palæontology. Mental Science: XVI. Logic and Moral Philosophy.

MEDICINE.—BACHELOR OF MEDICINE.

Candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Medicine shall be required: 1. To have passed the Matriculation Examination of this University, or to have taken a degree in Arts in one of the Universities of the United Kingdom. 2. To have been engaged in their professional studies during four years subsequently to Matriculation or Graduation in Arts, at one or more of the Medical Institutions or schools recognised by this University; one year, at least, of the four, to have been spent in one or more of the recognised institutions or schools in the United Kingdom. 3. To pass the preliminary scientific examination,* and two examinations in Medicine.

PRELIMINARY SCIENTIFIC EXAMINATION.

The preliminary scientific examination shall take place once in each year, and shall commence on the third Monday in July. No candidate shall be admitted to this examination until he shall have completed his seventeenth year, and shall have either passed the Matriculation Examination or shall have taken a degree in Arts in one of the Universities of the United Kingdom; nor unless he have given to the Registrar fourteen days' notice of his intention to present himself. The fee for this examination shall be five pounds. No candidate shall be admitted to the examination unless he have previously paid this fee to the Registrar. If a candidate fail to pass the examination, the fee shall not be returned to him, but he shall be afterwards admissible to the preliminary scientific examination without the payment of any additional fee, provided that he give notice to the Registrar at least fourteen days before the commencement of the examination. Candidates shall be examined in the following subjects:—Mechanical and Natural Philosophy. The subjects marked with an asterisk are to be treated independently of mathematical symbols, or only by simple geometrical methods. *Statics; *Dynamics; *Hydrostatics, Hydraulics, and Pneumatics; *Optics; Heat; Electricity; Magnetism; Chemistry; Inorganic Chemistry; Organic Chemistry; Botany and

* Candidates who have matriculated previously to January, 1861, will not be required to pass the preliminary scientific examination in any other subjects than Chemistry and Botany; and they will be allowed to pass the preliminary scientific examination and the first M.B. examination in the same year, if they so prefer.

Vegetable Physiology; Zoology. The examinations shall be conducted in the following order:—Monday, morning, 10 to 1; Afternoon, 3 to 6, Chemistry, by printed papers. Tuesday, commencing at 10 a.m.—Chemistry, by visà voce and experiment; Wednesday, morning, 10 to 1, Mechanical Philosophy, by printed papers; Afternoon, 3 to 6, Natural Philosophy, by printed papers; Thursday, morning, 10 to 1, Botany and Vegetable Physiology, by printed papers and specimens; Afternoon, 3 to 6, Zoology, by printed papers and specimens. Candidates shall not be approved by the Examiners unless they show a competent knowledge in all the subjects of examination. On Monday morning at nine o'clock in the following week, the Examiners shall publish the names of such candidates as have passed. The names shall be arranged in two divisions, each in alphabetical order. And a pass certificate, signed by the Registrar, shall be delivered to each candidate who may apply for it.

EXAMINATION FOR HONOURS.

Any candidate who has passed the preliminary scientific examination may be examined for honours in (1) Chemistry and Natural Philosophy, (2) Biology. Candidates for honours in Chemistry and Natural Philosophy shall be examined in any of the following subjects, at the option of the Examiner:—Elementary Substances and their Combinations; Electro-Chemistry; Radiant Chemical Action; Heat; Static and Dynamic Electricity; Magnetism. This examination shall take place on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, in the second week after the pass examination; in the morning from 10 to 1, and in the afternoon from 3 to 6. In the course of the following week the Examiners shall publish, in the order of proficiency, a list of the candidates who acquit themselves to their satisfaction. Candidates shall be bracketed together if the Examiners are of opinion that there is no clear difference between them. In determining the relative position of candidates, the Examiners shall have regard to the proficiency in the corresponding subjects evinced by the candidate at the pass examination. Candidates for honours in Biology shall be examined in any of the following subjects, at the option of the Examiner:—Vegetable Histology; Vegetable Morphology; Vegetable Physiology (including development); Systematic Botany; Zoology. This examination shall take place on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday in the week following the examination for honours in Chemistry and Natural Philosophy; in the morning from 10 to 1, and in the afternoon from 3 to 6. In the course of the following week the Examiners shall publish, in the order of proficiency, a list of the candidates who acquit themselves to their satisfaction. Candidates shall be bracketed together if the Examiners are of opinion that there is no clear difference between them. In determining the relative position of candidates, the Examiners shall have regard to the proficiency in Botany and Vegetable Physiology and Zoology displayed by the candidate at the pass examination.

If in the opinion of the examiners any candidate of not more than twenty-two years of age shall possess sufficient merit, the candidate who shall distinguish himself the most in Chemistry and Natural Philosophy, and the candidate who shall distinguish himself the most in Biology, shall each receive an exhibition of forty pounds per annum for the next two years, payable in quarterly instalments; provided that on receiving each instalment he shall declare his intention of presenting himself at the first M.B. examination within three years from the time of his having passed the preliminary scientific examination.

FIRST M.B. EXAMINATION.*

The first M.B. examination shall take place once in each year, and shall commence on the last Monday in July. No candidate shall be admitted to this examination unless he have produced certificates to the following effect:—1. Of having completed his nineteenth year. 2. Of having passed the preliminary scientific examination at least one year previously. 3. Of having, subsequently to having taken a degree in Arts or passed the Matriculation Examination, been a student during two years at one or more of the Medical Institutions or schools recognised by this University; and of having attended a course of lectures on each of three of the subjects in the following list:—Descriptive and Surgical Anatomy; General Anatomy and Physiology; Comparative Anatomy; Pathological Anatomy; Materia Medica and Pharmacy; General Pathology; General Therapeutics; Forensic Medicine; Hygiene; Midwifery and Diseases peculiar to Women and Infants; Surgery; Medicine. 5. Of having dissected during two winter sessions. 6. Of having attended a course of Practical Chemistry, comprehending practical exercises in conducting the more important processes of general and pharmaceutical chemistry; in applying tests for discovering the adulteration of articles of the Materia Medica, and the presence and nature of poisons; and in the examination of mineral waters, animal secretions, urinary deposits, calculi, &c. 7. Of having attended to practical pharmacy, and of having acquired a practical knowledge in the preparation of medicines. These certificates shall be transmitted to the Registrar at least fourteen days before the examination begins. The fee for this examination shall be five pounds. No candidate shall be admitted to the examination unless he have previously paid this fee to the Registrar. If a candidate fail to pass the examination, the fee shall not be returned to him; but he shall be afterwards admissible to the first M.B. examination without the payment of any additional fee, provided that he give notice to the Registrar at least fourteen days before the commencement of the examination. Candidates shall be examined in the following subjects:—Anatomy; Physiology;* (the Papers in Physiology shall include questions in Histology and Comparative Anatomy); Materia Medica and Pharmacy; Chemistry in relation to Physiology, Pharmacy, and Toxicology. The examinations shall be conducted in the following order:—Monday: Morning, 10 to 1, Afternoon, 3 to 6, Anatomy, by printed papers. Tuesday: Morning, 10 to 1, Chemistry, by printed papers; Afternoon, 3 to 6, Materia Medica and Pharmacy, by printed papers. Wednesday: Morning, 10 to 1, Physiology, by printed papers. On Monday and Tuesday in the following week, commencing at 10 a.m. Anatomy, by vivâ voce, demonstration from preparations, and dissection. Physiology (including Histology and Comparative Anatomy), by vivâ voce and demonstration from preparations. Chemistry, by vivâ voce and experiment; and Materia Medica and Pharmacy, by vivâ voce and demonstration from specimens. On Thursday morning in the week following the commencement of the examination, the examiners shall publish the names of such of the candidates as have passed. The names shall be arranged in two divisions, each in alphabetical order. And a pass certificate, signed by the Registrar, shall be delivered to each candidate who may apply for it. Such candidates only as shall be placed in the first division shall be admissible to the examination for honours.

* Candidates who may be qualified to present themselves at the first M.B. examination in July, 1861, shall be allowed, if they prefer so doing, to postpone their appearance at the first M.B. examination until the following year, without thereby forfeiting the right to present themselves at the second M.B. examination in the year 1863.

EXAMINATION FOR HONOURS.

Any candidate who has been placed in the first division at the first M.B. examination, may be examined for honours in any or all of the following subjects:—Anatomy; Physiology, Histology, and Comparative Anatomy; Materia Medica and Pharmacy, and Chemistry in relation to Physiology, Pharmacy, and Toxicology. The examinations shall take place in the week following the commencement of the first M.B. examination. They shall be conducted by means of printed papers; but the Examiners shall not be precluded from putting vivâ voce questions upon the written answers of the candidates when they appear to require explanation. The examinations shall be conducted in the following order:—Thursday: Morning, 10 to 1, Afternoon, 3 to 6, Anatomy. Friday: Morning, 10 to 1, Afternoon, 3 to 6, Physiology, Histology, and Comparative Anatomy. Saturday: Morning, 10 to 1, Materia Medica and Pharmacy; Afternoon, 3 to 6, Chemistry in relation to Physiology, Pharmacy, and Toxicology. In the course of the following week the Examiners shall publish, in the order of proficiency, a list of the candidates who acquit themselves to their satisfaction. Candidates shall be bracketed together if the Examiners are of opinion that there is no clear difference between them. In determining the relative position of candidates, the Examiners shall have regard to the proficiency evinced by the candidates in the same subjects at the pass examination. If in the opinion of the Examiners sufficient merit be evinced, the candidate who shall distinguish himself the most in Anatomy, the candidate who shall distinguish himself the most in Physiology, Histology, and Comparative Anatomy, and the candidate who shall distinguish himself the most in Materia Medica and Pharmacy, and in Chemistry in relation to Physiology, Pharmacy, and Toxicology, shall each receive an exhibition of forty pounds per annum for the next two years, payable in quarterly instalments; provided that on receiving each instalment he shall declare his intention of presenting himself at the second M.B. examination within three years from the time of his having passed the first M.B. examination. Under the same circumstances, the first and second candidates in each of the preceding subjects shall each receive a gold medal of the value of five pounds.

SECOND M.B. EXAMINATION.†

The second M.B. examination shall take place once in each year, and shall commence on the first Monday in November. No candidate shall be admitted to this examination within two academical years of the time of his passing the first examination, nor unless he have produced certificates to the following effect:—1. Of having passed the first M.B. examination. 2. Of having subsequently to having passed the first M.B. examination attended a course of lectures on each of two of the subjects comprehended in the list at page 228, and for which the candidate had not presented certificates at the first M.B. examination. 3. Of having conducted at least twenty labours. Certificates on this subject will be received from any legally-qualified practitioner in medicine. 4. Of having attended the surgical practice of a recognised Hospital or Hospitals during two years, with clinical instruction and lectures on clinical surgery. 5. Of having attended the medical practice of a recognised Hospital

* Any candidate shall be allowed, if he so prefer, to postpone his examination in Physiology from the first M.B. examination at which he presents himself for examination in the remaining subjects, until the first M.B. examination in the next or any subsequent year; but such candidate shall not be admitted to compete for honours on either occasion; and he shall not be admitted as a candidate at the second M.B. examination until after the lapse of at least twelve months after having passed his examination in Physiology.

† The second M.B. examination of the years 1861 and 1862 shall be carried on under the former regulations; but thenceforth according to the new regulations. After 1862, any candidate presenting himself for the second M.B. examination, who shall have passed his first M.B. examination under the former regulations, shall be required to have also passed the examination in Physiology and in Chemical Toxicology at some previous first M.B. examination carried on under the new regulations, at which examination he shall not be allowed to compete for honours.

or Hospitals during two years, with clinical instruction and lectures on clinical medicine. N.B. The student's attendance on the surgical and the medical Hospital practice specified in Regulations 4 and 5, may commence at any date after his passing the preliminary scientific examination, and may be comprised either within the same or within different years; provided that, in every case, his attendance on Hospital practice be continued for at least eighteen months subsequently to his passing the first M.B. examination. 6. Of having, subsequently to the completion of his attendance on surgical and medical Hospital practice, attended to Practical Medicine, Surgery, or Midwifery, with special charge of patients, in a Hospital, Infirmary, Dispensary, or Parochial Union, during six months. The candidate shall also produce a certificate of moral character from a teacher in the last school or institution at which he has studied, as far as the teacher's opportunity of knowledge has extended. These certificates shall be transmitted to the Registrar at least fourteen days before the examination begins. The fee for this examination shall be five pounds. No candidate shall be admitted to the examination unless he have previously paid this fee to the Registrar. If a candidate fail to pass the examination, the fee shall not be returned to him; but he shall be afterwards admissible to the second M.B. examination without the payment of any additional fee, provided that he give notice to the Registrar at least fourteen days before the commencement of the examination. Candidates shall be examined in the following subjects:—General Pathology, General Therapeutics, and Hygiene; Surgery; Medicine; Midwifery; Forensic Medicine, in its relations to Medicine, Surgery, and Midwifery. The examinations shall include questions in Surgical and Medical Anatomy, Pathological Anatomy, and Pathological Chemistry. The examinations shall be conducted in the following order:—First week, by printed papers: Monday: Morning, 10 to 1, Forensic Medicine, by printed papers; Afternoon, 3 to 6, General Pathology, General Therapeutics, and Hygiene, by printed papers. Tuesday: Morning, 10 to 1, Surgery, by printed papers; Afternoon, 3 to 6, Medicine, by printed papers. Wednesday: Morning, 10 to 1, Midwifery, by printed papers; Afternoon, 3 to 6, practical examination on Obstetric Preparations and Apparatus. Thursday, commencing at 10 a.m.; Performance of surgical operations upon the dead subject; application of surgical apparatus; Examination, and report on cases, of surgical patients. Friday: Examination, and report on cases, of medical patients in the wards of a Hospital. On Monday in the following week, commencing at 10 a.m.; vivâ voce interrogation and demonstration from specimens and preparations. N.B. Candidates will be expected to write prescriptions in Latin, without abbreviations. On Wednesday morning in the week following the commencement of the examination, the Examiners shall publish the names of such of the candidates as have passed. The names shall be arranged in two divisions, each in alphabetical order. And a certificate, under the seal of the University and signed by the Chancellor, shall be delivered to each candidate. Such candidates only as shall be placed in the first division, shall be admissible to the examination for honours. The Senate desire it to be understood that Bachelors of Medicine of the University of London have no right, as such, to assume the title of Doctor of Medicine.

EXAMINATION FOR HONOURS.

Any candidate who has been placed in the first division at the second M.B. examination may be examined for honours in any or all of the following subjects:—Surgery; Medicine; Midwifery. The examinations shall take place in the week following the commencement of the second M.B. examination. They shall be conducted by means of printed papers; but the Examiners shall not be precluded from putting vivâ voce questions upon the written answers of the candidates when they appear to require explanation. The examinations shall be conducted in the following order:—Wednesday: Morning, 10 to 1, Afternoon, 3 to 6, Surgery. Thursday: Morning, 10 to 1, Afternoon, 3 to 6, Medicine. Friday: Morning, 10 to 1, Afternoon, 3 to 6, Midwifery. In the course of the following week the Examiners shall publish, in the order of proficiency, a list of the candidates who acquit themselves to their satisfaction. Candidates shall be bracketed together if the Examiners are of opinion that there is no clear difference between them. In determining the relative position of candidates, the Examiners shall have regard to the proficiency evinced by the candidates in the same subjects at the pass examination. If, in the opinion of the Examiners, sufficient merit be evinced, the candidate who shall distinguish himself the most in Surgery shall receive an exhibition of fifty pounds per annum for the next two years, with the style of University Scholar in Surgery. Under the same circumstances, the candidate who shall distinguish himself the most in Medicine shall receive an exhibition of fifty pounds per annum for the next two years, with the style of University Scholar in Medicine. Under the same circumstances, the candidate who shall distinguish himself the most in Midwifery shall receive an exhibition of thirty pounds per annum for the next two years, with the style of University Scholar in Midwifery. Under the same circumstances, the first and second candidates in each of the preceding subjects shall each receive a gold medal of the value of five pounds.

DOCTOR OF MEDICINE.

The examination for the degree of Doctor of Medicine shall take place once in each year, and shall commence on the fourth Monday in November. No candidate shall be admitted to this examination unless he have produced certificates to the following effect:—1. Of having taken the degree of Bachelor of Medicine in this University. 2. Of having attended, subsequently to having taken the degree of Bachelor of Medicine in this University. a. To clinical or practical medicine during two years in a Hospital or Medical Institution recognised by this University. b. Or, to clinical or practical medicine during one year in a Hospital or Medical Institution recognised by this University, and of having been engaged during three years in the practice of his profession. c. Or of having been engaged during five years in the practice of his profession, either before or after taking the degree of Bachelor of Medicine in this University. One year of attendance on clinical or practical medicine, or two years of practice, will be dispensed with in the case of those candidates who at the second examination have been placed in the first division. 3. Of moral character, signed by two persons of respectability. These certificates shall be transmitted to the Registrar at least fourteen days before the examination begins. The fee for the degree of Doctor of Medicine shall be five pounds. No candidate shall be admitted to the examination unless he have previously paid this fee to the Registrar. If a candidate fail to pass the examination, the fee shall not be returned to him, but he shall be admissible to any subsequent examination for the same degree without the payment of any additional fee. The examination shall be conducted by means of printed papers and vivâ voce interrogation. Candidates shall be examined in the following subjects:—Logic and Moral Philosophy. Candidates who have taken a degree in Arts in this University, or in a University the degrees granted by which are recognised by the Senate of this University, shall be exempted from this part of the examination.* Medicine. The examinations shall be conducted in the following order:—By printed papers: Monday: Morning, 10 to 1, Logic and Moral Philosophy; Afternoon, 3 to 6, a Commentary on a case in Medicine, Surgery, or Midwifery, at the option of the candidate. Tuesday: Morning, 10 to 1, Afternoon, 3 to 6, Medicine. Thursday: Examination, and report on cases, of medical patients in the wards of a Hospital. By vivâ voce interrogation. Friday, at 1 p.m.: Examination on the answers to the printed papers, and on the commentaries and reports. On Monday morning in the following week the Examiners shall publish in alphabetical order the names of such of the candidates as have passed; and the Examiners shall be at liberty to mention the names of any candidates who in their opinion may have displayed special proficiency. A certificate under the seal of the University, and signed by the Chancellor, shall be delivered to each candidate. If in the opinion of the Examiners sufficient merit be evinced, the candidate who shall distinguish himself the most at the examination for the degree of Doctor of Medicine shall receive a gold medal of the value of twenty pounds.

ROYAL COLLEGE OF PHYSICIANS.

Pall Mall East, London. S.W.

Pres., T. Mayo, M.D.—Censors, George Hilary Barlow, M.D., Frederic Weber, M.D., William Withey Gull, M.D., Thomas King Chambers, M.D.—Treas., Dr. J. Alderson.—Regist., Henry Alfred Pitman, M.D.—Curr. of Museum, the President, the Censors, and J. Alderson, M.D., P. Black, M.D., W. Wegg, M.D., and Francis Sibson, M.D.—Sec., Mr. W. Copney.

The College of Physicians consists of Fellows. The Licentiates enjoy the same privileges as the Fellows as far as practice is concerned, but they have no share in the direction of the affairs of the College. The Fellows are now chosen from the body of Licentiates, a certain number being generally elected on the 25th of June each year.

The EXAMINERS for the Licence are the President and Censors. The examination for the Licence takes place four times a year; viz., shortly before Christmas, Easter, Midsummer, and Michaelmas.

FEES.—Licence, 31*l.* 10*s.* Fellowship, 56*l.* 10*s.* including 25*l.* stamp.

EXTRACTS FROM BYE-LAWS.

CHAPTER XIII.—MEMBERS.

I. Licentiates of the College who shall have been admitted Licentiates before the 1st day of October, 1859; and Extra-Licentiates of the College who shall be admitted Licentiates of the College under the bye-laws enacted February 16th, 1859; and Graduates in Medicine who shall be admitted Licentiates of the College before the 1st day of March, 1860, under the bye-laws enacted February 16th, 1859, shall, from and after the 1st day of October, 1859, be styled Members of the College, provided always that they have, since their admission as Licentiates, obeyed the bye-laws, and do engage henceforth to obey the bye-laws of the College.

II. The Members of the College shall be alone eligible to the Fellowship. They shall have the use of the library and museum, subject to the regulations relating thereto, and shall be admitted to all lectures, and shall enjoy such further privileges as may from time to time be defined by the bye-laws; but they shall not be entitled to any share in the government, nor to attend or vote at general meetings of the Corporation.

* The degrees in Arts of all Universities in the United Kingdom are recognised by the Senate for this purpose.

III. Any person not engaged in the practice of pharmacy, who shall have satisfied the College touching his knowledge of medical and general science and literature, and who shall comply with such regulations as are or shall be required by the bye-laws, may be proposed to the College to receive a licence to practise physic, as a member of the College. The decision of the College shall be determined by ballot.

IV. Every candidate for a Member's Licence shall furnish proof that he has attained the age of twenty-five years.

V. Every candidate for a Member's Licence shall produce a testimonial from a fellow or member of the college, satisfactory to the Censors' Board, to the effect that, as regards moral character and conduct, he is a fit and proper person to be admitted a member of the college.

VI. Every candidate for a Member's Licence (except such as shall be admissible under the provisions of Chap. XIII., Sect. 15) shall produce proof of his having been engaged, during a period of five years, in the study of medicine, at a medical school or schools, recognised by the college.

VII. Every candidate for a Member's Licence, who has not taken a degree in medicine at an University in the United Kingdom (except such as shall be admissible under the provisions of Chap. XIII., Sect. 15), shall produce evidence, satisfactory to the Censors' Board, of his having studied the following subjects:—Anatomy, with Dissections; Physiology; Chemistry, with Practical Chemistry; Materia Medica and Botany; Theory and Practice of Medicine; Morbid Anatomy; Principles of Surgery; Midwifery, and the Diseases of Women and Children; Forensic Medicine; of his having attended diligently during three years the medical practice, and during nine months the surgical practice of a hospital containing at least 100 beds; and of his having served the office of clinical clerk during at least six months.

VIII. Every candidate for a Member's Licence, who has prosecuted his studies abroad, whether in part or to the full extent required by the preceding regulations (except such as shall be admissible under the provisions of Chap. XIII., Sect. 15), shall, nevertheless, bring proof of his having attended, during at least twelve months, the medical practice of a hospital in the United Kingdom containing 100 beds.

IX. If the Censors' Board should doubt the sufficiency of the certificates and testimonials produced by any candidate, or his fitness, in any respect, for admission to examination, they may submit the case to a General Meeting of the Fellows.

X. No candidate shall be admitted to examination who uses, for the sake of gain, any remedy which he keeps secret.

XI. No candidate shall be admitted to examination who is engaged in trade, or who practises pharmacy, or makes any engagement with a chemist, or any other person, for the supply of medicine, from which profit is derived, or who practises physic or surgery in partnership, by deed or otherwise, so long as that partnership continues.

XII. Every candidate for a Member's Licence (except in cases specially exempted), shall have given proof of his acquirements by written answers to questions placed before him, and shall have been examined vivâ voce at three separate meetings of the Censors' Board, and shall have been approved by the President and Censors, or by the major part of them, at each examination.

XIII. The examination shall be conducted as follows:—The candidate shall be examined in Physiology, in Pathology, and in Therapeutics, in three separate examinations, by written questions, as well as vivâ voce before three meetings of the Censors' board. In each of the examinations in writing, as well as at each of the vivâ voce examinations, he shall be required to translate into Latin or English, a passage from a Greek medical work, and into English a passage from a Latin medical work; or he may, in lieu of translating the Greek passage, give proof of a competent knowledge of one or more of the modern European languages. At, or in connexion with, the second examination before the Censors' Board, the candidate's knowledge of Practical Medicine may be tested by requiring him to examine persons labouring under disease, and to describe morbid specimens. At the commencement of the first vivâ voce examination, the candidate shall, if required, declare, in writing, at what University or Schools he has studied general Literature and Science, and what honours have been conferred upon him, in regard to his knowledge of Literature, Science, or Medicine; and such declaration shall, if it seem fit, be recorded in the annals of the College.

XIV. When the candidate for a Member's Licence has already obtained the degree of Doctor or Bachelor in Medicine at a University in the United Kingdom, after a course of study and an examination, satisfactory to the Censors' Board, he shall be exempt from all parts of the examinations hereinbefore described, except such as relate to Pathology and Therapeutics.

XV. In case of any candidate who has attained the age of forty years, the rules laid down in Sections 6, 7, 8, may be dispensed with. He shall, however, produce testimonials of moral character and conduct, and of general and professional acquirements. The Censors' Board having examined and considered these testimonials, may, if they see fit, submit them to the Fellows at a General Meeting, and it shall be determined by the votes of the Fellows present, or of the majority of them, taken by ballot, if required, whether the candidate shall be admitted to such examination as the Censors' Board may deem sufficient.

XVI. Any candidate not approved by the Censors' Board shall not, except by special permission of the College, be readmitted to examination until after the lapse of a year.

XVII. Every candidate approved by the Censors' Board shall be proposed, at the next General Meeting of Fellows, as qualified to receive a Licence to practise physic, as a Member of the College; and if the majority of the Fellows present shall consent (the votes being taken by ballot) he shall forthwith, on complying with the Regulations prescribed by the Bye-Laws, receive a Licence to practise Physic, as a Member of the College.

XVIII. No one shall be admitted to practise physic as a Member of the College, unless he shall give his assent to the following words, addressed to him by the President or Vice-President, in the presence of the Fellows:—"You give your faith that you will observe and obey the statutes and bye-laws of this College, and submit to such penalties as may be imposed for any neglect or infringement of them; and that you will, to the best of your ability, do all things in the practice of your profession for the honour of the College, and the good of the public." And after he has been admitted, he shall confirm this promise by affixing his name to the same words, previously committed to writing.

XIX. The President or Vice-President, addressing the person or persons to be admitted, shall say—"I, A. B., President (or Vice-President), do admit, and give you authority as a member (or members) of this College, to teach and to practise physic, and to enjoy all accompanying honours and privileges whatsoever, here or elsewhere bestowed on Physicians." And, taking by the hand each member so admitted, the President or Vice-President shall add—"I wish you all prosperity."

XX. Every member, at the time of his admission, shall have letters testimonial under the seal of the College, in this form:—

 _____ Registrar.

XXI. The fee to be paid for admission as a Member of the College shall be thirty guineas.

RULES OF CONDUCT, AND PENAL BYE-LAWS RELATING TO MEMBERS.

I. Every member of the College, in prescribing for a patient, shall write on his prescription the date thereof, the name of the patient, and the initial letters of his own name.

II. If two or more Physicians, Fellows or Members of the College, be called in consultation, they shall confer together with the utmost forbearance, and no one of them shall prescribe, or even suggest, in the presence of the patient, or the patient's attendants, any opinion as to what ought to be done, before the method of treatment has been determined by the consultation of himself and his colleagues; and the Physician first called to a patient shall, unless he decline doing so, write the prescription for the medicines agreed upon, and shall sign the initials of the Physician or Physicians called in consultation, he placing his own initials the last. If any difference of opinion should arise, the greatest moderation and forbearance shall be observed, and the fact of such difference of opinion shall be communicated to the patient or the attendants by the Physician who was first in attendance, in order that it may distress the patient and his friends as little as possible.

III. No Member of the College shall accuse a Fellow or another Member of the College, of ignorance of his art; or publicly, or before witnesses not lawful judges in the matter, stigmatise him with opprobrious terms; or officiously, or under colour of a benevolent purpose, offer medical aid to, or prescribe for any patient whom he knows to be under the care of another legally qualified Medical Practitioner.

IV. No Member of the College shall use, for the sake of gain, any remedy which he keeps secret, or follow systematically any line of practice which may bring discredit on the College, or on the Science of Medicine.

V. No Member of the College shall be engaged in trade, or shall practise pharmacy, or make any engagement with a chemist, or any other person, for the supply of medicines from which profit is derived, or practise physic or surgery in partnership, by deed or otherwise.

VI. If it shall at any time hereafter appear, or be made known to the President and Censors, that any member of the College has obtained admission to the College by fraud, false statement, or imposition, or has been guilty of any great crime, or public immorality, or has acted in any respect in a dishonourable or unprofessional manner, or has violated any bye-law, rule, or regulation of the College, the President and Censors may call the member so offending before the Censors' Board; and, having investigated the case, may admonish, or reprimand, or inflict a fine not exceeding 10*l.*; or, if they deem the case of sufficient importance, may report the case to the College, and thereupon a majority of two-thirds of the Fellows present at a meeting of the Fellows, which must be specially summoned for that purpose, may declare such member to be no longer a member of the College, and he shall forfeit all the rights and privileges which he does or may enjoy as a member, and his name shall be expunged from the list of members accordingly.

REGULATIONS RESPECTING THE EDUCATION AND EXAMINATION OF CANDIDATES FOR THE DIPLOMA OF MEMBER.

Preliminary General Education and Examination.—I. Candidates who shall commence their Professional Education on or after the 1st of January, 1861, will be required to produce one or other of the following Certificates: 1. Of Graduation in Arts at a recognised University. 2. Of having passed an Examination for Matriculation, or such other Examination, as shall, in either case, from time to time be sanctioned by the Council of this College, at a University in the United Kingdom, or at a Colonial or foreign University recognised by the Council of this College. 3. Of having passed the Oxford, Cambridge, or Durham Middle Class Examinations, either Junior or Senior. 4. Of having passed the Preliminary Examination for the Fellowship of this College. 5. Of having passed the Previous Examination of the University of Cambridge. 6. Of having passed the Examination of the Royal College of Preceptors (First Class). Candidates who shall not be able to produce one or other of the foregoing Certificates, will be required to pass an Examination in English, Classics, and Mathematics, conducted by the Board of Examiners of the Royal College of Preceptors, under the direction and supervision of the Council of this College. These Examinations will be held in London, until otherwise directed by the Council. The Fee for which Examination is the same as that paid at the Oxford Junior Middle Class Examination. N.B. An Apprenticeship entered into on or after the 8th of December, 1859, will not be considered as exempting a Candidate from the necessity of passing this Preliminary Examination.

The following are the Subjects of the Examination during the year 1861, viz.: Part I.—1. Reading aloud a passage from some English author. 2. Writing from dictation. 3. English Grammar. 4. Writing a short English composition; such as a description of a place, an account of some useful or natural product, or the like. 5. Arithmetic. No Candidate will be passed who does not show a competent knowledge of the first four rules, simple and compound, and of Vulgar Fractions. 6. Questions on the Geography of Europe, and particularly of the British Isles. 7. Questions on the outlines of English History, that is, the succession of the Sovereigns and the leading events of each reign. Part II.—Papers will also be set on the following eight subjects, and each Candidate will be required to offer himself for examination on one subject at least, but no Candidate will be examined on more than four: 1. Translation of a passage from the first book of Cæsar's Commentaries De Bello Gallico. 2. Translation of a passage from St. John's Gospel in Greek. 3. Translation of a passage from Voltaire's "Histoire de Charles XII." 4. Translation of a passage from the first two books of Schiller's "Geschichte des dreissigjährigen Krieges."

Besides these Translations into English, the Candidate will be required to answer questions on the Grammar of each selected subject. 5. Mathematics. Euclid, Books I. and II. Algebra to Simple Equations inclusive. 6. Mechanics. The questions will be chiefly of an elementary character. 7. Chemistry. The questions will be on the elementary facts of Chemistry. 8. Botany and Zoology. The questions will be on the classification of Plants and Animals. The quality of the handwriting and the spelling will be taken into account.

Professional Education.—II. Candidates will be required to produce the following Certificates, viz.:—1. Of being twenty-one years of age. 2. Of having been engaged during four years in the acquirement of professional knowledge. 3. Of having studied Practical Pharmacy during three months. 4. Of having attended Lectures on Anatomy, delivered not less frequently than four times in each week, during two Winter Sessions. 5. Of having performed Dissections during not less than two Winter Sessions. 6. Of having attended Lectures on Physiology, delivered not less frequently than twice in each week, during two Winter Sessions. 7. Of having attended Lectures on Surgery during two Winter Sessions. 8. Of having attended one Course of Lectures on each of the following subjects, viz. Chemistry, Materia Medica, Medicine, and Midwifery. 9. Of instruction and proficiency in the Practice of Vaccination. 10. Of having attended, at a recognised Hospital or Hospitals in the United Kingdom, the Practice of Surgery, and Clinical Lectures on Surgery, during three Winter* and two Summer† Sessions. 11. Of having attended, at a recognised Hospital or Hospitals in the United Kingdom, the Practice of Medicine, and Clinical Lectures on Medicine, during one Winter and one Summer Session.

III. Certificates will not be received on more than one branch of science from one and the same Lecturer; but Anatomy and Dissections will be considered as one branch of Science.

IV. Certificates will not be recognised from any Hospital, unless the Surgeons thereto be members of one of the legally constituted Colleges of Surgeons in the United Kingdom; nor from any School of Anatomy and Physiology or Midwifery, unless the Teachers in such School be members of some legally constituted College of Physicians or Surgeons in the United Kingdom; nor from any School of Surgery, unless the Teachers in such School be members of one of the legally constituted Colleges of Surgeons in the United Kingdom.

V. No Metropolitan Hospital will be recognised by this College which contains less than 150, and no Provincial or Colonial Hospital which contains less than 100 Patients.

VI. The recognition of Colonial Hospitals and Schools is governed by the same Regulations, with respect to number of Patients, to Courses of Lectures, and to Physicians, Surgeons, and Lecturers, as apply to the recognition of Provincial Hospitals and Schools in England.

VII. Candidates who shall have attended, at recognised Hospitals and Schools in any Colony or Dependency, the Medical and Surgical Practice and the several Courses of Lectures, with the Dissections required by the foregoing Regulations, will be admitted to examination upon producing Certificates of such attendance, together with Certificates of having attended in London, during one Winter Session, the Surgical Practice of a recognised Hospital, and Lectures on Anatomy, Physiology, and Surgery, with Dissections.

VIII. Attendance, commenced subsequent to the 8th of December, 1859, upon the practice of a recognised Provincial or Colonial Hospital unconnected with or not in convenient proximity to a recognised Medical School, will not be received for more than one Winter and one Summer Session of the Hospital Attendance required by the Regulations of this College; and in such cases Clinical Lectures will not be required.

* The Winter Session comprises a period of six months, and, in England, commences on the 1st of October, and terminates on the 31st of March.

† The Summer Session comprises a period of three months, and, in England, commences on the 1st of May, and terminates on the 31st of July.

IX. Certificates will not be received from Candidates who have studied in London, unless they shall have registered their Tickets at the College during the last ten days of October, January, and March in each year; nor from Candidates who have studied elsewhere, unless their names shall duly appear in the Registers transmitted during such studies from their respective Schools.

X. Those Candidates who shall have pursued their studies in Scotland or Ireland, will be admitted to Examination upon the production of the several Certificates required respectively by the Colleges of Surgeons of Edinburgh and Ireland from Candidates for their Diploma.

N.B. In the Certificates of attendance on Hospital Practice and on Lectures, it is required that the dates of commencement and termination be clearly expressed; and no interlineation, erasure, or alteration will be allowed.

Blank Forms of the required Certificates may be obtained on application to the Secretary, to whom they must be delivered, properly filled up, ten days before the Candidate can be admitted to examination; and all such Certificates are retained at the College.

XI. Members or Licentiates of any legally constituted College of Surgeons in the United Kingdom, and Graduates in Surgery of any University requiring residence to obtain Degrees, will be admitted for examination on producing their Diploma, Licence, or Degree, together with proof of being twenty-one years of age, and of having been occupied at least four years in the acquirement of professional knowledge.

XII. Graduates in Medicine of any legally constituted College or University requiring residence to obtain Degrees, will be admitted for examination, on adducing, together with their Diploma or Degree, proof of having completed the anatomical and surgical Education required by the foregoing Regulations, either at the School and Hospital of the University where they shall have graduated, or at one or more of the recognised Schools and Hospitals in the United Kingdom.

XIII. Professional Examination.—This Examination is divided into two parts. 1. The first, or Primary Examination, on Anatomy and Physiology, is practical and demonstrative on the recently dissected Subject and on prepared parts of the Human body. 2. The second, or Pass Examination, on Pathology, Surgery, and Surgical Anatomy, is partly written and partly oral; the written part is taken first. 3. The Primary Examinations are held in the months of January, April, May, July, and November, and the Pass Examinations generally in the ensuing week respectively. 4. A Candidate having entered his name for either the Primary or Pass Examination, and who shall fail to attend the meeting of the Court for which he shall have received a card, will not be allowed to present himself for Examination within the period of three months from the date at which he shall have so failed to attend. 5. Candidates for the Primary Examination are required to signify their desire of being admitted thereto not less than one month prior to the period of Examination. 6. The fee of Five Guineas paid by each Candidate, prior to his Primary Examination, will be allowed in the fee on his admission as a Member.

REGULATIONS RESPECTING THE EDUCATION AND EXAMINATION FOR THE DIPLOMA OF FELLOW.

Education.—1. Except in the cases and instances hereinafter provided for the contrary, every Candidate for the Fellowship, whether a Member of the College or not, shall produce Certificates satisfactory to the Court of Examiners,—That he is twenty-five years of age. That he is (if found qualified upon examination) a fit and proper person to be admitted to the Fellowship, which Certificate must be signed by three Fellows of the College. That he has passed the preliminary Examination in Classics, Mathematics, and French appointed by the Council; or that he has passed in the University of Oxford, or Cambridge, or London, the Examination in Arts required in those Universities respectively of Candidates for Degrees in Medicine. That he has been engaged for six years in the acquirement of professional knowledge in recognised Hospitals or Schools of Anatomy, Surgery, and Medicine; and that not less than three Winter and three Summer Seasons thereof have been passed in one or more of such Hospitals in London. That he has studied Anatomy and Physiology by attendance on Lectures and Demonstrations, and by Dissections, during three Winter Sessions of not less than six months each, at recognised Schools. That he has attended Lectures on the Theory and Practice of Medicine and on Clinical Medicine, and on the Theory and Practice of Surgery, and on Clinical Surgery, during two Sessions of not less than six months each, at recognised Schools and Hospitals. That he has attended one course of Lectures on each of the following subjects, viz. Chemistry, Materia Medica, Midwifery, with attendance on Cases, Medical Jurisprudence, and Comparative Anatomy, at recognised Schools. That he has attended the Surgical Practice of a recognised Hospital or Hospitals during four Winter and four Summer Sessions, and the Medical Practice of a recognised Hospital or Hospitals during one Winter and one Summer Session. That he has served the office of House-Surgeon or Dresser in a recognised Hospital in the United Kingdom. He shall also present for examination Clinical Reports with observations thereon of not less than six Surgical Cases taken by himself at recognised Hospitals in the United Kingdom, with satisfactory evidence of their authenticity and genuineness. 2. In the case of a Candidate who shall have taken by examination the Degree of Bachelor or Master of Arts in any University in the United Kingdom, it shall be sufficient for him to produce a Certificate or Certificates that he has been engaged for five years (instead of six years) in the acquirement of professional knowledge in recognised Hospitals or Schools of Surgery and Medicine, but he shall in all other respects produce the Certificates of the foregoing Course of Study. 3. Any person who was a Member of the College on the 14th day of September, 1844, shall be entitled to be admitted to examination for the Fellowship upon the production of a Certificate, signed by three Fellows, that he has been eight years in the practice of the Profession of Surgery, and that he is a fit and proper person to be admitted a Fellow, if upon examination he shall be found qualified. 4. Any person who shall have become a Member of the College after the said 14th day of September, 1844, shall, after the expiration of twelve years from the date of his Diploma, be entitled to be admitted to examination for the Fellowship upon the production of a Certificate, signed by three Fellows, that he has been for twelve years in the practice of the Profession of Surgery, and that he is a fit and proper person to be admitted a Fellow, if upon examination he shall be found qualified.

Preliminary Examination.—The Preliminary Examination in Classics, Mathematics, and French is held in the months of April and October; to which Candidates are admitted upon having completed the eighteenth year of their age, and on the payment of the fee of Ten Guineas, which sum is allowed in the fee for the Fellowship Diploma. The following are the subjects of the Preliminary Examination during the year 1861, viz.:—CLASSICS:—Tacitus, Germanicus and Agricola; Terence, Heautontimorumenos and Adelphi; Demosthenes, Adversus Leptinem; Æschylus, Prometheus Vincit. Each Candidate is required to bring up one of the above Greek and one of the above Latin authors; one prose writer and one poet. MATHEMATICS:—Arithmetic. Algebra, as far as to include the doctrine of Proportion, and Simple Equations with one or two unknown quantities. Euclid: Books 1, 2 and 3. Statics, Hydrostatics, Optics, and Acoustics. In the physical subjects, it will be sufficient to be prepared with general explanations of the leading phenomena, such as may be found in Treatises on Physics; except in the case of Statics and Hydrostatics, in which mathematical demonstrations of the elementary propositions will also be required, such as may be found in any of the following books:—Barrett's Propositions in Mechanics and Hydrostatics; Snowball's Cambridge Course of Elementary Natural Philosophy; Whewell's Mechanical Euclid; Williams's Elements of Mechanics and Hydrostatics. In Optics careful drawings will be required of the course of rays transmitted through lenses, &c., illustrating the formation of images; but the mathematical theory of their formation will not be required, except in the case of plane mirrors. FRENCH:—The Translation into English of a passage in two of the following works at the option of the Candidate:—Horace; Corneille; La Grâce contemporaine; E. About; Eugénie Grandet; Balzac. Grammatical questions on the parts of speech, particularly the conjugation of the irregular Verbs, in the selected passages.

Professional Examination.—The Professional Examination for the Fellowship is held in the months of May and November, and occupies two days:—the subjects of the first day's Examination are Anatomy and Physiology, those of the second day are Pathology, Therapeutics, and Surgery; in the Anatomical Examination the Candidate has to perform dissections or operations on the dead body. The time allowed for each day's Examination is from Ten o'clock in the forenoon until Four o'clock in the afternoon. Graduates in Medicine of any University in the United Kingdom are admitted to the Fellowship after having passed the Professional Examination in Surgery only; provided the educational and other requirements of such Graduates, by the Universities in question, be deemed by the Council of this College equivalent to those imposed on the Candidates for the Fellowship of this College. Each Candidate, on going in for examination, will have delivered to him a written or printed copy of such questions as shall have been determined upon by the Court of Examiners, and to which questions he will be required to give written answers. A Candidate whose qualifications shall be found insufficient upon his Professional Examination will not be allowed to present himself a second time until after the expiration of one year from his first Examination.

CANDIDATES FOR THE CERTIFICATE OF QUALIFICATION IN MIDWIFERY.

1. Persons who were Fellows or Members of the College prior to the 1st of January, 1853, will be admitted to Examination for the Certificate of qualification in Midwifery upon producing their Diploma. 2. Persons having become Members of the College subsequently to the 1st of January, 1853, will be admitted to Examination on producing their Diploma, together with a Certificate or Certificates of having attended twenty Labours. 3. Members or Licentiates of any legally constituted College of Surgeons in the United Kingdom, and Graduates in Surgery of any University requiring residence to obtain Degrees, will be admitted to Examination on producing, together with their Diploma, Licence, or Degree, proof of being Twenty-one years of age—of having been occupied four years in the acquirement of Professional knowledge—of having attended one course of Lectures on Midwifery—and of having attended not less than twenty Labours. 4. Graduates in Medicine of any legally constituted College or University requiring residence to obtain Degrees, will be admitted to Examination on producing, together with their Diploma or Degree, proof of being Twenty-one years of age—of having been occupied four years in the acquirement of Professional knowledge—of having completed, at recognised Schools, the Anatomical and Surgical Education required of Candidates for the Diploma of Member of the College—of having attended one Course of Lectures on Midwifery—and of having attended not less than twenty Labours. 5. Persons having commenced their Professional education, either by attendance on Hospital Practice, or on Lectures on Anatomy, prior to the 1st of January, 1853, will be admitted to Examination on producing the several Certificates of Professional education required for admission to examination for the Diploma of Member of the College at the period of such commencement of Professional Education. 6. Persons having commenced their Professional education, either by attendance on Hospital Practice, or on Lectures on Anatomy, after the said 1st of January, 1853, will be admitted to Examination on producing Certificates of being Twenty-one years of age—of having been engaged during four years in the acquirement of Professional knowledge—of having completed, at recognised Schools, the Professional education required of Candidates for the Diploma of Member of the College—of having attended one Course of Lectures on Midwifery and the Diseases of Women and Children—and of having personally conducted thirty Labours. N.B. The fee for the Certificate is as follows, viz.—1. Persons who were Fellows or Members of the College prior to the 1st of January, 1853, Two Guineas. 2. Persons admitted Fellows or Members of this College subsequently to the 1st of January, 1853, Three Guineas. 3. 4. Persons producing any other Diploma or Certificate of Degree which may be considered by the Council to afford satisfactory proof of sufficient Surgical and Medical education, Three Guineas. 5. 6. All other Persons, Ten Guineas. Candidates found not qualified will be referred for a period of not less than three months, and are required upon again appearing before the Board to produce a Certificate of having personally conducted at least ten Labours subsequently to the date of such reference.

CANDIDATES FOR THE CERTIFICATE OF QUALIFICATION IN DENTAL SURGERY.

I. Candidates are required to produce the following certificates:—1. Of being Twenty-one years of age. 2. Of having been engaged during four years in the acquirement of professional knowledge. 3. Of having attended, at a school or schools recognised by this College, not less than one of each of the following courses of lectures, delivered by lecturers recognised by this College, namely—Anatomy, Physiology, Surgery, Medicine, Chemistry, and Materia Medica. 4. Of having attended, a second winter course of Lectures on Anatomy, or a course of not less than twenty Lectures on the Anatomy of the Head and Neck, delivered by lecturers recognised by this College. 5. Of having performed Dissections at a recognised school during not less than nine months. 6. Of having completed a course of Chemical Manipulation, under the superintendence of a teacher or lecturer recognised by this College. 7. Of having attended at a recognised hospital or hospitals in the United Kingdom, the Practice of Surgery and Clinical Lectures on Surgery during two winter sessions. 8. Of having attended, at a recognised school, two courses of lectures upon each of the following subjects, viz.—Dental Anatomy and Physiology (Human and Comparative), Dental Surgery, Dental Mechanics, and one course of lectures on Metallurgy, by lecturers recognised by this College. 9. Of having been engaged, during a period of not less than three years, in acquiring a practical familiarity with the details of Mechanical Dentistry, under the instruction of a competent practitioner. 10. Of having attended at a recognised Dental Hospital, or in the dental department of a recognised general hospital, the practice of Dental Surgery during two winter and two summer sessions. N.B. The students of the London schools are required to register the above certificates at this College; and special Returns will be required from the provincial schools.

II. Candidates who were in practice as Dentists, or who had commenced their education as Dentists, prior to September, 1859 (the date of the Charter), and who are unable to produce the Certificates required by the foregoing regulations, are required to furnish the Board of Examiners with a Certificate of moral and professional character, signed by two members of this College, together with answers to the following inquiries:—Name. Age. Professional address. If in practice as a Dentist, the date of the commencement thereof. Whether member or licentiate of any college of physicians or surgeons of the United Kingdom; and, if so, of what college. Whether graduate of any university in the United Kingdom; and, if so, of what university; and whether graduate in Arts or Medicine. The date or dates of any such diploma, licence, or degree. Whether member of any learned or scientific society; and, if so, of what. Whether his practice as a Dentist is carried on in connexion with any other business; and, if so, with what business. The particulars of professional education, medical or special.

The Board of Examiners will determine whether the evidence of character and education produced by a candidate be such as to entitle him to examination.

N.B. Blank forms of the above inquiries may be obtained on application at the College. The fee for the certificate of fitness to practise as a Dentist is ten guineas, over and above any stamp duty. Every person on whose application and account a special meeting of the Board shall be held, and every other person examined at such meeting, shall severally pay five guineas; and shall also on being approved, pay the same sum for the certificate as if examined and approved at an ordinary meeting of the Board. Members of the College will be examined only by the section of the Board consisting of persons skilled in Dental Surgery. A candidate whose qualification shall be found insufficient will be referred back to his studies, and will not be admitted to re-examination within the period of six months, unless the Board shall otherwise determine.

CANDIDATES FOR THE FELLOWSHIP BY ELECTION.

I. Members of the College of fifteen years' standing who were members on the 14th day of September, 1843, desirous of admission to the Fellowship otherwise than by examination, must transmit or deliver to the Secretary a Declaration signed by himself, in the following terms, namely:—I, A. B., of C., a Member of the Royal College of Surgeons of England, do declare that I do not sell or supply drugs or medicines, (or that) I do not sell or supply drugs or medicines otherwise than in the due exercise or practice of my profession as an Apothecary. Together with a certificate in the following terms, namely:—"We, the undersigned Fellows of the Royal College of Surgeons of England, do, from our personal knowledge of the high moral character and professional attainments of A. B., of C., declare that in our opinion he is deserving of the honour of the Fellowship of the said College, and that he does not sell or supply drugs or medicines, (or that) he does not sell or supply drugs or medicines otherwise than in the due exercise or practice of his profession as an Apothecary. We therefore recommend the said A. B. to the Council to be admitted a Fellow of the College." II. In the case of a member resident in the United Kingdom, such certificate must be signed by six Fellows of the College. III. In the case of a member absent from the United Kingdom, in the service of the Royal Army or Navy, such certificate must be signed by two Fellows of the College, and also by the officer superintending the medical department of the service to which such member shall belong. IV. In the case of members resident in any of the British colonies, plantations, or dependencies, such certificate must be signed by two Fellows of the College, and also by the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or Superintendent of such colony, plantation, or dependency, whose signature must be verified by the Secretary, or one of the Under Secretaries of State for the Colonies. V. The required Declaration and Certificate must be received at the College at least seven days before the Meeting of the Council at which the ballot shall be taken on the election of the said member into the Fellowship. VI. The fee of ten guineas payable upon the admission of Members to the Fellowship by election, must be paid at or before the issue of the Diploma of Fellowship. VII. No Member of the College, admitted to the Fellowship by election, can exercise any right or privilege he shall have acquired as a Fellow until he shall have signed a copy of the Bye-Laws of the College, in testimony of having engaged himself to the observance thereof, and made and subscribed the following Declaration in the presence of the Council, viz.:—"I, A. B., of C., Member of the Royal College of Surgeons of England, do solemnly and sincerely declare, that while a Fellow of the said College, I will observe the Bye-laws thereof, and will obey every lawful summons issued by order of the Council of the said College, having no reasonable excuse to the contrary."

MUSEUM.

The Museum is open to the Members of the College, to the Trustees of the Hunterian Collection, and to Visitors introduced by them personally or by written orders (which orders are not transferable), on the public days, which are Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday in each week, from twelve to four o'clock; except during the month of September, when the Museum is closed. The Museum is also open as above to all Fellows and Licentiates of the Royal Colleges of Physicians and Surgeons in the United Kingdom; to Peers and Members of Parliament; to the Officers in the Public Service; to the members of all the Learned and Scientific Bodies in the United Kingdom, and to persons introduced to them respectively; and to all learned and scientific Foreigners. The Secretary and Conservator will exercise their discretion in the case of applications for admission from other persons. Persons desirous of devoting especial study to particular departments of the Museum, may have access for that purpose on Fridays, from twelve to four in winter, and from twelve to five in summer, on making a written application to the President. Persons desirous of comparing specimens with those in the Museum, or of having specimens examined, or of gaining other information, are requested to present themselves on Saturdays between the hours of ten and one o'clock. Visitors are required to insert their names and residences in the book provided for that purpose. The several Parts of the Catalogue of the Collection may be obtained at the College.

LIBRARY.

The Library is open daily, Sundays excepted, to Members and Articled Students of the College, from Eleven a.m. to Five p.m.

Members have the privilege of personally introducing a Visitor.

Persons not members, desirous of admission, must make application in writing to the President or Library Committee, specifying their Christian and surnames, rank or profession, and residence; which application must be accompanied by a recommendation from a member that a ticket may be granted to the applicant.

Tickets of admission, which are not transferable, are granted for six months, at the expiration of which time application must be made for their renewal.

Readers wishing to refer to any book are requested to furnish the Librarian with the title or number thereof written on a slip of paper; and to return such book to the Librarian before quitting the Library.

Readers taking extracts from any book, may not lay the paper on which they write on any part of such book; nor may any tracings be taken from any plate without the permission of the Committee.

Books belonging to the College are not to be written upon; and any one observing a defect in a book is requested to report the same to the Librarian.

Readers desirous of consulting works not in the Library are requested to communicate their wishes in writing to the Librarian, in order that the same may be reported to the Committee.

Every person upon admission to the Library is required to insert his name and residence in a book provided for that purpose.

The Catalogues of the Library may be purchased at the College.

T. Dyer, C. Taylor, H. M. Bowdon, S. H. Ward, and J. Randall; Sec. to Court, Mr. A. M. Randall; Clerk to Soc., Mr. R. B. Upton; Prof. of Chem. and Mat. Med., Dr. W. T. Brande; Exam. for Soc.'s Prize in Bot., Dr. J. D. Hooker; Cur. of Bot. Garden, Mr. T. Moore; Beadle, Mr. C. Rivers.

Note.—Members are those who constitute the incorporated Society of Apothecaries; Licentiates, those who have obtained their Licence to practise as Apothecaries.

REGULATIONS, ETC.

Every Candidate for a Certificate of Qualification to practise as an Apothecary, will be required to produce Testimonials—

1. Of having passed a Preliminary Examination in Classics and Mathematics.

2. Of having served an apprenticeship of not less than five years to an Apothecary qualified by the Act of 1815.

No gentleman practising in England or Wales can give his apprentice a legal title to examination, unless he is himself legally qualified to practise as an Apothecary, either by having been in practice prior to or on the 1st August, 1815, or by having received a certificate of his qualification from the Court of Examiners. An apprenticeship for not less than five years to Surgeons practising as Apothecaries in Ireland and Scotland, gives to the apprentice a title to be admitted to Examination.

3. Of having attained the full age of twenty-one years.

As evidence of age, a copy of the baptismal register will be required in every case where it can possibly be procured.

4. Of good moral conduct.

A testimonial of moral character from the gentleman to whom the Candidate has been an apprentice, will always be more satisfactory than from any other person.

5. And of having pursued a Course of Medical Study in conformity with the regulations of the Court.

COURSE OF STUDY.

Every Candidate whose attendance on Lectures shall commence on or after the 1st of October, 1858, must attend the following Lectures and Medical Practice during not less than three winter and two summer sessions; each winter session to consist of not less than six months, and to commence not sooner than the 1st nor later than the 15th of October; and each summer session to extend from the 1st of May to the 31st of July.

FIRST YEAR.—Winter Session—Chemistry; Anatomy and Dissections; Summer Session—Materia Medica and Therapeutics; Botany and Practical Chemistry.*

* By Practical Chemistry is intended a specific course of instruction in the Laboratory, with an opportunity of Personal Manipulation in the Ordinary Processes of Chemistry, and of acquiring a knowledge of the various Re-Agents for Poisons.

SECOND YEAR.—Winter Session—Anatomy and Physiology; Dissections; Principles and Practice of Medicine; Clinical Medical Practice.* Summer Session—Clinical Medical Practice;* Midwifery and Diseases of Women and Children, with attendance on Cases (not less than twenty) ;† and having received Instruction in Practical Vaccination, Forensic Medicine, and Toxicology; Demonstrations on Morbid Anatomy.

THIRD YEAR.—Winter Session—Clinical Lectures—(seventy-five) ;‡ Clinical Medical Practice* and Demonstrations on Morbid Anatomy.

The above course of study may be extended over a longer period than three winter and two summer sessions, provided the lectures and medical practice are attended in the order prescribed. Those gentlemen whose attendance on lectures commenced before the 1st Oct., 1858, will be allowed to complete their studies in conformity with the previous regulations.

RECOGNITION OF LECTURERS AND SCHOOLS.

No lecturer will be recognised by the court who is not connected with a recognised medical school, or who teaches on more than two branches of medical science, nor until he has produced very satisfactory testimonials of his attainments in the science he proposes to teach, and of his ability as a teacher thereof, from at least two persons of acknowledged talents and distinguished acquirements in the particular branch of science in question. Satisfactory assurance must also be given that the teacher is in possession of the means requisite for the full illustration of his lectures, viz., that he has, if lecturing—On chemistry, a laboratory and competent apparatus; on materia medica, a museum sufficiently extensive; on botany, a hortus siccus, plates or drawings, and recent plants; on midwifery, a museum, and such appointment in a public institution as may afford the means of practical instruction to the pupils. Lectures on anatomy, and physiology, and anatomical demonstrations, must be in conformity with the regulations of the Royal College of Surgeons. The lecturer on the principles and practice of medicine, if he lectures in London, must be a member of the Royal College of Physicians of London; and if in a provincial town either a member of the Royal College of Physicians of London, or a graduated Doctor of Medicine of a British University of four years' standing, unless prior to his graduation he had been for four years a licentiate of this court. The lecturer on materia medica and therapeutics must be a member of the Royal College of Physicians, or a graduated Doctor of Medicine of a British University of four years' standing, or he must have been a licentiate of this court for the same period. The lecturer on midwifery must be a member of one of the legally constituted Colleges of Physicians or Surgeons in the United Kingdom, of four years' standing, or he must have been a licentiate of this court for the same period. The names of the lecturers recognised by the court, may be known on application to the secretary, at the hall of the Society. The certificates of teachers recognised by the constituted medical authorities in Ireland and Scotland, as also those of the medical professors in foreign universities, are received by the court. Much inconvenience having arisen from the presentation of schedules signed by lecturers unknown to the court, it is particularly requested that the registrars of the medical schools will furnish a correct list of their recognised teachers to the secretary of this court, at the commencement of every winter session.

HOSPITALS AND DISPENSARIES.

No hospital will be recognised by the court, unless—1. It contains at least 100 beds. 2. It be under the care of two or more physicians, Members of the Royal College of Physicians of London, or graduated Doctors of Medicine of a British University; and an apothecary legally qualified, either by having been in practice prior to the 1st of August, 1815, or by having received a certificate of qualification from this court. 3. The physicians give lectures on clinical medicine, and instruction in morbid anatomy. No dispensary will be recognised by the court, unless it be situated in some town where there is a recognised medical school, and be under the care of at least two physicians and an apothecary legally qualified. No medical practice will be available, unless it be attended in conformity with the course of study prescribed for pupils.

REGISTRATION OF TESTIMONIALS.

All testimonials must be given on a printed schedule, and the blanks therein must be filled up by the lecturers themselves. Students will be supplied with schedules at the time of their first registration; in London, at this hall; in the provincial towns from the gentlemen who keep the registers of the medical schools, and whose names may be known by application to the secretary of this court. All students, in London, are required personally to register the several classes for which they have taken tickets, and those only will be considered as complying with the regulations of the court, whose names and classes in the register correspond with their schedules. Tickets of admission to lectures and medical practice must be registered in the months of October and May, but no ticket will be registered unless it be dated within seven days from the commencement of the course. Due notice of the days and hours of such registrations will be given from time to time. The court also requires students at the provincial medical schools to register their names in their own handwriting with the registrar of each respective school, within the first twenty-one days of October, and first fourteen days of May; and to register their certificates of having duly attended lectures or medical practice within fourteen days of the completion of such attendance. The registrars are requested to furnish the Court of Examiners with a copy of each registration immediately after its close, as those students only will be admitted to examination whose registrations have been duly communicated to the court.

* Medical Practice must be attended during the full term of Eighteen Months; Twelve Months at an Hospital connected with a recognised Medical School, and Six Months either at a recognised Hospital or Dispensary, if more convenient.

† A certificate of such attendance will be received from a legally qualified practitioner.

‡ The Course of Clinical Lectures may be commenced in the Second Summer Session. The Attendance on these Lectures must be certified by one or more of the recognised Physicians of the Hospital.

JUNIOR PRELIMINARY EXAMINATION IN CLASSICS AND MATHEMATICS.

An examination in classics and mathematics will be held at the hall three times in the year, viz., on the third Tuesday and Wednesday in the months of March, July, and November. Medical students will be admitted to this examination at any period from the date of their apprenticeship to the commencement of the second winter session of their curriculum; and those who pass it will not be subject to any subsequent examination in Latin, except in the Pharmacopœia Londinensis and prescriptions. The subjects of examination will be announced in the medical journals three months before each examination. Candidates for this examination will be required to enter their names in a book kept at the beadle's office, not less than a fortnight before the day of examination. This examination will be compulsory on those gentlemen who commence their apprenticeship on and after 1st of August, 1858, unless they shall have passed the Middle Class Examination of Oxford or Cambridge, or the Matriculation Examination of the University of London. Gentlemen failing to pass this examination will not be re-admitted under a period of four months.

EXAMINATION.

The Court of Examiners meet in the hall every Thursday, where candidates are required to attend at a quarter-past four o'clock. Every person intending to offer himself for examination must give notice in writing to the Clerk of the Society on or before the Monday previously to the day of examination, and must at the same time deposit all the required testimonials at the office of the beadle, where attendance is given every day, except Sunday, from ten until four o'clock. On and after the 1st of August, 1858, the examination of candidates for a certificate of qualification to practise as Apothecaries will be divided into two parts. First Examination, which may be passed after the second winter session (provided the candidate has completed the nineteenth year of his age), will embrace the following subjects:—Latin, including the Pharmacopœia and physicians' prescriptions; anatomy; physiology; general and practical chemistry; botany; materia medica. Second Examination, after the third winter session (the five years' pupilage being completed):—Practice of medicine and pathology; midwifery, including the diseases of women and children; forensic medicine and toxicology.

The examination of the candidate for a certificate of qualification to act as assistant to an apothecary, in compounding and dispensing medicines, will be as follows: In translating physicians' prescriptions, and the Pharmacopœia Londinensis; in pharmacy and materia medica.

By the 22nd section of the Act of Parliament, no rejected candidate for a certificate to practise as an apothecary, can be re-examined until the expiration of six months from his former examination; and no rejected candidate as an assistant until the expiration of three months. The Act directs the following sums to be paid for certificates: For London, and within ten miles thereof, ten guineas; for all other parts of England and Wales, six guineas. Persons having paid the latter sum become entitled to practise in London, and within ten miles thereof, by paying four guineas in addition. For an assistant's certificate, two guineas.

METROPOLITAN HOSPITALS AND SCHOOLS OF MEDICINE.

* * * Cases of great emergency require no recommendation to obtain admission into the London Hospitals. The Medical Officers have the privilege of fixing the days and hours of attendance.

The dissecting-rooms are open daily, from seven o'clock till four. The entrance to the lectures on Anatomy, or to those on Physiology, confers the right of dissecting.

SUMMER SESSION.

Materia Medica and Therapeutics: Dr. F. J. Farre, Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday, at nine. One course, 4*l.* 4*s.*; unlimited, 6*l.* 6*s.*

Midwifery and the Diseases of Women and Children: Dr. C. West, daily (except Monday and Thursday), at eight a.m. One course, 4*l.* 4*s.*; unlimited, 6*l.* 6*s.*

Botany: Dr. , on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, at nine a.m. One course, 3*l.* 3*s.*; unlimited 4*l.* 4*s.*

Forensic Medicine: Dr. P. Black, on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, at nine. One course, 3*l.* 3*s.*; unlimited, 4*l.* 4*s.*

Practical Chemistry: Dr. E. Frankland, on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday, from ten till one. One course, 2*l.* 2*s.*; unlimited, 3*l.* 3*s.*

Comparative Anatomy: Mr. , on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, at ten. One course, 2*l.* 2*s.*; unlimited, 3*l.* 3*s.*

Demonstrations of Operative Surgery: Messrs. Callender and Smith. Fee for the course, 2*l.* 2*s.*

Entrance fee to all the lectures required for the Members' Examination at the Royal College of Surgeons and the Society of Apothecaries, 50 guineas.

Entrance fee to all the lectures and hospital practice required for the same Examinations, 90 guineas.

Unlimited entrance to all the lectures, 60 guineas.

The above general entrance-fee may be paid in three portions, as follows: at the beginning of first winter session, 30 guineas; of the first summer session, 30 guineas; and of the second winter session, 35 guineas.

Students having entered for any period to the hospital practice or lectures, may prolong their attendance, on paying the difference between their first entrance fee and that for any longer period.

HOSPITAL PRACTICE.—Fees of Attendance.

Medical Practice: Six months, 12*l.* 12*s.*; twelve or eighteen months, 18*l.* 18*s.*; an unlimited period, 31*l.* 10*s.* The clinical clerks to the physicians are elected from the most diligent students.

Surgical Practice: Six months, 15*l.* 15*s.*; three months, 21*l.*; three years, 26*l.* 5*s.*; an unlimited period, 31*l.* 10*s.* Dresserships, three months, 12*l.* 12*s.*; six months, 18*l.* 18*s.*; twelve months, 26*l.* 5*s.*

The entrance to the Medical or Surgical Practice confers the right of attending the courses of clinical lectures by the Physicians or Surgeons.

In addition to the clinical instruction given by all the medical officers at their visits, courses of clinical lectures are delivered weekly during both the Winter and the Summer Sessions—on Medicine, by Drs. Burrows, Farre, and Black; on Surgery, by Messrs. Lawrence, Stanley, Lloyd, and Skey.

The Examinations after Death are made in the Pathological Theatre, at twelve o'clock, by the Demonstrator of Morbid Anatomy.

Surgical Operations on Saturdays, at half-past one o'clock.

Cases in Midwifery are attended, as out-patients of the hospital, by the students of the midwifery class, under the superintendence of the Physician-Accoucheur. More than 600 cases are thus attended annually.

The Attendance on Lectures of all students of the first year is registered. All students proceeding to examination at the College of Surgeons are examined three times a week, by the teachers of Anatomy.

All students of the first year are examined weekly in the several subjects of their studies by the tutor, Dr. Batten.

Instruction in Practical Pharmacy is given in the Apothecaries' shop, under the direction of Mr. Wood.

The Museums of Anatomy, Materia Medica, and Botany, are open daily to the students of the respective classes.

A Reading Room is open to all students of the school during the greater part of the day. Subscription to the Medical Journals, for three years, 10*s.* 6*d.*

The Library contains upwards of 5000 volumes of the standard works on Medical and other sciences, with the chief Medical Journals, which are circulated among the subscribers. Subscription, for twelve months, 1*l.* 1*s.*; for three years, 1*l.* 11*s.* 6*d.*; for four years, 2*l.* 2*s.*

Collegiate Establishment: Under the direction of the Treasurer and a Committee of the Governors of the Hospital; houses within the hospital walls have been fitted up as a College, for the residence of forty students.

The establishment is under the superintendence of Dr. Martin, the resident Warden, from whom the rules may be obtained.

SCHOLARSHIPS AND PRIZES: Examinations are held in the several classes at the end of each session, and scholarships, prizes, and honorary distinctions are awarded in October.

Two Scholarships of the value of 45*l.* for one year, will be awarded in May, 1861. The subject of examination will be, for one, Medicine, Surgery, and Therapeutics; for the other, Anatomy, Physiology, and Chemistry.

The Wix Prize, founded by the Rev. S. Wix, Vicar and Hospitaller, will, in 1860, be given to the best Essay "On the Tendency of Geological and other connecting Physical Studies to illustrate the Bible, and to declare the glory of God."

The President's Prize will, in 1861, be given for the best report of medical cases observed in the hospital during the previous year.

The Treasurer, Mr. W. Foster White, will give a prize to the student of the first year who shall make the best dissection and pass the best practical examination on Anatomy.

The Bentley Prize, founded by James Bentley, Esq., late Treasurer of the hospital, will be given for the best report of surgical cases observed in the hospital during the previous year.

The Hichens Prize, founded by Robert Hichens, Esq., will be given to the student who passes the best examination in Bishop Butler's "Analogy of Natural and Revealed Religion."

The Foster Prize, founded by George Holgate Foster, Esq., for the encouragement of Practical Anatomy, will be given to the student who shall display the greatest industry and skill in the dissecting-rooms.

Mr. Lloyd will give a Microscope as a Prize for the best report of the most interesting cases occurring in the wards under his charge.

Mr. McWhinnie will give a prize for the best report of the cases of Hernia during the previous year.

Prizes of Books or Instruments, and Honorary Certificates, will be awarded to the students who give proof of proficiency in the several subjects of study. The rules to be observed by candidates for the several scholarships and prizes may be seen in the museum or the library of the hospital, or in the "Student's Handbook."

Surgery: Mr. Hancock. Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, at five p.m. One session, 3l. 3s.; two sessions, 5l. 5s.; three sessions, 6l. 6s.

Chemistry: Mr. R. V. Tuson. Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, from ten to eleven. One session 5l. 5s.; two sessions, 6l. 6s.; three sessions, 7l. 7s.

Natural Philosophy: Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday, at a quarter-past eleven. One course, 3l. 3s.

SUMMER SESSION.

Midwifery and the Medical Treatment of Women and Children: Dr. Chowne. Monday, Wednesday, and Thursday, from three till four. One session, 3l. 3s.; two sessions, 5l. 5s.; three sessions, 6l. 6s. Abundant opportunities are afforded to the advanced students of attending obstetrical cases.

Materia Medica and Therapeutics: Dr. Steggall. Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, from nine till ten. One session, 4l. 4s.; two sessions, 5l. 5s.; three sessions, 6l. 6s.

Forensic Medicine: Dr. G. Birkett and Mr. Hird. Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, from four till five. One session, 2l. 2s.; two sessions, 3l. 3s.; three sessions, 4l. 4s.

Botany: Mr. J. Syme. Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, from ten till eleven. One session, 2l. 2s.; two sessions, 3l. 3s.; three sessions, 4l. 4s.

Practical Chemistry: Mr. R. V. Tuson, assisted by Mr. C. W. Heaton. Monday, Wednesday, and Friday. One session, 2l. 2s.

Comparative Anatomy: Mr. R. Barwell. Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday, from half-past three till half-past four. One session, 3l. 3s.; three sessions, 4l. 4s.

HOSPITAL PRACTICE.

Medical Practice: three months, 6l. 6s.; six months, 10l. 10s.; full period required, 21l. Surgical Practice: three months, 6l. 6s.; six months, 10l. 10s.; full period required, 21l. Full period required by the Royal College of Surgeons and the Society of Apothecaries, to both medical and surgical practice, 31l. 10s. For a longer period, 5 guineas for each additional winter, and 3 guineas for each additional summer session.

The Physicians and Surgeons visit the wards on their respective days between one and two o'clock.

The cases in the Out-patients' Department are seen and prescribed for at the hospital daily between twelve and two o'clock.

Clinical Lectures: Medical and Surgical Clinical Lectures are given by the Physicians and Surgeons of the hospital, in accordance with the new regulations.

Morbid Anatomy: Post-Mortem Examinations are made in available cases, and demonstrations given.

The Museum contains numerous instructive preparations of morbid and natural structure; together with models, drawings, diagrams, &c., for illustrating the various lectures.

Certificates of attendance on the practice at this hospital, and on the lectures at this school, are received as qualifying for Examination on the respective subjects by the University of London, College of Surgeons, and Society of Apothecaries.

Demonstrations in Operative Surgery, applications of bandages, splints, and other mechanical means of cure, by Mr. Hancock.

Attendance is given in the dissecting-room by the teacher of anatomy, and the demonstrator, Mr. Goldsbro.

General fee to matriculated students for all the lectures required by the College of Surgeons and Society of Apothecaries, for the full period required, and in the order of attendance prescribed by the latter, 41l. 2s. To the students are presented cards of admission to the library, renewable periodically. The matriculation fee is 2l. 2s.

Medical Tutor, T. W. Goldsbro, M.D. The duty of the Medical Tutor is to assist the students in the subject of the lectures.

Diseases of the Eye: Matriculated students are admitted free to the lectures upon the diseases of the eye, delivered by Mr. Hancock, at the Royal Westminster Ophthalmic Hospital, closely adjacent.

Microscopical Demonstrations, on healthy and diseased structures. Dr. Salter, the Lecturer on Physiology and Pathology, gives, in the summer, a short course of practical microscopical demonstrations, including the following subjects:—The principles of construction of the different forms of microscopes, and the manipulation of the instrument; the microscopical examination of the tissues, of the solids and fluids of the body, especially of the urine and other secretions, and of various morbid products; practical instructions in the different methods of preparing and mounting microscopical subjects as permanent specimens. Matriculated students are admitted free to this course.

The Library, containing numerous standard and medical surgical works, both ancient and modern, and supplied with the current medical periodicals, is open daily (Sunday excepted), from half-past nine a.m. till half-past four p.m., and is under the superintendence of the Librarian. The Library is furnished with a Cabinet of Materia Medica, and Osteological preparations. Recent specimens of Medical Botany are also supplied during the summer session.

The Chemical Laboratory is open daily under the immediate direction of the Professor of Chemistry, from ten o'clock till four, except on Saturdays, when it closes at one o'clock.

Residence of Students: With a view of ensuring domestic comforts, as well as regularity of habits, arrangements have been made with several medical gentlemen and others residing in the neighbourhood of the hospital, to receive students as inmates, and parents or guardians are advised to communicate with the Dean before determining the place of residence. Arrangements have also been made for apprenticing students intended for general practice to members of the Society of Apothecaries, resident within a convenient distance of the College. The Dean attends in the library every morning at half-past twelve o'clock, and any letter addressed to him will be attended to without delay.

Degrees: Students of this College are admitted to examination for degrees in medicine, and for the honours, exhibitions, and scholarships conferred by the Senate of the University of London.

Free Scholarships.—Candidates for free scholarships are required to be the sons of professional men, or of gentlemen in a corresponding station of society, of reduced circumstances, and are to have had a good preliminary classical education fitting them for the medical profession. They are to send in their application and testimonials before the 1st of August. A printed form for that purpose will be supplied to them upon the written application of the candidates themselves addressed to the Managers of the College.

Medical Officers of the Public Services.—The medical officers of the Army and Navy are admitted to the practice and lectures at this hospital, upon presenting a recommendation for that purpose from the heads of their respective departments.

The Medals and Testimonials of Honour are awarded in conformity with the following arrangements:—The competitors for the Governors' Clinical Medals are to have attended the medical and surgical practice of the hospital for the full period required to qualify for examination by the College of Surgeons and Society of Apothecaries. Competitors for the Silver Class Medals, and Testimonials of Honour, of the Senior Classes, are to be in the last session of their attendance in the classes for the medal or testimonials for which they are competitors. Competitors for the Bronze Medals, and Testimonials of Honour, of the Junior Classes, are to have completed, when the current session shall be ended, the first session of attendance, in the classes for the medal or testimonial for which they are competitors. In those classes of which only one session is required by the College of Surgeons and Society of Apothecaries, a Silver Medal is offered for competition instead of a Bronze Medal. Gentlemen having already competed successfully in one branch of study, are not entitled again to compete in that branch.

ST. GEORGE'S HOSPITAL.

Hyde-park: Corner. S. W.

Phys., Drs. Page, B. Jones, Pitman, and Fuller.—Obst. Phys., Dr. R. Lee.—Asst.-Phys., Drs. Barclay and Ogle.—Surgs., Messrs. C. Hawkins, Cutler, Tatum, and H. C. Johnson.—Asst.-Surgs., Messrs. P. Hewett and G. D. Pollock.—Dentist, Mr. Vasey.—Apoth., Mr. J. H. Hammerton.—Sec., Mr. Gunning.—Asst.-Sec., Mr. Holmes.

This Hospital contains 350 beds, of which 200 are allotted to surgical and 150 to medical cases. Gentlemen becoming pupils of this hospital, who desire to be Members of the Royal College of Surgeons, or Licentiates of the Society of Apothecaries, may qualify themselves for examination on paying forty guineas at the commencement of the first year; forty guineas at the commencement of the second year; and twelve guineas at the commencement of the third year.

The payment for the year will admit the pupil to all the lectures, and to the hospital practice required, for that year only.

Special entries to hospital practice, or to any separate course of lectures, may be made as heretofore:—viz.

To the practice of the Physicians on the following terms—

For the period required to qualify for Examination by the Society of Apothecaries, 16*l.* 16*s.*; for six months, 8*l.* 8*s.*; for one year, 16*l.* 16*s.*; for each additional year, 8*l.* 8*s.*; Perpetual pupils, 25*l.* 4*s.*; Fee to the Apothecary, 1*l.* 1*s.*

To the practice of the Surgeons on the following terms—

For the period required to qualify for Examination by the Royal College of Surgeons, 21*l.*; for six months, 15*l.* 15*s.*; for each additional year, 10*l.* 10*s.*; Perpetual pupils, 52*l.* 10*s.*

A Maternity Department, for the delivery of married lying-in women at their own homes, is established at the hospital, under the superintendence of the Obstetric Physician.

Attendance of the Physicians and Surgeons, daily at one o'clock. Surgical operations on Thursday at one o'clock.

Clinical Lectures are given by the Physicians and Surgeons of the hospital during the winter and summer sessions.

Clinical Instruction on the diseases peculiar to women is given in the wards of the hospital by the Obstetric Physician.

Ophthalmic Surgery: Patients with diseases of the eye are treated by Mr. H. C. Johnson, on Tuesdays and Saturdays, at half-past twelve o'clock.

Dental Surgery: Mr. Vasey will deliver a course of lectures on Dental Surgery during the summer session.

Practical Pharmacy: Gentlemen may be instructed in Pharmacy, in the laboratory and dispensary of the hospital, on the following terms—three months, 8*l.* 8*s.*; six months, 12*l.* 12*s.*; twelve months, 15*l.* 15*s.*

Clinical Assistants: Every pupil entering to the medical practice must hold the office of clinical assistant to one of the Physicians, for two periods of two months each. Every pupil entering to the surgical practice must hold the office of clinical assistant to one of the surgeons, for two periods of two months each.

Dressers: Pupils entering to the surgical practice must hold the office of dresser for two periods of two months each, and perpetual pupils will have the privilege of holding the office of dresser for two periods of four months each, without additional fee. The dresser of the surgeon of the week boards at the hospital free of expense.

House-Surgeons: The perpetual pupils are eligible to be assistant house-surgeon for six months, and house-surgeon for twelve months (without additional fee), when properly qualified for the office.

Obstetric Assistant: This officer must be a legally qualified practitioner; he is appointed for twelve months, and is eligible for reappointment at the end of that period. He resides and boards in the hospital, and receives a yearly salary of one hundred pounds.

The Library and Reading-Room: Are open during the greater part of the day. Each pupil of the hospital has to subscribe the sum of ten shillings and sixpence to the library, at the commencement of each winter session.

The Museum: is open daily to the pupils of the hospital.

LECTURES.

Descriptive and Surgical Anatomy: Messrs. Pollock and H. Grey, Monday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday. Course, 6l. 6s. Perpetual, 8l. 8s. In these lectures, the numerous parts and organs of which the human body consists are described with reference to their form and mutual relations, especially in their connection with surgery. Recent dissections, drawings, and preparations are made use of for the purpose of illustration.

Physiology, General, and Comparative Anatomy: Mr. A. Johnson. Tuesday and Saturday. Course, 6l. 6s. Perpetual, 8l. 8s. The structure and properties of the different tissues common to several organs are minutely described in this course, as also the functions performed by those organs either separately, or combined for a common purpose, and the laws which govern their actions. These lectures are illustrated by recent dissections and anatomical preparations, human and comparative, by experiments and diagrams.

Practical Anatomy: A regular series of demonstrations of certain structures of the body will be given by the demonstrators, Dr. Hastings, Dr. Dickinson, and Mr. Rouse, who will likewise assist the students in their studies.

Microscopical Anatomy: Demonstrations will be given during the winter session.

Theory and Practice of Medicine: Dr. Pitman. Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, 6l. 6s. A general view of symptoms and their relations to disordered functions, and to the several forms of altered structure, is given in this course of lectures; and also the special application of the general facts and doctrines which have been ascertained and established. The lectures are illustrated by recent specimens of morbid structures, by preparations from the museum, and by drawings.

Theory and Practice of Surgery: Mr. Tatum. Monday, Wednesday, and Friday. Course, 4l. 4s. Perpetual, 6l. 6s. These lectures include an exposition of the principles on which a knowledge of diseased structures is based, and an explanation of the various ways in which nature attempts the reparative process. The principal operations of surgery are performed on the dead body during the course, and diseases, accidents, and injuries are illustrated by drawings, casts, recent specimens and morbid preparations, including the extensive series presented to the hospital by Sir B. C. Brodie, Bart., and C. Hawkins.

Morbid Anatomy: Instruction in morbid anatomy is given by the physicians and surgeons in the pathological theatre of the hospital as opportunities occur.

Chemistry: Dr. H. M. Noad. Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday. Course, 6l. 6s. Perpetual, 8l. 8s. These lectures will be divided into three sections. The first will be occupied with a full consideration of the fundamental doctrines of chemistry. In the second division the materials of the inorganic world, and their most important combinations, will be examined. The third division will be devoted to as extensive an inquiry into the important department of animal and vegetable chemistry as the limits of the course will allow.

WINTER SESSION.

Scale of fees for practical instruction (to be paid on entrance), including the use of apparatus and materials, excepting platinum and silver, and their salts, which are found by the student. For every day in the week, from Oct. 1st to March 31st, 18l. 18s.; for four days in the week, 15l. 15s.; for three days, 12l. 12s.; for two days, 10l. 10s.; for one day, 8l. 8s.; for one month (every day in the week), 5l. 5s.; for one month (four days in the week), 4l. 4s.; for one month (three days in the week), 3l. 3s.

SUMMER SESSION.

Practical Chemistry: A commodious laboratory has been arranged, and every requisite provided to carry into full effect the regulations of the Society of Apothecaries, which require "a specific course of instruction to be given in the laboratory, with an opportunity of personal manipulation in the ordinary processes of chemistry, and of acquiring a knowledge of the various re-agents for poisons." The course of instruction is comprised in thirty lessons of two hours each; to be attended during the first summer session. It commences May 2nd, and terminates about the middle of July. Hours of attendance from half-past nine till half-past eleven. Fee, including the use of materials, 4l. 4s.

Midwifery and Diseases of Women and Children: Dr. R. Lee. Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, 6l. 6s. These lectures comprehend—1. The Anatomy and Pathology of the unimpregnated Uterine System. 2. A description of the Gravid Uterus, and an account of the diseases of Pregnant Women. 3. The Symptoms and Treatment of all the varieties of Parturition. 4. The Diseases of Puerperal Women. 5. The Diseases of Infants. Numerous drawings and engravings, and an extensive museum, are used to illustrate these lectures. Pupils have ample opportunities of attending practical midwifery, a maternity department for the delivery of married lying-in women at their own homes being established at the hospital, under the superintendence of the Obstetric Physician.

Materia Medica: Dr. Barclay. Daily, except Saturday. Course, 5l. 5s. Perpetual, 6l. 6s. This course embraces a consideration of all substances which are used as medicines, arranged in groups according to their action as remedial agents. Their physical and chemical characters are described; the mode of detecting their adulterations illustrated by experiments; the principal operations of pharmacy explained; and a few lectures are devoted to the theory and art of prescribing.

Diagrams, drawings, and specimens are used for the purpose of illustration, and an extensive collection of Materia Medica is open for the use of the students.

Medical Jurisdiction: Dr. Fuller. Monday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday. Course, 3*l.* 3*s.* Perpetual, 4*l.* 4*s.* The application of the physiological, medical, and surgical sciences to the elucidation of legal investigations, including Toxicology, is taught in these lectures.

Botany: Mr. M. T. Masters. Daily, except Saturday. Session, 3*l.* 3*s.* Perpetual, 4*l.* 4*s.* This course comprises the Anatomy and Physiology of the Vegetable Kingdom, including an explanation of the natural and artificial system of classification. Fresh and dried specimens of plants, with numerous drawings, are used to illustrate these lectures, and herborising excursions are made during the session.

EXHIBITIONS AND PRIZES.

"The William Brown Exhibition" of 40*l.* per annum tenable for three years.—This Exhibition was founded by the Widow of William Brown, Esq., formerly a pupil of St. George's Hospital, to be competed for by perpetual Pupils, who have commenced their third but not completed their fourth Winter Session. It will be "bestowed on the Candidate who shall show the best general fitness for the exercise of the Medical Profession, and whose moral conduct shall in all respects be satisfactory." This Exhibition will be open for competition to gentlemen who enter as perpetual pupils, to the Surgeons or Physicians, in the session 1860-61.

The Thompson Medal: Mr. Sergeant Thompson, who was for many years Treasurer of St. George's Hospital, invested the sum of 100*l.*, three per cent. stock, in the names of trustees, for the purchase of a silver medal annually, to be awarded for the best clinical report of medical and surgical cases, observed in the hospital during the preceding twelve months. The reports are to be sealed up, a motto placed on the outside of the cover, and sent, with a sealed envelope, with a similar motto on the outside, and the name and address of the candidate inside, to the Secretary of the Medical School Committee, on or before the 31st July.

Sir Charles Clarke's Prize, for Good Conduct: Sir Charles Clarke, Bart., M.D., formerly a pupil of St. George's Hospital, left the sum of 200*l.* consols, the interest of which was to be awarded annually to the student of the hospital "who, by reason of his general good conduct during the preceding year, should be considered the most deserving."

A Prize of Twenty Guineas, for general proficiency in Medical Studies, will be offered to students who enter to the Hospital Medical School for the Session 1859-60. The examination will take place in July.

The following Prizes will be offered for the encouragement of Clinical study, under the following regulations;—

A Prize of Twenty Guineas, for Surgeons' Pupils in their second year.

A Prize of Twenty Guineas, for Physicians' Pupils in their second year.

1. Every pupil competing for one of the above prizes will be required to leave his Case Book with the Director of the Clinical Department on or before the 31st March. 2. The cases must be selected from the Surgical or the Medical Wards by the Surgeon's Pupil or Physicians' Pupil respectively. 3. The regularity of attendance in the Wards of the Hospital; the number of cases recorded; the care with which they are kept; and the nature of the observations on each case, will guide the Examiners in their decision. 4. Each candidate will be examined orally on his own cases.

Sir Benjamin Brodie's Clinical Prize in Surgery—Will be awarded to the Matriculated Surgeon's Pupil of the Hospital who shall have delivered to the surgeons the best report of not fewer than twelve surgical cases, which have occurred in the hospital during the preceding twelve months, each case being accompanied with notes illustrative of its pathology, diagnosis, and treatment. The same regulations are to be followed as in the case of "The Thompson Medal Prize," but the Reports are to be sent to the Junior Surgeon, on or before the 31st of July.

The Lewis Powell Clinical Prize in Medicine—Will be awarded to the Matriculated Physician's Pupil of the Hospital who shall produce the best Report of not fewer than twelve Medical cases which have occurred in the hospital during the preceding twelve months. The same regulations as above are to be followed, but the Reports sent to the Secretary of the Medical School Committee on or before the 31st of July.

Curator of the Pathological Museum: A curator is appointed annually by the weekly board, on the recommendation of the Medical School Council, with a salary of 50*l.* per annum.

Registrars: Two registrars are appointed annually by the weekly board, on the recommendation of the Medical School Council, each with a salary of 20*l.* per annum.

Regulations respecting Students: A register is kept, in which the names of all Students in St. George's Hospital Medical School, the lectures which they attend, and the certificates which they obtain must be registered. The fee for registration is one guinea. Students who wish to be matriculated students are required to receive the entire medical education ordered by the College of Surgeons and Society of Apothecaries, in the Medical School of the Hospital. The attention of students is particularly directed to the following regulations:—1. Every student must, at the beginning of every session, take out tickets for the lectures which he proposes to attend from the Treasurer of the Hospital School, Mr. Pollock, or, in his absence, from the Apothecary of the Hospital. The tickets must be taken to the respective lecturers, for their signatures, before they can be registered at the College or Hall. 2. All certificates of lectures must be obtained from

Mr. Athol Johnson. 3. Towards the close of the winter and summer sessions, certificates of attendance on the lectures will be prepared for those students who are entitled to them, signed by the respective lecturers of the Hospital Medical School. 4. Students are particularly requested to give their schedules to Mr. A. Johnson as soon as they procure them from the College and the Hall, and to apply for their certificates at the conclusion of each session. 5. Students, after having procured their certificates of attendances on the Medical or Surgical Practice of the Hospital, and on Clinical lectures at the end of each session, are to return their schedules to Mr. A. Johnson. 6. Certificates will not be granted to those students who neglect to comply with these regulations.

* * * Further information may be obtained from Mr. Pollock, the Treasurer of the School, from any of the lecturers, or from Mr. Hamerton, the Apothecary of the hospital.

Some of the lecturers and other gentlemen connected with the hospital receive students to reside with them.

GROSVENOR-PLACE SCHOOL OF ANATOMY AND MEDICINE.

Adjoining St. George's Hospital, Hyde-park Corner. S.W.

This school was established in 1830, to afford the students attending the practice of St. George's Hospital the opportunity of studying anatomy in premises contiguous to the hospital. The original plan was gradually extended, till all the departments of a recognised medical school were completed. Several hundreds of medical men have now been educated within its walls, and the present teachers are anxious to carry out more thoroughly the practical character of the instruction which has commanded for this school so large an amount of success. In order to do this effectively, arrangements have been made to enable each lecturer to ascertain the progress his pupil is making in his studies. Every opportunity is also taken by the lecturers to bring before the student cases, preparations, and specimens, in order that he may acquire a practical knowledge of his profession. It has often been a matter of regret, that medical students should so frequently find it necessary to have recourse to routine preparations before their final examinations. In order to prevent any necessity for extra-academical teaching, classes are formed of those students who are about to undergo their examinations. These classes are regularly conducted by the various lecturers, who endeavour to blend the demonstrative and tutorial with the professional character of their teaching.

Fee for Lectures : General fee to all the Lectures required by the Universities of London and St. Andrew's, the Royal College of Surgeons of England, and the Society of Apothecaries, 35 guineas.

Fee to all the Lectures required by any one of the above Boards, 30 guineas.

Fee to Lectures and Hospital Practice : Gentlemen attending this School can attend conveniently, either St. George's Hospital, which adjoins the School, or at University College, King's College, Charing-Cross, the Middlesex or the Westminster Hospitals. The fees to all the lectures at this School, and to the Medical and Surgical Practice qualifying for both College and Hall, are as follow :—

The following course of lectures are delivered during the Winter and Summer Sessions, and qualify for examination at the University of London, the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons, the Apothecaries' Society, and the Army, Navy, and East India Medical Boards.

WINTER SESSION.

Anatomy and Physiology : Dr. B. W. Richardson. Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday, at three p.m. Single course, 5*l.* 5*s.*; perpetual, 6*l.* 6*s.*

Descriptive and Surgical Anatomy : Dr. G. B. Halford and Mr. Lawton. Daily, except Saturday at nine a.m. Single course, 6*l.* 6*s.*; perpetual, 8*l.* 8*s.*

Practical Anatomy : Dr. Arlidge. Daily, from eleven till four.

Principles and Practice of Medicine : Drs. Cockle and Leared. Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, at five p.m. Single course, 5*l.* 5*s.*; perpetual, 6*l.* 6*s.*

The Principles and Practice of Surgery : Messrs. T. Spencer Wells and W. Adams. Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, at four p.m. Single course, 5*l.* 5*s.*; perpetual, 6*l.* 6*s.*

Chemistry : Dr. Thudichum. Tuesday and Thursday, at eleven a.m. Single Course, 5*l.* 5*s.*; perpetual, 6*l.* 6*s.*

History of Medicine: Dr. Henry. Wednesday, at four p.m.

Military Surgery, including the Nature and Treatment of Gunshot Wounds: Mr. G. E. Blenkins. Tuesday and Thursday, at three p.m., for three months. This course will comprise the consideration of the diseases of climates to which soldiers are liable, the sanitary arrangements of camps and barracks, examination of recruits, disabilities, and invaliding, feigned maladies—in short, all that relates to the special duties of the military medical man, or the health and well-being of soldiers, in camp or in quarters.

SUMMER SESSION.

Botany: Dr. Bainbridge. Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, at nine a.m. The course will be illustrated by fresh specimens; demonstrations with the microscope will be given, and occasional excursions will be made with the class. Single course, 3*l.* 3*s.*; perpetual, 4*l.* 4*s.*

Practical Chemistry: Dr. Thudichum. Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday, at half-past nine a.m. In this course the student performs all the experiments necessary for his instruction in Analytical and Toxicological Chemistry, under the superintendence of the lecturer. Fee for the course, 3*l.* 3*s.*

Materia Medica and Therapeutics: Drs. Leared and Bainbridge. Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, at eight a.m. Single course, 3*l.* 3*s.*; perpetual, 4*l.* 4*s.* This course will be illustrated by an extensive series of diagrams, and a complete museum, to which the student will have constant access.

Midwifery and Diseases of Women and Children: Dr. Bloxam and Mr. W. Bloxam. Daily, except Saturday, at a quarter to three p.m. Single course, 3*l.* 3*s.*; perpetual, 4*l.* 4*s.* Pupils of this class will be provided with cases when qualified to attend them.

Medical Jurisprudence: Dr. Francis Webb. Daily, except Saturday, at twelve noon. Single course, 3*l.* 3*s.*; perpetual, 4*l.* 4*s.* This course is practically illustrated throughout by tables, physiological and chemical experiments, and dissections.

Comparative Anatomy and Zoology: Mr. Hulme. Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday, at ten a.m. Single course, 2*l.* 2*s.*; perpetual, 3*l.* 3*s.* The lectures will be illustrated by diagrams and specimens. The course is such as is required by the Army and Navy Boards, by the College of Surgeons for the Fellowship Examination, and by the University of London.

The physicians and surgeons connected with the school have made arrangements for their pupils to attend the practice of the various institutions with which they are connected.

The Museum of Anatomy, Pathological Anatomy, and Materia Medica are constantly open to the student for the purposes of study, and contain every specimen necessary for his assistance.

Demonstrations with the Microscope are regularly given in the courses of lectures on anatomy, physiology, pathology, and botany.

Pupils desirous of cultivating the important art of organic analysis will have an opportunity of doing so, under the direction of the lecturer on chemistry.

The following Prizes and Certificates of Honour will be awarded at the end of the session; viz.—

A Gold Medal, for general proficiency.

A Prize of Ten Guineas, to be given by T. Scott, Esq., M.R.C.P.Ed., of the Indian army (late a pupil of the school), for an Essay, the Subject of which is to be chosen by the Faculty, and announced in October. This prize is open for competition to all unpassed students of the school.

The Lecturers' Prize of Ten Guineas, for competition by students of first year only.

Certificates of Honour, for distinguished position in the individual classes.

The Dissecting Rooms are open daily from eight a.m. till dusk. Dr. Arlidge will attend in the rooms four hours daily, to superintend the dissections and assist the students, instituting frequent examinations, in order to assure a thorough practical knowledge of Anatomy.

Practical Lessons in Physical Diagnosis are given by Drs. Cockle and Richardson, and in the Examination of the Urine, by Dr. Thudichum, constituting a distinct course on physical diagnosis.

Some of the lecturers receive private pupils to reside with them, whose studies they superintend.

Any further particulars may be obtained by application to Dr. B. W. Richardson, 12, Hindes-street, Manchester-square, W.; at the school, 1, Grosvenor-place; or at the private residences of any of the lecturers.

GUY'S HOSPITAL.

St. Thomas's-street, Borough. S.E.

Founded A.D. 1722, by Thomas Guy, during his lifetime.

Phys., Drs. G. H. Barlow, O. Rees, and W. W. Gull.—Asst.-Phys., Drs. S. O. Habershon, S. Wilks, and F. W. Pavy.—Surgs., Messrs. E. Cock, J. Hilton, and J. Birkett.—Asst.-Surgs., Messrs. A. Poland, C. Forster, and T. Bryant.—Obst. Phys., Drs. H. Oldham, and J. B. Hicks.—Surg.-Dentists, Messrs. T. Bell and J. Salter.—Surg. Eye Infirmary, Mr. J. F. France.—Apoth., Mr. J. Stocker.

Children are admitted into the general wards, where special accommodation is provided for their reception. The eye infirmary, which pupils attend, is under the care of the ophthalmic surgeon; attendance, Mondays and Thursdays, at twelve. There is also a lying-in charity, to which the pupils have access, and wards appropriated to female diseases, under the care of the physicians-accoucheur, by whom clinical lectures and instructions are given. The library, reading-room, museums of human and comparative anatomy, anatomical model-room, models of cutaneous diseases (by Mr. Towne, modeller), are open to the students daily. The specimens in these museums, with the drawings and diagrams, in all amount to upwards of 15,000. Pupils entering to the hospital practice are expected to produce testimonials as to moral character and general acquirements. Connected with the institutions are Physical and Clinical Societies.

This hospital contains nearly 550 beds, and has, in addition to the ordinary medical and surgical, ophthalmic and obstetric wards.

Upwards of 40,000 out-patients are annually relieved.

Guy's Hospital Lying-in Charity.—It is the object of this charity to provide attendance during confinement for poor women, living within a distance of two miles from the hospital, at their own homes.

Cards are issued, beforehand, on application, to persons who are proper objects for relief, and are to be presented, when labour is coming on, at the hospital, when provision will be immediately made for attendance on the case.

The charity is under the general direction and superintendence of the obstetric physicians of the hospital, who are aided in carrying on the business of the charity by the resident obstetric clerks, and by the pupils on the midwifery list.

Two books are to be kept in this department of the hospital—(1) A record of all persons to whom cards shall have been issued entitling them to the benefits of the charity. (2) A register of all cases actually attended from the charity: such register to contain all important details respecting the several cases.

Average number of women delivered by the agency of this charity, nearly 1800 per annum.

WINTER SESSION.

Medicine: Drs. Rees and Gull. Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, at half-past three.

Clinical Medicine: Drs. Barlow, Rees, and Gull.

Surgery: Messrs. Hilton and Birkett. Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays, at half-past three.

Clinical Surgery: Messrs. Cock, Hilton, and Birkett.

Anatomy, Descriptive and Surgical: Messrs. Poland and C. Forster. Daily, except Wednesdays, at nine.

Physiology and Microscopic Anatomy: Dr. Pavy. Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays, at a quarter past twelve.

Demonstrations on Anatomy: Messrs. Durham and Moxon. Daily.

Demonstrations on Morbid Anatomy: Dr. Wilks. Daily, at half-past two.

Clinical Lectures on Midwifery and Diseases of Women: Drs. Oldham and Hicks.

Chemistry: Dr. A. S. Taylor. Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays, at eleven.

Dental Surgery: Mr. Salter.

Experimental Philosophy: Mr. Durham. Wednesdays, at eleven.

SUMMER SESSION.

Demonstrations on Cutaneous Diseases: Dr. Gull. Mondays, at one.

Materia Medica: Dr. Habershon. Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays, at three.

Clinical Medicine: Drs. Habershon, Wilks, and Pavy.

Clinical Surgery: Messrs. Poland, Forster, and Bryant.

Midwifery: Drs. Lever and Oldham. Daily, at a quarter to nine.

Medical Jurisprudence: Dr. A. S. Taylor. Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays, at ten.

Ophthalmic Surgery: Mr. France. Wednesdays and Fridays, at three.

Pathology: Dr. Wilks. Mondays, at twelve.

Dental Surgery: Mr. Salter.

Comparative Anatomy: Dr. Pavy. Wednesdays and Fridays, at twelve.

Botany: Mr. Johnson. Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays, at half-past eleven.

Practical Chemistry: Dr. Odling. Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, at ten to one.

Pupils' Physical Society: Saturdays, alternate, at seven in the evening.

The Clinical Wards open the first week in October and the first week in May.

Lying-in Charity: Drs. Oldham and Hicks.

Curator of the Museum: Dr. Wilks.

REGISTRARS: Medical, Dr. Whitley; Surgical, Mr. Bryant.

Mr. Maumder will assist Pupils in their studies.

The Library, Museums, and Model-rooms are open daily to the students, from nine o'clock a.m. till five o'clock p.m.

Gentlemen desirous of becoming students must produce satisfactory testimony as to their education and conduct; they are required to pay 40*l.* for the first year, 40*l.* for the second year, and 10*l.* for every succeeding year of attendance. One payment of 100*l.* entitles a student to a perpetual ticket. The payment for the year admits to the lectures, practice, and all the privileges of a student for that year only.

Clinical clerks, dressers, ward clerks, dressers' reporters, obstetric residents, and dressers in the eye ward, are selected according to merit from those students who have attended a second year. A resident house-surgeon is appointed, every six months, from those students who have obtained the college diploma. Every student will be required to sign an engagement to conform to the rules and regulations for the internal management of the hospital. The privileges of a student will be withdrawn in the event of neglect or misconduct. Certificates will not be given for lectures and practice unless duly attended.

Mr. Stocker, Apothecary to Guy's Hospital, is authorized to enter the names of students.

Clinical Lectures are delivered at half-past one, on alternate Mondays, by Dr. Budd; alternate Tuesdays, by Dr. Johnson, at half past one; at half-past one, on alternate Thursdays, by Mr. W. Fergusson; alternate Fridays, by Mr. R. Partridge, at half-past one; every Saturday, at nine, a.m., by Dr. Beale. Perpetual admission to the Medical and Surgical Practice: for matriculated students, 31l. 10s.; not matriculated, 36l. 15s. Medical Practice: Three months, 6l. 6s.; six months, 10l. 10s.; eighteen months, 15l. 15s.; perpetual, 21l. Surgical Practice: Three months, 10l. 10s.; six months, 15l. 15s.; twenty-one months, 21l.; perpetual, 26l. 5s. The fees for matriculation amount to 4l. 15s. 6d., and must be paid on entrance.

The Fees for admission to all the classes required by the Hall and College, both for lectures and hospital attendance, amount to 93l. 9s.

The Fees for Perpetual Admission to every course (except the Class of Analytical Chemistry and Dental Surgery), including the hospital, amount to 108l. 3s.

It is strongly recommended that the fee for attendance on the Medical Tutor's Class for one year be added:—Fee to resident students, 2l. 2s.; to non-resident students, 3l. 3s.

The fees may be paid either in one sum on Matriculation, or in two equal sums, the one at the commencement of the first Winter or Summer Session, the other after the first Christmas vacation, not later than Jan. 21st, unless other arrangements are made at the time of entrance; but for full particulars respecting the payment of fees, see the King's College Calendar.

Analytical and Experimental Chemistry: Besides the chemical course and the summer class of Practical Chemistry, provision is made for those students who wish to become more minutely acquainted with certain subdivisions of the science. The class formed for this purpose is conducted in the laboratory, under the superintendence of the Professors and Demonstrator. By this means each student will be enabled to familiarize himself with the methods of analysis and research. Attention is particularly given to Analytical and Agricultural Chemistry, and processes of manufacturing art. The fees for admission to the Laboratory Class are for one month, 4l. 4s.; for three months, 10l. 10s.; for six months, 18l. 18s., &c.

Pathological Chemistry: Demonstrations on the Urine: Dr. Beale, Professor of Physiology, has a laboratory adjoining King's College Hospital, arranged especially for the prosecution of Microscopical researches in connexion with Pathology and Chemical Medicine. Fee, 5l. 5s. per month. He also gives practical demonstrations on the chemical and microscopical character of the urine. Fee for the course of demonstrations, 2l. 2s.

Natural Philosophy and Logic: Courses of Natural Philosophy and Logic, required by the Army Medical Board, will be given in the first part of each winter session.

SCHOLARSHIPS.

A. Warneford Scholarships: The sum of 200l. is set apart annually in consideration of 5000l. presented to the College by the late Rev. S. W. Warneford, LL.D., for Scholarships to students of this department: viz.—

Class I. "For the Encouragement of the Previous Education of Medical Students:" Two Scholarships of 25l. per annum, for three years, are open to all new matriculated medical students at the beginning of their first winter session. Candidates are examined in Divinity, the Classics, English History, Mathematics, and the Modern Languages. An equal number of marks are assigned to each subject.

N.B. In October, 1860, five extra scholarships of 25l. each, for two years, were given.

Class II. "For the Encouragement of Resident Medical Students:" One Scholarship of 25l. per annum, for two years, is open to all second year matriculated medical students, who, during at least six months of their first academical year, and the whole of their second academical year } shall have resided within the limits of the College, and shall produce certain specified certificates. Candidates are examined in divinity, and in the particulars of hospital practice.

B. College Scholarships: The Council of King's College give, at the close of each winter session, the following Scholarships to matriculated students of the medical department.

1. One of 40l. per annum, for two years, open to students of the third and fourth years.
2. One of 30l. per annum, for one year, open to students of the second year.
3. Three of 20l. per annum, for one year, open to students of the first year.

The subjects for these examinations, with the exception of certain specified portions of divinity (and Latin in the case of the Junior Scholarships), are wholly medical.

C. Daniell Scholarships: This Scholarship has been founded in honour of the late Professor Daniell, and is open to every student of the College, whether matriculated or occasional. It is of the annual value of 20l., tenable for two years; and is given every second year for the best series of researches in Chemistry made in the laboratory of the College since the last award.

D. Divinity Scholarships: This Scholarship of 30l. is also open to matriculated students of this department.

PRIZES.

A. Leathes' Prizes: The interest of 300l., bequeathed by the late P. H. Leathes, Esq., is applied in the purchase of a Bible and Prayer Book, as annual prizes to the two medical students who shall be found most worthy of the same, for their proficiency in religious knowledge, and for their general good conduct.

B. Warneford Prizes: The sum of 40l. is set apart annually in consideration of 1000l. presented to the College by the late Rev. S. W. Warneford, LL.D., and is expended in the purchase of medals and books, as prizes to the two medical students who shall most distinguish themselves at an examination consisting of questions in—1. Any two branches of Medical Science taught in the College, to be selected by the candidates. 2. The Holy Scriptures. 3. Butler's Analogy. The first prize is of the value of 25l., and the second of 15l.

Matriculated Students only can become candidates for the prizes A. and B., the examination for which takes place in October of each year.

C. Class Prizes and Certificates of Honour: Prizes are awarded annually for proficiency in the several subjects of Analogy, Physiology, Chemistry, Materia Medica, Surgery, Medicine, Midwifery, Botany, Forensic Medicine, Comparative Anatomy, and Practical Chemistry. These consist of books of the value of 3*l*.

Certificates of Honour are given to such students in each class as the respective Professors shall consider entitled to receive them.

Two Medical Clinical Prizes, one of 3*l*., for the winter session, and the other of 2*l*., for the summer session; and two surgical clinical prizes, of the same value, are given for the best examination upon the cases treated of in the hospital at the mid-day visit, and upon the subjects discussed in the clinical lectures delivered during the winter and summer sessions respectively.

All students, occasional as well as matriculated, will be admitted to contend for the class prizes C, under rules laid down as to the number of courses of lectures.

Associates of King's College: At the end of each winter session, the Professors lay before the Council the names of those medical students whom they recommend to be elected Associates of King's College, London, on account of general good conduct, regularity of attendance at the classes in the College and at the hospital, and professional acquirements.

Degrees: Students of this College are admitted to degrees in Arts and Medicine, and for the honours, exhibitions, and scholarships conferred by the Senate of the University of London.

By a regulation of the University of Edinburgh, three out of the four years of study required by that University for its degree of M.D. may be passed at King's College.

Residence of Students: Rooms are provided within the walls of the College for the residence of a limited number of matriculated students. The Censor of the College lives within its walls, and to him is committed by the Council the superintendence of all resident students under academical discipline.

Some of the Professors receive Pupils into their houses.

The Council have also sanctioned a limited number of medical gentlemen, residing in London or its immediate neighbourhood, to receive pupils into their houses.

The parents or guardians of students are earnestly requested to communicate with the Dean of the Medical Department before fixing their place of residence.

Dining Hall: There is a Dining Hall in the College, for the accommodation of the resident students, and for such other students as may desire to avail themselves of it.

The Sub-Dean of the Medical Department attends for two hours daily at the College, to see students and their friends. Any letter addressed to him at King's College, London, on the subject of this department, will receive early attention.

LONDON HOSPITAL.

Whitechapel. E.

Phys., Drs. Little, P. Fraser, and H. Davies.—Asst.-Phys., Drs. Parker, A. Clark, Ramskill, and Down.—Surgs., Messrs. Juke, Adams, and Curling.—Asst.-Surgs., Messrs. Critchett, Gowland, and Hutchinson.—Obst. Phys., Dr. Ramsbotham.—Asst. Obst. Phys., Dr. Barnes.—Surg.-Dentist, Mr. Barrett.

The London Hospital contains 445 beds, of which about 135 are allotted to medical, and 310 to surgical cases. Of these 310 beds upwards of 190 are exclusively appropriated to cases of accident. In the year 1859, 28,290 patients were relieved, including 3669 in-patients, and 24,621 out-patients. The accidents brought to the hospital during 1859, were 11,864.

The Winter Session commenced on Monday, October 1st, 1860, when the Introductory Lecture was delivered by Dr. Barnes, at 3 p.m. Lectures on Anatomy, Physiology, and General and Morbid Anatomy, Chemistry, Medicine, and Surgery, will be given.

The Summer Session will commence on the 1st of May, 1861. Lectures on Midwifery, Materia Medica, Ophthalmic Surgery, Botany, Forensic Medicine, Comparative Anatomy, Practical Chemistry, and Practical Histology, will be given.

General fee for attendance on the medical and surgical practice, qualifying for the Examinations at the London University, Royal College of Surgeons, and Apothecaries' Hall, and for perpetual attendance on all the lectures, 8*8l*. 4*s*., payable in two instalments of 44*l*. 2*s*. each, at the commencement of the two first winter sessions of attendance. Perpetual fee to the lectures alone, 50*l*. Students can make special entries to lectures or hospital practice.

WINTER SESSION.

Medicine: Dr. N. Parker. Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday, at 10.15 a.m. One session, 5*l*. 5*s*.; unlimited, 6*l*. 6*s*.

Surgery: Messrs. T. B. Curling and G. Critchett. Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, at three p.m.

The lectures on Ophthalmic Surgery will be delivered by Mr. Critchett, in the Summer Session. One session, 5*l*. 5*s*.; perpetual, 6*l*. 6*s*.

Descriptive and Surgical Anatomy: Mr. J. Adams. Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday, at a quarter-past nine a.m. One session, 5*l.* 5*s.*; unlimited, 8*l.* 8*s.*

Physiology and General and Morbid Anatomy: Dr. A. Clark. Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday, at four p.m. One session, 4*l.* 4*s.*; perpetual, 6*l.* 6*s.*

Practical Anatomy: Mr. John Cooper. Attendance in the dissecting-room daily, from ten to three. Demonstrations and Examinations. One session, 5*l.* 5*s.*; unlimited, 8*l.* 8*s.*

Chemistry: Dr. H. Letheby. The subjects of this course are Physics in their relation to Chemistry, and Chemistry proper. Alternately, the one or the other constitutes the chief subject of the course, so that those who are studying for the Universities may in the period of two winter sessions obtain a full course of lectures on each subject. The days of lecture will be Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, at half-past ten. One session, or unlimited, 7*l.* 7*s.*

Anatomy and Pathology of the Teeth, and Dental Surgery: Mr. H. J. Barrett. This course consists of twelve lectures, and will be delivered at seven p.m. One course, 2*l.* 2*s.*; free to students who have paid the general fee.

SUMMER SESSION.

Midwifery and Diseases of Women and Children: Dr. F. H. Ramsbotham. Gentlemen when qualified have opportunities of attending an unlimited number of cases of labour in the neighbourhood of the hospital. The days of lecture are Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday, at three p.m. One session, 4*l.* 4*s.*; unlimited, 6*l.* 6*s.*

Forensic Medicine: Dr. F. H. Ramsbotham and Dr. H. Letheby. Daily, except Saturday, at a quarter-past ten a.m. One course 3*l.* 3*s.*; two courses, or unlimited, 4*l.* 4*s.*

Materia Medica and General Therapeutics: Dr. H. Davies. Tuesday, Wednesday, and Friday, at a quarter-past nine a.m. One session, 3*l.* 3*s.*; unlimited, 4*l.* 4*s.* A cabinet of Materia Medica is open to students.

Ophthalmic Surgery: Mr. Critchett, Wednesday, at three p.m.

Practical Chemistry: Dr. H. Letheby. In this course the operations are conducted by the students, under the superintendence of Dr. Letheby, during May, June, and July, on Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday, at a quarter-past eleven a.m. Extra fee to students of the hospital, for apparatus, &c., one course, 2*l.* 2*s.*; others, 5*l.* 3*s.*

Botany: Dr. Chris. Dresser. Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, at half-past ten a.m. It is proposed to devote occasionally a day to herborizing excursions in the neighbourhood of London, and exercises in Practical Botany. One course, 3*l.* 3*s.*; two courses, or unlimited, 4*l.* 4*s.*

Practical Histology, and the Use of the Microscope in Diagnosis: Conducted by the students, under the superintendence of Dr. A. Clark, on Wednesday and Saturday, at twelve. A cabinet of Microscopic preparations is open to the students.

Comparative Anatomy: Mr. Langdon H. Down. This course consists of twelve lectures. Thursday, at nine a.m. One course, 2*l.* 2*s.*; Free to Students who have paid the general fee.

HOSPITAL PRACTICE.

One of the Physicians and one of the Surgeons attend daily; the former at eight o'clock a.m., or one p.m.: the latter at one p.m.: and one of the Assistant-Physicians and one of the Assistant-Surgeons, daily at one p.m. Casualties are admitted at all hours by the House-Surgeons and Dressers. Surgical operations, except in cases of emergency, are performed on Thursdays, at half-past one p.m. Dr. Ramsbotham attends on Tuesday and Friday, at two p.m.; and Dr. Barnes on Wednesday and Saturday, at one p.m., for the obstetric out-patients' department.

Mr. Barrett gives practical instruction in Dental operations, on Tuesday and Friday, at eight a.m.

Clinical Lectures are given by the Physicians and Surgeons, and by Assistant Obstetric Physician. Practical classes on Auscultation and Percussion.

Practical Morbid Anatomy: The post-mortem examinations take place at two p.m., and are superintended by Dr. Clark.

Museum and Library: The Anatomical Museum is open daily to the students, from eleven a.m. to two p.m. Curator: Dr. Clark. The reading-room is open daily from ten a.m. to four p.m. Gentlemen who have entered to the medical and surgical practice, or to two or more courses of lectures, will be admitted without any fee to the reading-room; and to the privileges of the library, on depositing 1*l.*, to be returned at the termination of the period of study at the hospital.

London Hospital Collegiate Society: Meetings are held on alternate Thursdays, at half-past seven p.m., for the reading of papers and for discussions, the first meeting taking place on the second Thursday in October.

PRIZES AND APPOINTMENTS.

The following Prizes and Appointments are conferred as Rewards of Merit on qualified Pupils of the Hospital and School ;—

1. Two Gold Medals are annually awarded by the Governors to Students attending the Medical and Surgical Practice, who shall have most distinguished themselves in the performance of their duties at the Hospital.

2. A Resident Medical Officer, who resides and boards in the Hospital, and receives 75*l.*, is appointed for twelve months by the Committee of the Hospital. The Resident Medical Officer is eligible for re-election for the further period of twelve months, and then receives 100*l.* In the absence of the Physicians and Assistant Physicians, the Resident Medical Officer has the general superintendence of the Patients in the Medical Wards.

3. Two House Surgeons are elected every three months, without any additional expense ; they reside in the Hospital, and are provided with commons. The House Surgeons are eligible for re-election for a further period of three months. In the absence of the Surgeons and Assistant Surgeons, the House Surgeons have the general superintendence of the surgical department of the Hospital.

4. A Resident Accoucheur is appointed for six months, free of all expense, and is provided with residence and board. He is the Clinical Assistant to the Obstetric Physician and the Assistant Obstetric Physician, and, under their superintendence, assists in the care of the In and Out Obstetric Patients, and in the conduct of the Maternity Department and the Vaccination Department.

5. An Assistant Medical Officer is chosen from among the Medical Pupils. He remains in the Hospital day and night for a month, and is provided with commons.

6. Two Surgical Dressing Pupils, in rotation, remain in the Hospital day and night for a week, and are provided with commons.

7. Additional Dresserships for twelve months are given annually to Pupils of the School, each Pupil having previously the privilege of Dressing the Out-patients for One Year.

8. An Assistant Dentist is elected for three months, without any additional expense.

9. Post-mortem Clerks are selected from among the Students, according to merit.

10. Two Prosectors are selected annually from among those Students who have passed the Preliminary Anatomical Examination at the College of Surgeons ; their duties are confined to the Dissecting Room, and they receive a gratuity for their services.

11. Special Certificates are given to those gentlemen who have faithfully performed their various duties.

12. In the selection of candidates preference is given to those Pupils who are most distinguished, by general good conduct, by ability, and by industry.

LONDON SCHOOL OF DENTAL SURGERY.

32, Soho Square. W.

(For Regulations of the Royal College of Surgeons relating to Professional Education of Candidates for examination in Dental Surgery, see p. 238.)

It has been felt by the founders of the London School of Dental Surgery, that the opportunities afforded to the Student at the existing Medical Schools and General Hospitals, for the acquirement of a knowledge of those subjects embraced in an ordinary Medical education, could not be equalled by a special School. While, on the other hand, the opportunities offered by a special School in connexion with a Dental Hospital for the instruction of Pupils on the subjects which specially relate to Dental Surgery, would be much greater than could be secured in an institution devoted to general Medical education. Hence in the formation of the London School of Dental Surgery, provision has been made for teaching those branches of science only which pertain specially to Dentistry ; and the School has been organized in connexion with the Dental Hospital of London, in order that practical instruction in subjects specially pertaining to Dental Surgery may be accomplished by systematic teaching, under the conditions enjoined by the Curriculum.

The Hospital was opened on Monday, October 3rd, 1859, for the reception of Pupils, who will receive practical instruction from the Dental Officers, and when sufficiently advanced, will themselves be intrusted with the treatment of cases.

The Lectures on the subjects specially pertaining to Dental Surgery (excepting those upon Mechanical Dentistry) will be given during the Summer Medical Session, in order that Students may be at liberty to attend at any of the existing Medical Schools those lectures enjoined by the Curriculum upon subjects which are not peculiar to Dental Surgery.

Dental Anatomy and Physiology (Human and Comparative): Mr. G. A. Ibbetson, F.R.C.S., F.G.S., Thursdays, at 8 o'clock a.m. during the months of May, June, and July. This course will be illustrated by Preparations, Diagrams, and Microscopic Examinations.

Dental Surgery and Pathology: Mr. Samuel Cartwright, Jun., F.R.C.S., Tuesdays, at 8 o'clock a.m., during the months of May, June, and July. Recent Specimens, Preparations, Models, Drawings, &c., will be used to illustrate the lectures.

Mechanical Dentistry: Mr. Robert Hepburn, Wednesdays at 7 o'clock p.m., during the months of October, November, and December. The various processes incidental to Mechanical Dentistry will each in turn be practically illustrated.

Metallurgy in its Application to Dental Purposes: Mr. G. H. Makins, M.R.C.S., F.C.S., Wednesdays at half-past 6 o'clock p.m., during the months of May, June, and July. The Metallic Preparations more particularly relating to Dental practice will be fully treated of both by Metallurgic and Chemical processes.

General Fee for the Special Lectures required by the Curriculum: Two courses on Dental Anatomy, Dental Surgery, and Mechanical Dentistry, and one course of Metallurgy, 15l. 15s.

Fees to Single Courses: Dental Anatomy and Physiology, one course, 3l. 3s.; two courses, 5l. 5s.; Dental Surgery, one course, 3l. 3s., two courses, 5l. 5s.; Dental Mechanics, one course, 3l. 3s., two courses, 5l. 5s.; Metallurgy, one course, 3l. 3s., two courses, 5l. 5s.

DENTAL HOSPITAL.

Dental Officers: Mr. Ibbetson, Monday, 9 a.m.; Mr. Samuel Cartwright, Jun., Tuesday, 9 a.m.; Mr. John Tomes, Wednesday, 9 a.m.; Mr. Thomas Underwood, Thursday, 9 a.m.; Mr. Charles Rogers, Friday, 9 a.m.; Mr. Robert Hepburn, Saturday, 9 a.m. Fee for the two years' attendance required by the Curriculum, 15l. 15s.

Further particulars may be obtained on application to the Dental Officer of the day, or the Assistant Secretary.

ST. MARY'S HOSPITAL.

Regist.*, Dr. Broadbent.—Surg. Regist., Mr. Walter J. Coulson.

The Session was opened on October 1st, at eight o'clock p.m., with an Introductory Address by Dr. Tyler Smith.

It is a distinctive characteristic of St. Mary's Hospital that the following Medical appointments are annually conferred upon the Pupils, free of every expense. The advantages arising from five of these appointments far exceed in money value as many Scholarships of 50l. each. There are Four Resident Medical Officers who board (free of all expense) in the hospital, three of whom are appointed for twelve months; and one (the Obstetric Officer), who is appointed for six months. There are also four Non-resident Medical Officers. Clinical Clerks and Dressers are selected from the best qualified Students. All the above offices are awarded, after competition, preference being given to the qualified perpetual pupils of the hospital.

The above general entrance-fees may be paid in instalments, by arrangement with the Dean of the School, Mr. Gascoyen.

PRIZES AND CERTIFICATES OF HONOUR.

A Scholarship in Anatomy: of the annual value of 25*l.* (the holder of which will be styled Assistant Demonstrator, and assist in the teaching of Practical Anatomy) will be awarded to the best qualified student.

Examinations in the various classes will take place at the termination of the session; but, with the exception of Comparative Anatomy, and Natural Philosophy, prizes will not, as heretofore, be awarded for single courses; the other classes will be grouped in accordance with the curriculum laid down for students of the first, second, and third year; the object being to ensure the general proficiency of the students of each year in their respective subjects of study.

Practical Anatomy: A prize will be awarded to the student who shall make the best anatomical preparation; such preparation to become the property of the school.

HOSPITAL PRACTICE.

The hospital contains more than 150 beds, 65 of which are devoted to medical and the rest to surgical cases. This division includes a ward appropriated to the diseases of women, and also beds for ophthalmic and aural cases.

The in-patients are visited daily by the physicians and surgeons at a quarter-past one.

Lectures on Clinical Medicine will be regularly delivered by Dr. Alderson, and on Clinical Surgery by Mr. Ure, and occasionally by the other medical officers in their respective departments.

The out-patients are seen daily at half-past twelve by the physicians and surgeons in charge of them.

The Physician-Accoucheur attends on Tuesdays and Saturdays at half-past one o'clock. The Ophthalmic Surgeon attends on Tuesdays and Saturdays at half-past one o'clock. The Aural Surgeon attends on Mondays and Thursdays at half-past one o'clock. The Surgeon-Dentist attends on Mondays and Thursdays at half-past nine o'clock.

Post-mortem Examinations are made by Dr. Broadbent at two o'clock.

A Maternity Department is attached to the hospital for the delivery of poor married women at their own homes (288 were attended during the past year). Pupils are allowed to attend cases, under the direction of the Resident Obstetric Officer.

This fee admits the students to the Practical Chemistry course, and to all other lectures delivered in the College except Comparative Anatomy.

Instruction in Pharmacy, in the drug-room, without dispensing; for three months, 4*l.* 4*s.*

Museum: Curator, Mr. Flower. The museum is open to students daily.

Library: Admission to the library and reading-room is included in the fees paid by general students. Occasionally students, who desire to make use of the library, may do so on payment of 1*l.* 1*s.* The Library contains an extensive collection of medical works, with the various medical periodicals. The books are allowed to be taken out from the library under proper regulations.

A Medical Society is established, under regulations sanctioned by the governing body of the hospital. A prize is given by the Society for the best paper of the Session.

Written Periodical Class Examinations will be held in the course of each Session, and must be attended by all general Students.

To those Students who have most distinguished themselves at the above, in all the subjects of study embraced in the session, Prizes of several guineas will be awarded. Certificates of Honour will also be given for proficiency in each of the classes.

Clayton Prize: An Annual Prize of the value of Three Guineas, given by Oscar Clayton, Esq. will be awarded for proficiency in Comparative Anatomy.

The Governor's Prize of Twenty Guineas will be awarded to the Student who, having distinguished himself generally by conduct and acquirements in the school, shall present the best joint Clinical Reports in Medicine and Surgery.

The authorities of the hospital have made arrangements by which the in-patient clinical clerk and dresser of the day, and also a limited number of general students, under certain regulations, have liberty to dine with the resident officers at the Board-room table. Some of the medical officers receive resident pupils into their houses.

Parents and guardians who propose sending pupils to the hospital may communicate with the Dean, or with Mr. De Morgan, treasurer to the school, at the hospital, daily from one to three o'clock. Information may also be obtained on application to any of the lecturers, or to Mr. Plaskitt, the resident medical officer.

All students on entering will be required to sign an undertaking to conform to the laws relating to the discipline of the hospital and school.

From recent enlargements the hospital now contains upwards of 300 beds, of which 185 are for surgical, and 120 for medical cases. The cancer establishment receives thirty-three patients. Wards are specially appropriated to cases of uterine disease and of syphilis.

Clinical Clerks and Dressers: For securing a complete system of Clinical Instruction, and for more perfectly carrying into effect the Regulations of the College and Hall, the General Students will be required to perform the duties of Medical Clinical Clerks for one-half each Session, and of Surgical Dressers during the other half. First-year Students will not enter on their Clinical Studies until the first Summer Session, when they will be required to perform the duties of Clinical Clerks and Dressers in the Out-patient department under the superintendence of the Assistant-Physicians and the Assistant-Surgeons. The Out-patients' Dressers will thus have the opportunity of practising Bandaging and other minor Surgical operations, and the Clinical Clerks will be prepared to undertake duties of Clerks to the Physicians. Certificates of attendance on Hospital Practice will only be granted to those General Students who have complied with these regulations.

The House-Surgeons and Clinical Assistants are elected from the students who have satisfactorily discharged the duties of Clinical Clerks and dressers. The Governors, for the encouragement of Clinical Study in the Hospital, have instituted three hospital Assistantships, to be awarded on competition to students who have completed their education in the school, whose duty will be to observe and record the cases in the hospital, and generally in the absence of the Medical Officers to carry out the treatment directed by them. They are provided with board and residence in the hospital free of expense.

The in-patients are visited daily at one o'clock. Surgical operations are performed on Wednesday, at one.

Clinical lectures are delivered twice a week by the physicians and surgeons.

The medical and surgical out-patients are attended on four mornings in the week by the assistant-physicians and assistant-surgeons, and every opportunity is taken to render this department available to the pupils for the ready investigation of disease.

Midwifery and the Diseases of Women and Children: Upwards of 850 cases of labour were attended under the direction of the physician-accoucheur during the last year, and the students are at all times furnished with an ample supply of cases under his superintendence. Out-patients with an uterine and infantile diseases are seen by the physician-accoucheur on Wednesdays and Saturdays at twelve o'clock.

Ophthalmic Department: Patients with diseases of the eye are attended by Mr. Flower on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, at half-past twelve o'clock.

Dental Surgery: Pupils receive instruction on diseases of the teeth, and the operations connected with them, on Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays, at nine o'clock. Fee for occasional pupils, Five Guineas. For those who desire to comply with the regulations of the Royal College of Surgeons in respect to the Examination for Certificates in Dental Surgery, the general fee will be Forty Guineas. This sum may be paid by instalments of Twenty-five Guineas at the beginning of the First Session, and Fifteen Guineas at the beginning of the Second Session. A special course of Lectures on the Anatomy of the Head and Neck will be instituted in connexion with these Regulations.

Post-mortem Examinations are performed under the superintendence of Dr. Murchison, at two o'clock.

ST. THOMAS'S HOSPITAL,

St. Thomas's-street, Borough. S.E.

Formerly an almshouse, built by Richard Prior, of Bermondsey, in the year 1213, but having been destroyed by fire, was rebuilt in 1215, by Peter de Rupibus, Bishop of Winchester. In 1552, Edward VI. endowed and incorporated St. Thomas's for the reception of the sick, infirm, and lame.

Gentlemen proposing to become students at St. Thomas's Hospital are required to produce satisfactory testimonials of moral character and general education.

The Admission Fee to hospital practice and all the lectures is 40*l.* for the first year, a similar sum for the second, and 10*l.* for each succeeding year; or 90*l.* at one payment for unlimited attendance.

Special Entries may be made to any course of lectures, or to the hospital practice.

A Chemical Laboratory, under the direction of the chemical lecturer, is provided for students.

Subject to certain regulations, the students have access to the library and to the use of a microscope; as also to the museums of anatomy and pathology, of materia medica, and of chemistry and mineralogy.

Examinations are held at the end of the winter and summer sessions.

The Winter Session will terminate at the end of March—The Summer Session will commence on May 1st, and terminate at the end of July.

Pathological Anatomy: Dr. Jenner. Tuesday, Wednesday, and Friday, from nine to ten a.m. Fee, 3*l.*; perpetual, 4*l.*

Medical Jurisprudence: Dr. Harley. Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Fridays, at ten a.m. Fee, 3*l.*; perpetual, 4*l.* 4*s.*

Practical Chemistry: Dr. Williamson, Mondays, Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Thursdays, and Fridays, from eleven to twelve. Fee, 4*l.* This payment includes all costs of materials, apparatus, &c.

Palæo-Zoology: Dr. Grant. Daily, except Saturdays, from three to four; commencing on the first Monday of May. Fee, 1*l.*

Ophthalmic Medicine and Surgery: Mr. Wharton Jones. Tuesdays and Thursdays. Fee, 2*l.*

N.B. Gentlemen who propose to attend this course are requested to enter their names before the 1st of May, in order that the most convenient hour of lecture may be determined on.

Senior and Junior Classes : Fee for the Junior Class, 2*l.* ; for the Senior Class, 3*l.* ; for any single part, 2*l.* ; for perpetual admission, 6*l.* Junior Class, daily, except Saturday, from four to five, until the end of April. Senior Class, daily, except Saturdays, from four to five.

Practical Instruction in Operative Surgery : Mr. John Marshall. Daily, according to the facilities obtainable, from seven to nine a.m., beginning in April or May. Fee, including expenses for articulated students of class of anatomy, 5*l.* 5*s.* ; for others, 7*l.* 7*s.*

WINTER AND SUMMER TERM.

Clinical Instruction : Clinical Instruction is given by the Physicians and Surgeons of the Hospital in their daily visits, and also by means of Lectures and Examinations upon the cases. Payment included in the Hospital Fee.

Clinical Medicine : Lectures by Drs. Walshe and Garrod, each once a fortnight ; twice a week by Dr. Jenner, the Professor of Clinical Medicine ; and once a week by Dr. Murphy.

Clinical Surgery : Lectures twice a week by Mr. Quain, and once a fortnight by Mr. Erichsen.

Analytical Chemistry : Dr. Williamson. The instruction in this department is conducted in a spacious Laboratory with complete arrangements for the pursuit of all branches of Chemical Investigation by the Senior Pupils, and for the practical study of Elementary Analysis by those less advanced. The Laboratory is open daily, from nine a.m. to four p.m. from the 1st of October until the end of July, with a short recess at Christmas and Easter. The Professor is aided in the direction of the Students by Assistants. Fee, exclusive of the expense of materials, 25 guineas ; for three months, 10 guineas ; for a single month, 4 guineas.

Philosophy of the Mind and Logic : Rev. J. Hoppus, Ph.D.

At the end of every Session there will be awarded a "Filliter" Exhibition of 30*l.*, as a prize for proficiency in Pathological Anatomy, and a "Longridge" Exhibition of 40*l.*, as a Prize for General Proficiency in Medicine and Surgery.

Atkinson Morley Surgical Scholarships—"For the promotion of the Study of Surgery amongst the Students of University College, London." A Scholarship will be awarded every year. Each Scholarship will be of the annual amount of 45*l.* ; it will be tenable for three years ; and will be payable on the day of election, and on the 16th of June in each of the two following years. The election will take place on the 16th day of June in every year, or the day preceding when the 16th falls on a Sunday ; and will be made by the Council after receiving the Report of Examiners.

According to the directions of the will of Mr. Morley, the founder of these Scholarships, elections for these Scholarships will take place on the sixteenth day of June in each year ; and persons to be eligible as candidates must have been of approved good conduct in the College, and Students in the classes of the Faculty of Medicine of the College for not less than three years nor more than five years, such years of studentship to be immediately preceding each such election or appointment, and they may be deemed by the Faculty of Medicine in the College to possess a competent knowledge of Anatomy, Chemistry, Physiology, and Medicine. Among such eligible candidates such one student will be elected in each year, who, upon examination, to be conducted in such manner as the Council of the College shall from time to time direct, shall be found to possess the greatest proficiency in the theory and practice of Surgery.

HOSPITAL PRACTICE.

The Physicians' and Surgeons' visits are made daily at one and two o'clock.

Obstetric Department : Dr. Murphy attends three times a week to see patients affected with uterine disease, and children ; and on alternate days to receive applications from women who wish to be attended in their confinement.

Ophthalmic Department : Mr. W. Jones makes his visit three times a week, and occasionally delivers Clinical Lectures on the cases under his charge.

An Assistant-Physician and an Assistant-Surgeon attend four days in the week for the care of out-patients.

The Dental Surgeon attends on Wednesday mornings at ten o'clock.

Bandaging : A Course of Practical Instruction in the application of Bandages and other Surgical Apparatus is given by Mr. Marshall, Assistant-Surgeon, in the Summer term.

Practical Pharmacy : Instruction in the Hospital Dispensary for three or six months as required.

TERMS OF ADMISSION TO THE PRACTICE AND CLINICAL LECTURES.

To Students who have already entered, in the Medical Faculty of the College, to three classes, of which the courses are of six months' duration,—(two classes, in which the courses are of three months' duration, being considered equivalent to one of six months):—

Also to pupils who produce certificates of having attended a course of lectures of a recognised School of Medicine, and during one year the practice of a recognised Hospital :

For one year to the Physicians' and Surgeons' practice, 21*l.* ; Physicians' or Surgeons' practice separately, 15*l.* 15*s.*

For six months to the Physicians' and Surgeons' practice, 15*l.* 15*s.* ; Physicians' or Surgeons' practice separately, 10*l.* 10*s.*

For instructions in Bandaging, 1*l.* 1*s.*

For six months' Practical Pharmacy, 5*l.* 5*s.*; three months, 3*l.* 3*s.*

To Pupils other than as above specified:—

For one year to the Physicians' and Surgeons' practice, 30*l.*; Physicians' or Surgeons' practice separately, 22*l.*

For six months' to the Physicians' and Surgeons' practice, 22*l.*; Physicians' or Surgeons' practice separately, 15*l.*

For six months' Ophthalmic practice, 5*l.* 5*s.*

For twelve months' Dental Surgery practice, 5*l.* 5*s.*

For instruction in Bandaging, 1*l.* 1*s.*

For six months' Practical Pharmacy, 5*l.* 5*s.*; three months, 3*l.* 3*s.*

The above fees to be paid at the Office of the College.

(Note.)—These fees are devoted to the maintenance of the Hospital, the Physicians and Surgeons having relinquished their proportion of them for its benefit.

Every pupil pays, in addition to the fees, 10*s.* Apothecary's, and 5*s.* Office fees.

Physicians' Assistants, House-Surgeons, Midwifery Assistants, Physicians' Clerks, Surgeons' Dressers, and Ophthalmic Surgeons' Assistants are selected from Pupils being Students of the College and of unexceptionable moral character, without additional payments. In case of the qualifications of the candidates for the respective offices being equal, preference will be given to those who have obtained the highest honours in the medical classes of the College. The Physicians' Assistants, Obstetric Assistant, and House-Surgeons reside in the Hospital, paying for their board.

CHARLES C. ATKINSON,
Secretary to the Council.

A. W. WILLIAMSON, F.R.S.,
Dean of the Faculty.

WESTMINSTER HOSPITAL.

Broad Sanctuary. S.W.

Instituted A.D. 1713; Incorporated A.D. 1836; contains 175 beds; and affords relief to about 2000 In-patients, and 20,000 Out-patients annually.

Phys., Drs. Basham, Fincham, and Radcliffe.—Asst.-Phys., Drs. Marcet and Anstie.—Surgs., Messrs. Holt, Brooke, and Holthouse.—Asst.-Surgs., Messrs. Hillman and Power.—Surg.-Dent., Mr. Clennon.—Apoth., Mr. J. W. Allen.—Sec., Mr. F. J. Wilson.

Hospital Practice.—The in-patients are visited daily, at one p.m., by the Physicians and Surgeons; and the out-patients, at half-past twelve, by the Assistant-Physicians and Assistant-Surgeons. Surgical operations are performed on Tuesdays, at two o'clock. Post-mortem examinations and demonstrations of Pathological Anatomy are conducted by Mr. Power, under the superintendence of the physicians and surgeons, at half-past two o'clock. Clinical Assistants, Physicians' Clerks, and Surgeons' Dressers are selected from the most qualified Students, without additional fee.

Clinical Lectures and Demonstrations of Morbid Anatomy: Lectures on clinical medicine and surgery, with demonstrations of morbid anatomy, will be delivered during the winter and summer sessions by the Physicians and Surgeons.

Practical Midwifery: When properly qualified to attend lying-in patients, pupils will be amply supplied with cases from the Westminster Maternity Charity.

Ophthalmic Surgery: In addition to the Ophthalmic practice of the hospital, the students are permitted to attend the practice of the Royal Westminster Ophthalmic Hospital, without additional fee.

Dental Surgery: In addition to a special course of lectures on dental surgery, practical instruction in dental operations will be given three times a week.

Practical Pharmacy: Instruction in this subject, with opportunities for dispensing, may be obtained in the Dispensary of the Hospital.

Museum, Reading Rooms, and Library: The museum of physiological and pathological anatomy, the museum of materia medica, and a reading-room, are open for the use of students. The library is open upon payment of an annual subscription of 5*s.*

WINTER SESSION.

Chemistry: Dr. Marcet. Tuesday at three p.m., Wednesday and Friday at two p.m. One course, five guineas; perpetual, seven guineas. These lectures comprise both Inorganic and Organic Chemistry, including their relation both to physiology and the practice of medicine.

Descriptive and Surgical Anatomy: Mr. Holthouse. Daily, except Saturday, at nine a.m. These lectures consist of a complete course of anatomical demonstrations, in which the student will be instructed successively in the Anatomy of the Bones, Ligaments, Muscles, Vessels, Nerves, and the Viscera of the Head, Chest, and Abdomen.

Dissections: Demonstrators, Mr. Christopher Heath and Mr. John T. Gray. Daily, from ten to two p.m. The dissecting-room is light and well-ventilated, and every convenience is provided for the use of the student, and to facilitate his studies. The students will be assisted in their dissections daily, from ten till two, by the demonstrators.

Physiology and General Anatomy: Mr. Power. Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, at three p.m. The course of lectures comprehends a systematic exposition of the Functions of the Living Body, and a full description of the organs by which they are performed.

Principles and Practice of Surgery: Messrs. Holt and Brook. Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, at two p.m. These lectures comprehend General Surgery, the Surgery of Tissues, the Surgery of Regions, and Operative Surgery.

Principles and Practice of Medicine: Dr. Basham. Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday, at four p.m. This course, which comprises General and Special Pathology, will be illustrated by recent specimens of diseased structure, drawings, preparations, and models; the characteristics of special diseases will be exemplified by reference to cases in the wards of the hospital.

SUMMER SESSION.

Botany: Mr. Syme. Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, at half-past eleven a.m. This course will be illustrated by fresh and dried specimens of plants; a large collection of diagrams; microscopical demonstrations; and occasional excursions into the country.

Comparative Anatomy and Zoology: Mr. Power. Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday, at half-past eleven. This course is such as is required by the University of London, for the Fellowship examination of the Royal College of Surgeons, and by the Army and Navy Boards.

Forensic Medicine: Drs. Fincham and Reynolds. Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, at three p.m. In this course is taught the application of the several branches of medical knowledge to the elucidation of legal questions.

Materia Medica and Therapeutics: Dr. Radcliffe. Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, at two p.m. In this course the principles of Diet, Regimen, and Hygiene, as well as the ordinary topics of Materia Medica and Therapeutics, are fully considered. The lectures are illustrated by a complete museum, and by diagrams and drawings.

Natural Philosophy: Mr. Brooke. Monday, at four p.m. This course of lectures is intended to make the student acquainted with the Elements of Physics and their application to Medical Science.

Midwifery and Diseases of Women and Children: Dr. F. Bird. Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday, at four p.m.

Practical Chemistry: Dr. Marcet. Tuesday and Thursday, at three. In this course an opportunity is given to the student for personal manipulation in the ordinary processes of Chemistry, and for acquiring a knowledge of the various re-agents for the detection of poisons.

PRIZE-APPOINTMENTS AND PRIZES.

House-Physician and House-Surgeon: The offices of Apothecary and Clinical Assistant having been recently abolished, the resident Medical Staff now consists of a House-Physician and a House-Surgeon, who, in the absence of the Physicians and Surgeons, have the sole charge of the medical and surgical patients respectively. These appointments are open to competition amongst gentlemen who have been educated at the hospital, and who are qualified to practise under the Medical Registration Act, the successful competitors being appointed by the House-Committee upon the recommendation of the Physicians and Surgeons. Candidates are required to produce testimonials as to moral character, and certificates of having acted for a given time as Clinical Clerk or Dresser—as Clinical Clerk for the office of House-Physician, as Dresser for that of House-Surgeon. The House-Physician and House-Surgeon are not only appointed without the payment of any fee, but they are provided with board and lodging in the Hospital, free of expense. They hold office for one year.

Clinical Clerks and Dressers: These appointments are conferred without fee, in rotation, upon the most diligent students. The Clinical Clerk and Dresser of the week are entitled to have luncheon in the Hospital, free of expense.

Prizes for General Proficiency: In order to encourage a general attention on the part of the Student to all branches of medical education successively, no prizes are given in the separate classes, but the classes are grouped in accordance with the plan laid down by the College of Surgeons and the Society of Apothecaries for the first, second, and third years of study, and a prize is given to the student who distinguishes himself most highly in each of these groups; namely,—

A medal and Certificate of Honour to the most proficient student of each year, at the end of each Session, in accordance with the following scheme:—The subjects of examination for those who have completed the first Winter Session, Anatomy and Chemistry. First Summer Session, Botany and Materia Medica. Second Winter Session, Anatomy, Physiology, Medicine, and Surgery. Second Summer Session, Midwifery, Forensic Medicine, and Practical Chemistry. Third Winter Session, Clinical Medicine and Surgery. The Examinations for these prizes will be rendered as practical as possible, and in those on Clinical Medicine and Clinical Surgery the student will be taken into the wards and his knowledge tested at the bedside. The prizes will not be awarded if the result of the respective examinations falls short of a standard satisfactory to the Examiners.

Prize for Clinical Midwifery: A Case of Obstetrical Instruments.

Prize in Dental Surgery: A Case of Dental Instruments.

FEES.

Hospital Practice: The entire period of Hospital Practice (Medical and Surgical) required by the College of Surgeons and the Society of Apothecaries may be attended on payment of twenty-eight guineas, at once, or by instalments of one-half on entrance, and the remainder at the commencement of the second year.

The Medical and Surgical Practice may, if required, be attended separately for longer or shorter periods: namely, Medical Practice—Six months, 10*l.* 10*s.*; twelve months, 12*l.* 12*s.*; eighteen months, 15*l.* 15*s.*; perpetual, 21*l.* Surgical practice—Three months, 6*l.* 6*s.*; six months, 10*l.* 10*s.*; twelve months, 15*l.* 15*s.*; perpetual, 21*l.*

Lectures: The whole of the Lectures required by the College of Surgeons and the Society of Apothecaries may be attended on payment of forty-seven guineas, at once, or by instalments of one half on entrance, and the remainder at the commencement of the second year. Any Course of Lectures may be attended separately:—

Descriptive and Surgical Anatomy, Chemistry, Surgery, Physiology, and Medicine, one course, 6*l.* 6*s.*; two courses, 7*l.* 7*s.*

Practical Anatomy, one session, 2*l.* 2*s.*; two sessions, 3*l.* 3*s.* For gentlemen who are not regular Pupils of the School, the admission to the Dissections and Demonstrations is, for two months, 2*l.* 2*s.*; for six months, 3*l.* 3*s.*; perpetual, 5*l.* 5*s.*

Comparative Anatomy and Zoology, one course, 2*l.* 2*s.*; two courses, 3*l.* 3*s.*

Practical Chemistry, each course, 2*l.* 2*s.*

Natural Philosophy and Dental Surgery, one course, 2*l.* 2*s.* Both these courses are free to general Students of the Hospital.

Practical Pharmacy, three months, 5*l.* 5*s.*; six months, 7*l.* 7*s.*; twelve months, 10*l.* 10*s.*

The entire Course of Study (including Hospital Practice and Lectures) required by the College of Surgeons and the Society of Apothecaries may be attended on payment of seventy-five guineas. Students who have entered for any insufficient period of Hospital Practice and Lectures may prolong their attendance on payment of the difference between their first entrance-fee and that for the longer period required.

Fee for unlimited attendance upon Hospital Practice and Lectures, eighty guineas.

All Communications respecting the School to be addressed to Mr. Power, 3, Grosvenor-terrace, Belgrave-road, S.W.; or to Mr. F. J. Wilson, the Secretary to the Hospital.

ROYAL COLLEGE OF CHEMISTRY.

315, Oxford-street. W.

The Royal College of Chemistry has become the property of the Government, and its spacious and well-furnished Laboratories are now used for the instruction of the pupils of the Metropolitan School of Science applied to Mining and the Arts. The instruction in this Institution is under the superintendence of Professor A. W. Hofmann, Ph.D., and consists of—

I. A course of Practical Analysis in the Laboratory.

II. A series of Lectures on General Chemistry.

The Laboratory Instruction, which is divided into a qualitative and quantitative course, is necessarily adapted to the previous knowledge of the student, such as he may have acquired by attending the chemical lectures delivered at the Institution. The course commences with experimental exercises, calculated to make the pupil practically acquainted with the general properties of the simple substances. The next subjects of his study are the analytical properties of the elements, and of their most important compounds. The knowledge thus acquired is subsequently put into practice in the performance of a series of analyses, so arranged as to lead the student, step by step, from the simplest to the most complicated cases, both of qualitative and quantitative analysis. Particular attention is paid to the use of the blowpipe, and the various methods of commercial testing, alkalimetry, chlorimetry, &c.

The fundamental studies in Practical Chemistry are the same for all pupils, however different the future pursuit may be to which the knowledge obtained will be applied. It is only after the most important methods of distinguishing, separating, and estimating substances have been mastered, and after sufficient practice and skill in experiment have been acquired, that the course of each student diverges into some special line. This will of necessity vary with his abilities and his ultimate objects.

Each laboratory student works independent; there are no classes. All operations are superintended by the Professor and his assistants. A table, with drawers, cupboard, and shelves, is appropriated to every pupil. The Institution supplies gas, fuel, and re-agents. Larger and more expensive instruments, such as air-pumps, thermometers, barometers, condensers, large evaporating dishes, &c., may be had on loan from the Laboratory. The student has to provide himself only with the apparatus specified in the Laboratory Regulations.

The course of lectures is delivered in the newly-erected Theatre at the College in Oxford-street. It consists of 90 Lectures, and treats of General Chemistry, with especial reference to its application in the arts and manufactures. This course commences on the first Monday in October.

SCHOOL OF PHARMACY.

17, Bloomsbury-square. W.C.

CONNECTED WITH THE PHARMACEUTICAL SOCIETY.

The Lectures on Chemistry and Practical Pharmacy by Dr. Redwood are delivered at half-past eight on the Tuesday, Wednesday, and Friday mornings, from October to July.

Dr. Redwood also gives a practical course of instruction in Chemistry and Pharmacy, which continues throughout the year, with the exception of August and September.

Professor Bentley delivers Lectures on Materia Medica and Botany, at the house of the Society, every Monday and Saturday morning, from October, and in the gardens of the Royal Botanic Society, Regent's Park, every Monday and Saturday morning, during May, June, and July.

Further particulars may be obtained on application to the Secretary, Elias Bremridge, at the house of the Society.

HOSPITALS AND DISPENSARIES.

BEDFORD DISPENSARY, 10, STORE-STREET, BEDFORD-SQUARE. W.C.—Instituted 1853. Phys., Drs. Jas. Gardner and Evans Reeves; Sec., Mr. W. Smith. Average number of patients, 7000 annually.

BETHLEM HOSPITAL FOR LUNATICS, ST. GEORGE'S-FIELDS. S.—Incorporated by Henry VIII. Number of beds, 400. Res. Phys. and Med. Superint., Dr. W. C. Hood; Surg., Mr. W. Lawrence; Res. Apoth., Dr. W. Helps; Stew., Mr. G. H. Haydon.

BLENHEIM FREE DISPENSARY AND INFIRMARY, 84, PORTLAND-ROAD. W.—Instituted 1836. Cons. Phys., Dr. G. Budd; Cons. Surg., Mr. W. Fergusson; Phys., Drs. Schulof, Meadows, and Chance; Surgs., Messrs. P. C. Price, T. J. Ashton, and E. C. Hulme; Phys. Obst., Dr. Wane; Surg.-Dent., Mr. J. Parkinson; Cupp., Messrs. The Ethnological Society was founded in 1843, to promote the study of Ethnology. The object of this science is to ascertain the distinguishing characteristics, physical and moral, of the varieties of mankind which now inhabit and have formerly inhabited the earth, and to ascertain the causes of such characteristics, in order to determine the relationships of the several varieties of man to each other.

The Society has formed a library, which is continually being enriched by the addition of books for the student, and for those who wish to verify the statements of writers on Ethnology; and also by philological and other special works, for those engaged in advancing the science.

The Society meets during the winter season, from November to June inclusive, for the reading of papers and other communications, and for the discussion of subjects connected with Ethnology.

The Society has issued four volumes of its journal, and the fifth is in the press.

Fellows are admitted by ballot; there is no entrance fee, and the annual subscription is 2*l*. Fellows who reside beyond twenty miles from London may claim to be made non-resident Fellows, at an annual subscription, during such residence, of one guinea.

GOVERNMENT SCHOOL OF MINES.—DEPARTMENT OF SCIENCE AND ART, JERMYN STREET, S.W.
—Established 1851. Direct. Sir R. I. Murchison; Regist., Mr. T. Reeks.

The chief object and distinctive character of this Institution (to which everything else is made subsidiary), is to give a practical direction to the course of scientific study. Although the education provided in it will not of itself qualify the student to undertake the direction of mining and other technical operations, yet the knowledge which he may acquire of the principles of the sciences on which the arts are respectively based will, in combination with future training, render him in the highest degree competent, not only to engage in any special branch of industry, but to promote its further development. The mode of instruction is by lectures, by written and oral examinations, by practical teaching in the laboratories and drawing office, and also by field excursions, under certain conditions.

The following Lectures will be delivered during the session of 1860-1—forty-six on Inorganic and twenty-four on Organic Chemistry, by Dr. Hofmann; thirty-six on Physics, by Dr. Tyndall; fifty on Metallurgy, by Dr. J. Percy; sixty on Mining and forty on Mineralogy, by Mr. W. W. Smyth; thirty on Geology, by Mr. A. C. Ramsay; fifty on Natural History, by Mr. T. H. Huxley; and thirty-six on Applied Mechanics, by Mr. R. Willis.

Entrance fee to Matriculated students is 3*0l.*, or two annual payments of 2*0l.* each, for admission to all the courses of lectures. The charge for instruction in the laboratories (not included in the above) is 1*0l.* for three months.

ROYAL INSTITUTION OF GREAT BRITAIN, ALBEMARLE-STREET, PICCADILLY. W.—Established under a Charter granted by his Majesty King George the Third, in the year 1800. Enlarged and confirmed by an Act of Parliament in the year 1810. Pres., Duke of Northumberland; Treas., Mr. W. Pole; Sec., Rev. J. Barlow; Hon. Prof. of Chem., Mr. W. T. Brande; Fuller. Prof. of Chem. and Dir. of Labor., Dr. M. Faraday; Fuller. Prof. of Physiol., Mr. R. Owen; Prof. of Nat. and Exper. Philos., Dr. J. Tyndall; Hon. Lib., Mr. W. T. Brande and Mr. G. S. Smith; Asst. Sec. and Keeper of Libr., Mr. B. Vincent; Asst. in Labor., Mr. C. Anderson.

The chief objects of this institution are—

1. To promote scientific and literary research.
2. To teach the principles of inductive and experimental science.
3. To exhibit the application of these principles to the various arts of life; and
4. To afford opportunities for study.

The Royal Institution comprises—

Public Lectures intended to supply that which books or private instruction can rarely afford.

Weekly Meetings of the members of the institution.—These are held on every Friday evening during the session, and the members have the privilege of introducing two friends to them by tickets.

A Laboratory for the promotion and advancement of chemical and electrical science, by experiments and original investigations.

A Library of about 30,000 volumes, including the best editions of the Greek and Latin Classics and the Fathers of the Church,—English county histories,—works of science and literature, of art and antiquarian research,—the transactions of the principal British and Foreign academies and scientific institutions, as well as an extensive collection of historical and miscellaneous tracts.

A Reading Room for study.

A Newspaper Room, in which the principal journals, magazines, and reviews, in the English, French, and German languages, are regularly provided. A circulating library is subscribed to, in order to afford the members an opportunity of seeing the newest books as soon as published.

A Museum, containing mineral specimens, many of which are named, and also other collections. The chief object of this museum is to furnish illustrations for the lectures and the Friday evening discourses.

Terms of Admission: Ten Guineas (Five Guineas as the first annual payment, and Five Guineas as a contribution to the Library Fund); or Sixty Guineas in lieu of all payments. Members are admitted to ALL lectures delivered in the institution, to the libraries, to the museum, and to the weekly evening meetings, and have the right of voting at the monthly meetings; they may also introduce by tickets two friends to each of the weekly evening meetings, and their families have the privilege of attending the lectures at reduced charge. For every additional subscription of Twenty Guineas at one time, or Three Guineas per annum, each member is entitled to introduce, personally, or by a written order, one visitor to each of the public lectures.

Annual Subscribers to the Institution pay Five Guineas, and One Guinea to the literary fund on admission. They are admitted to all the public lectures delivered in the theatre of the institution, to the libraries, and to the newspaper rooms, but have not the privilege of attending the evening meetings.

Subscribers to lectures for all the courses of lectures (extending from Christmas to Midsummer) pay Two Guineas; for a single course of lectures One Guinea.

Lectures will be delivered on Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays from the middle of January to the middle of June, at three o'clock, p.m., except in Passion and Easter Weeks.

Weekly evening meetings will be held on Fridays from January to June.

General monthly meetings of the members will be held on the first Mondays of February, March, April, May, June, July, August, November, and December.

The general annual meeting for the election of officers will take place on the first Tuesday in May.

ZOOLOGICAL SOCIETY OF LONDON. OFFICES, 11, HANOVER-SQUARE. W. GARDENS, IN THE REGENT'S PARK.—This Society was instituted in 1826, under the auspices of Sir Humphry Davy, Bart., Sir Stamford Raffles, and other eminent individuals, for the advancement of Zoology, and the introduction and exhibition of subjects of the animal kingdom, alive, or in a state of preservation. Pres., H.R.H. The Prince Consort; Counc., Rev. John Barlow, Sir J. P. Boileau, Bart., Dr. J. S. Bowerbank, Admiral W. Bowles, Sir B. C. Brodie, Bart., Prof. Busk, Rt. Hon. Sir G. Clark, Bart., Mr. R. Drummond, Mr. J. Gould, Dr. Gray, Mr. W. H. Gregory, M.P., Mr. J. H. Gurney, M.P., Mr. E. W. H. Holdsworth, Mr. R. MacAndrew, Prof. R. Owen, Bishop of Oxford, Mr. E. J. Rudge, Mr. P. L. Slater (Secretary), Sir J. E. Tennent, and Mr. G. R. Waterhouse (Vice-Pres.).

The General Monthly Meetings of the Zoological Society are held on the first Thursday of every month, at four o'clock (except in August, September, and October, when the Meeting takes place in the middle of those months.)

Fellows pay an admission fee of 5*l.*, and an annual contribution of 3*l.*, or a composition of 30*l.* in lieu thereof; the whole payment, including the admission fee, being 35*l.* Annual subscribers pay a contribution of 3*l.* on the 1st of January in every year. Honorary, foreign, and corresponding members pay no contribution.

The Scientific Meetings take place on the second and fourth Tuesday of every month (except July, August, September, and October), at nine o'clock, p.m. The annual meeting on the 29th of April.

THE LONDON AND PROVINCIAL MEDICAL PROTECTION SOCIETY, 43, LINCOLN'S-INN FIELDS. W.C.—Established 1850. Pres., Mr. J. Probert; Trust., Mr. H. Day (Isleworth), and Mr. J. Probert, (New Cavendish-street); Treas., Mr. E. Dunn; Bankers, Goslings and Sharpe, 19, Fleet-street; Sec., Mr. J. Capes.

The objects of the Society are—

1st. To provide a safe and efficient medium by which the Medical Profession may secure more certain and regular payment for their services; with every consideration for the convenience of those who are willing, but unable directly to discharge their liabilities; with rigour for those who are able, but have not the disposition, to remunerate Medical men.

These ends to be accomplished without interfering with the valuable time of the Members of the Profession, or exposing them to the unpleasantness which necessarily attends application for money, or the uncertainty and risk of employing private collectors.

2nd. To assist Members with information and advice in the purchase and sale of practices.

3rd. To raise a Benevolent Fund by devoting to that object the profits arising from the general operations of the Society.

The Society consists of qualified Medical Practitioners only. Annual Subscription, one guinea; a firm consisting of two partners, a guinea and a half; a firm of three partners, two guineas.

The general business is carried on by a Staff of Officers at the central office, 43, Lincoln's-inn-fields, together with trustworthy employes appointed in town and country, the whole of whom are under the direction and superintendence of the Committee.

The Metropolitan Members of the Committee, with the Trustees, are responsible for all moneys received by the Staff, MEDICAL BENEVOLENT FUND, 11, NEW BURLINGTON-STREET. W.—Established 1836. Pres., Sir J. Clark, Bart., M.D.; Vice-Pres., Sir J. Forbes, M.D., Sir H. Holland, Bart., M.D., G. Burrows, M.D., Mr. W. Newnham; Trust., Sir C. Hastings, M.D., Sir J. Clark, Bart., M.D., G. Burrows, M.D., Mr. W. Newnham, Mr. J. Toynbee; Treas., Mr. J. Toynbee, 18, Savile-row, W.; Sec. and Coll., Mr. W. Self, 8, Lucas-place West, Commercial-road East.

An earnest appeal is now made on behalf of this Fund to the Profession at large, in the confident expectation that such appeal cannot be in vain. Instituted in year 1836, it has pursued its unwearied course of usefulness and efficiency; it has passed its day of small things, and now stands before the public as one of the most useful of the medical charities. Its income has increased from an average of 50*l.* a year annual subscriptions, and a like amount of donations for the first five years, to 1691*l.* 5*s.* 6*d.* subscriptions, donations, and interest on bank-stock in the last year. The number of cases relieved has augmented from an average of three, in the first five years, to the fearful number of eighty-three in the last year; and, besides this casual relief, amounting to 760*l.*, the Benevolent Fund distributed 278*l.* in annuities, thus making a sum of 1038*l.* actually expended in the relief of misery.

THE BENEVOLENT FUND is distinguished by doing much, and promising little. The Committee meet at three o'clock p.m., on the last Tuesday of every month, to receive applications. Strict inquiry is made respecting each case, for the Committee feel the great responsibility that devolves upon them; but when the cases are really deserving of aid, it is promptly and liberally bestowed, without expense, and without trouble to the poor applicants. Is it your wish, prosperous medical men, that the tear of your brother's widow shall fall; or the cry of the helpless orphan shall be heard in vain? Is it possible that the wants of the aged practitioner, disabled from practice by disease, shall be made known to his 20,000 brethren, and that they should reply—"Be ye warmed and be ye filled," as we are, and yet refuse to give a single shilling to those who are so much in need of kindness? Remember that there is, or ought to be—"more pleasure in giving than in receiving."

W. NEWNHAM, Vice-President.

ROYAL MEDICAL BENEVOLENT COLLEGE. OFFICE, 37, SOHO-SQ. W.—Pres., Rt. Hon. Earl Manvers; Visitor, Rt. Rev. Lord Bishop of Winchester; Vice-Pres., Lord Bishops of Durham, Oxford, St. Asaph, Bangor, St. David's, and Winchester; Earls Denbigh, Effingham, Carlisle, Shaftesbury, and Granville; Duke of Marlborough, Marquis of Bute, Lord Stanley, M.P., Lord Dynevor, Lord Leigh, Sir M. S. Stewart, Bart., Sir J. Warrender, Bart., Dr. R. W. Jelf, Revds. T. Dale, C. Baring, T. Fuller, and J. H. Hamilton, Messrs. B. B. Cabell, J. W. Freshfield, W. Cotton, B. E. Winthrop, J. Bentley, J. Briscoe, J. Labouchere; and J. G. Murdoch; Drs. E. J. Seymour, R. Ferguson, H. W. Acland, J. Luke; Sir C. Locock, Bart., M.D.; Sir J. Clark, Bart., M.D.; Sir J. Forbes, M.D.; Sir H. Holland, Bart., M.D.; Drs. T. Watson, B. G. Babington, H. Davies, H. S. Roots, A. Robertson, and J. Conolly, R. D. Grainger, Dr. T. R. College, T. Paget, H. P. Fuller, N. Clifton, Sir J. Fife, J. Taylor, Dr. G. Webster, J. Stedman, T. Martin, G. Fincham, Dr. G. Beaman, Dr. J. A. Wilson, Dr. Williams, R. Forest, J. Probert; Members of Council, the Pres., Treas., and the following—Dr. J. Bird, J. Birkett, H. Blenkarne, W. Carr, Dr. W. Cholmeley, Dr. W. D. Chowne, T. B. Curling, G. T. Dale, R. D. Edgecumbe, G. Fincham, J. F. France, H. Hancock, Ed. Headland, F. Hird, C. Hogg, G. C. Jonson, C. F. J. Lord, J. H. Lance, Major Moore, Sir T. Phillips, Rev. G. Pocock, R. Quain, E. Ray, G. M. Robinson, J. S. Smith, Dr. J. G. Sparke, H. Sterry, Dr. T. H. Tuke, F. Webb, Jos. Ward; Treas., Mr. J. Probert; Sec., Mr. R. Freeman; Bankers, Goslings and Sharpe, 19, Fleet-street.

The purposes of the College are—

1st. To maintain an Asylum, in which 100 Pensioners, who must be duly qualified medical men, or their Widows, not under fifty years of age (possessing incomes of at least 15*l.*, and not more than 60*l.*, a year), shall be provided with three furnished rooms each, and with such additional assistance and accommodation as the funds may permit.

2nd. To provide a School, in which a liberal education will be given to 200 boys, the Sons of duly qualified medical men; forty of whom will be educated, boarded, clothed, and maintained entirely at the expense of the Institution, while the remainder will be charged at the lowest rate which is found to be practicable.

3rd. To provide annuities, or occasional pecuniary assistance, to duly qualified medical men in distressed circumstances, or to their families, when they can be granted without detriment to the asylum or school, which are to be ever regarded as the principal objects of the College.

There is a Chapel for Divine Service according to the ritual of the Church of England.

Donors of ten guineas are life-governors of the College; subscribers of one guinea annually are governors during the continuance of their subscription. Subscriptions are due in advance on the 1st of January in each year.

Any member of the Profession desirous of accepting the office of Honorary Local Secretary and Treasurer for his neighbourhood, in which one has not been appointed, would oblige by communicating with the Secretary on the subject.

Subscriptions received by the Bankers, Goslings and Sharpe, 19, Fleet-street, the Members of Council; the Hon. Local Secs.; and by the Secretary, at the Office, 37, Soho-square.

SOCIETY FOR THE RELIEF OF WIDOWS AND ORPHANS OF MEDICAL MEN IN LONDON AND ITS VICINITY, 53, BERNERS-STREET, OXFORD-STREET, W.—Instituted 1788. Pres., Mr. T. A. Stone; Vice-Pres., Messrs. M. Ware, E. A. Brande, J. Nussey, Sir B. C. Brodie, Bart., Dr. P. M. Latham, Mr. J. Bacot, Dr. T. Turner, Mr. D. H. Walne, Dr. A. J. Sutherland, Mr. E. Tegart, Mr. E. Stanley, and Dr. Geo. Burrows; Treas., Mr. J. Miles, Dr. G. Hamilton Roe (Acting), and Mr. J. T. Ware; Direct., Dr. R. Nairne, Messrs. W. Cathrow, E. Barker, J. Paget, J. Adams, Dr. F. J. Farre, Mr. A. B. Barnes, Mr. E. Dew, Mr. J. Love, Dr. H. Pitman, Messrs. C. Collambell, B. Travers, Dr. B. G. Babington, Messrs. J. Weatherfield, J. J. Sawyer, T. Brown, Dr. Aldis, Mr. W. Dickinson, Mr. J. C. Salisbury, Mr. H. Blenkarne, Dr. T. K. Chambers, Dr. J. Clarke, Mr. D. Seannell, and Mr. P. G. Hewett; Trust., Messrs. T. A. Stone, J. T. Ware, C. Hawkins, and Dr. A. J. Sutherland; Trust. of Ware and Chamberlaine Funds, Dr. G. Burrows, Dr. J. Clarke, Mr. J. T. Ware, and Mr. Blenkarne; Sec., Dr. S. W. J. Merriman; Coll., Mr. W. J. Chesshire, 5, Clarendon-terrace, Belsize-road. N.W.; Bankers, Fuller, Banbury, and Co., 77, Lombard street.

This Society was formed in the year 1788, by Drs. T. Denman, R. Denison, A. Douglas, J. Sims, and J. Squire, and Messrs. W. Chamberlaine and T. Rendall, with the object of establishing a brotherhood for relieving, half yearly, those Widows and Orphans of its deceased Members who might need assistance.

It unites the advantages of a Provident, with those of a Benevolent, Society. It is Provident, as by the small yearly subscription of Two Guineas the Members do, through it, protect their own families from destitution, should they unexpectedly need it; and it is Benevolent, as its benefits are conferred only on those who are left in indigent circumstances.

The Society has been greatly assisted by legacies and contributions from Members and others, and has especially to acknowledge the gracious patronage of various members of the Royal Family.

The permanent efficiency of the Society depends on the maintenance of a due proportion between the available income and the claims made on the funds. Computations have been made by experienced actuaries on all the points susceptible of calculation by way of average.

The experience of Seventy-one years has fully proved the need that existed for this Society, for the last Report shows that 115 widows, and 179 children of Members of the Society, have been placed in comfort by an aggregate sum of above 53,000*l.*, paid in half-yearly sums. Many of these recipients were in a state of absolute poverty, when the Society stepped in to succour them.

In the year 1858-9, 1828*l.* 10*s.* was distributed among thirty-nine widows and twenty-four orphans.

Great care has been taken in the management of its resources, to secure the means of affording permanently such relief as the Society provides for those whose unfortunate condition renders assistance needful; and the good which it has accomplished has proved the wisdom and benevolence of those who originally planned the Society, and the prudence and efficiency with which its affairs have since been conducted.

The Society's affairs are managed by a President, twelve Vice-Presidents, three Treasurers, and twenty-four Directors, who are elected by the Members annually, and whose services are gratuitous.

All duly qualified Members of the Profession, residing within the County of Middlesex, or within seven miles from the Royal Exchange, in Surrey, Kent, and Essex, are eligible for proposal; the mode of admission is by ballot.

Proposal Papers, and other communications for the Court of Directors, should be sent to the Secretary before the first Wednesday in the months of March, June, September, and December. Laws, Lists, and Forms of Proposal may be obtained from the Secretary, and will be sent by Post on receipt of a Stamp.

The Secretary attends at the Office, 53, Berners-street, every Wednesday and Friday, from four to five p.m.

ARMY MEDICAL DEPARTMENT.

Office, 6, Whitehall-yard, London. S.W.

Direct.-Gen., J. B. Gibson, M.D., Hon. Phys. to H.M. the Queen; Insp.-Gen. Hosps. (Sanitary Branch), Dr. T. G. Logan; Dep. Insp.-Gen. (Medical Branch), Dr. H. Mapleton; Dep. Insp.-Gen. (Statistical Branch), Dr. T. G. Balfour, F.R.S.; Staff-Surgeons, Messrs. Smith and Fitzgerald; Senior Clerk, J. Wimbridge, Esq.

The following warrant was issued on October 14, 1858:—

“VICTORIA R.

“Whereas we have taken into our consideration the recommendations of the commissioners appointed by our authority to inquire into the regulations affecting the sanitary condition of our military forces and the medical treatment of the sick and wounded of our army, our will and pleasure is that from and after the date of this warrant the following rules shall be established for the future admission, promotion and retirement, and the pay, half-pay, relative rank and allowances of the medical officers of our army, and that by these rules our Commander-in-Chief shall govern himself in recommending officers for admission, promotion, and retirement.

“1. The grades of Medical Officers in our army shall be four in number, viz.:—

“ (2.) Deputy-inspector-general of hospitals.

“ (3.) Staff or regimental surgeon, who after twenty years' full-pay service in any rank shall be styled surgeon-major.

“ (4.) Staff or regimental assistant-surgeon.

“2. No candidate shall be admitted to the competitive examination for a commission in the Medical Department of our army who does not possess such a certificate or certificates as would qualify a civilian to practise medicine and surgery; and no such candidate shall receive a commission as assistant-surgeon until he shall have satisfactorily passed an examination in military medicine, surgery, and hygiene, after attending the authorized course in a general military hospital.

“3. No Assistant-surgeon shall be eligible for promotion to the rank of Surgeon until he shall have passed such examination as our principal Secretary of State for War may require, and shall have served on full-pay with the commission of assistant-surgeon for five years, of which two shall have been in or with a regiment.

“4. A Surgeon, whether on the Staff or attached to regiments, must have served ten years in the army, with a commission of full-pay, of which two must have been passed with the rank of Surgeon in or with a regiment, before he will be eligible for promotion to the rank of Deputy-Inspector-General of Hospitals.

“5. A Deputy-Inspector-General of Hospitals must have served five years at home, or three abroad in that rank before he shall be eligible for promotion to the rank of Inspector-General.

“In cases, however, of emergency, or when the good of the service renders such alteration desirable, it shall be competent for our Secretary of State for War to shorten the several periods of service above-mentioned, in such manner as he shall deem fit and expedient.

“6. Assistant-Surgeons shall, as a general rule, be promoted to the rank of Surgeon in the order of their seniority in the service, unless unfit for the discharge of their duties from physical or professional incompetence or misconduct. In cases of distinguished service, however, an Assistant-Surgeon may be promoted without reference to seniority; and in such cases, with a view to insure the responsibility attaching to an appointment made out of the regular course of promotion, the recommendation in which the services of the officer shall be detailed, shall be published in the General Orders of the Army and in the Gazette in which his promotion appears.

“7. All promotion from the rank of Surgeon to that of Deputy-Inspector, and from the rank of Deputy-Inspector to that of Inspector, shall be given by selection for ability and merit; and the grounds of such selection shall be stated to us in writing, and recorded in the office of our Commander-in-Chief, the selection being made from the whole rank of Surgeons, whether styled Surgeons or Surgeon-Majors.

"8. The rates of pay of the Medical Officers of our army shall be in accordance with the following schedule:—

	After 30 Years' Service on Full Pay.	After 25 Years' Service on Full Pay.	After 20 Years' Service on Full Pay.	After 15 Years' Service on Full Pay.	After 10 Years' Service on Full Pay.	After 5 Years' Service on Full Pay.	Under 5 Years' Service on Full Pay.

"9. In addition to the pay of their ranks, officers at the head of the Medical Department on foreign stations shall receive allowances at the under-mentioned rates, when serving under the following circumstances, viz.:—

"If with an army in the field of 10,000 men or upwards, 20s. per day.

"If with an army in the field of 5000 men or upwards, 15s. per day.

"If with an army in the field of any less number, 10s. per day.

"If serving in a colony where the forces consist of 1500 or upwards, 5s. per day.

"10. After the date of this warrant every Medical Officer placed on half-pay by reduction of establishment, or on the report of a Medical Board, in consequence of being incapacitated by reason of ill-health, caused by wounds, or brought on by the discharge of his duties, shall be allowed the half-pay to which his period of full-pay service may entitle him, according to the following schedule:—

	After 30 Years' Service on Full Pay.	After 25 Years' Service on Full Pay.	After 20 Years' Service on Full Pay.	After 15 Years' Service on Full Pay.	After 10 Years' Service on Full Pay.	After 5 Years' Service on Full Pay.	Under 5 Years' Service on Full Pay.

"11. With a view to maintain the efficiency of the service all Medical Officers of the rank of Surgeon-Major, Surgeon, or Assistant-Surgeon, shall be placed on the retired list when they shall have attained the age of fifty-five years, and all Inspectors-General and Deputy-Inspectors-General when they shall have attained the age of sixty-five years.

"Officers thus superannuated shall be entitled to the rates of half-pay stated in the preceding schedule.

"12. Every Medical Officer who shall have served upon full pay for twenty-five years and upwards shall have the right to retire upon half-pay, at the rate of seven-tenths of the daily pay he was in receipt of when thus retiring, provided he shall have served three years in the rank from which he retires, or shall have served in any rank for ten years in the colonies, or five years with an army in the field. But if he shall not have complied with any one of these conditions, he shall be entitled only to half-pay at the rate of seven-tenths of the daily pay he was in receipt of before his last promotion.

"13. Every Medical Officer thus claiming to retire must give six months' notice to the head of his department of his intention to claim this right prior to his being allowed to retire; and no Medical Officer shall have a right to give such notice after he shall be under orders to proceed to any foreign station, until he shall have served at such station for one month.

"14. If a Medical Officer is placed on half-pay from any other cause than those hereinbefore named, he shall only be allowed a temporary rate of half-pay (not exceeding the rates stated in Clause 10), for such period and such rate as shall be assigned to him by our Secretary of State for War, on a consideration of the length and character of the services rendered to the public by such Medical Officer.

"15. On reduction of establishment the Surgeon and Assistant-Surgeon who are junior in the ranks shall be the first reduced, and on restoration to full pay the reduced officers who are senior in their rank shall be the first restored.

"16. The relative rank of the Medical Officers of our army shall be as follows:—

"Staff or regimental Assistant-Surgeon as a Lieutenant, according to the date of his commission; and after six years' full-pay service as Captain, according to the date of the completion of such service.

"Staff or regimental Surgeon as Major, according to the date of his commission; and Surgeon-Major as Lieutenant-Colonel, but junior of that rank.

"Deputy Inspector-General of Hospitals as Lieutenant-Colonel, according to the date of his commission; and after five years' full-pay service as Deputy Inspector-General as Colonel, according to the date of the completion of such service.

"Inspector-General of Hospitals as Brigadier-General, according to the date of his commission; if with an army in the field, or after three years' full-pay service as Inspector-General as a Major-General, from the date of his joining such army in the field, or according to the date of the completion of such service.

"17. Such relative rank shall carry with it all precedence and advantages attaching to the rank with which it corresponds (except as regards the presidency of Courts-martial, where our will and pleasure is, that the senior combatant officer be always president), and shall regulate the choice of quarters, rates of lodging money, servants, forage, fuel, and light, or allowances in their stead, detention, and prize money. But when a Medical Officer is serving with a regiment or detachment, the officer commanding, though he be junior in rank to such Medical Officer, is entitled to a preference in the choice of quarters.

"18. Medical Officers shall be entitled to all the allowances granted by our warrant of the 13th of July, 1857, on account of wounds and injuries received in action, as combatant officers holding the same relative ranks.

"19. Their families shall in like manner be entitled to all the allowances granted by our warrant of the 15th of June, 1855, to the families of combatant officers holding the same relative ranks.

"20. Medical Officers shall be entitled to field allowances at home and abroad at the following rates, subject to all the conditions and restrictions laid down in our warrant of the 1st of July, 1848:—

DAILY RATE.

	Ordinary.	Extraordinary.
REGIMENTAL.
Assistant-Surgeon, under six years' service	s. d. 1 0	s. d. 2 0

Deputy-Inspector-General, under three years' service	4 6	7 6
Deputy-Inspector-General, above three years' service	6 0	10 0
Inspector-General of Hospitals	9 0	15 0

"21. Surgeons or Surgeons-Major of infantry regiments shall not in future be subject to any diminution of the allowance of forage, according to the regulations in force, nor to any stoppage out of their daily pay for any ration of hay, straw, or oats supplied for the horse or horses kept by them for the public service.

"22. All Staff-Surgeons of the first class and Senior Surgeons of Artillery now serving, or who, being now on half-pay, shall hereafter be called upon to serve, shall rank as Surgeons-Major from the date of their commissions as Staff-Surgeons of the first class, or Senior Surgeons of Artillery, and shall receive the pay of Surgeon-Major according to the foregoing schedule of full-pay from the date of this warrant, or from the date of being called from half-pay to full-pay; and all surgeons who have already completed twenty years' full-pay service, or upwards, in any rank, shall have the rank and pay of Surgeons-Major from the date of this warrant.

"23. Medical Officers shall be held entitled to the same honours as other Officers of our Army of equal relative rank.*

"24. A Medical Officer, retiring after a full-pay service of twenty-five years and upwards, may, if recommended for the same by the head of his department, receive a step of honorary rank, but without any consequent increase of half-pay.

"25. Good-service pensions shall be awarded to the most meritorious Medical Officers of our army, under such regulations as shall be from time to time determined by us, with the advice of our Secretary of State for War.

"26. Six of the most meritorious Medical Officers of the army shall be named my Honorary Physicians, and six my Honorary Surgeons.

"Given at our Court of St. James's, this 1st day of October, 1858, in the twenty-second year of our reign.

"By her Majesty's command,

J. PEEL."

QUALIFICATION AND EXAMINATION OF CANDIDATES FOR COMMISSIONS IN THE ARMY MEDICAL SERVICE.

1. Every Candidate presenting himself for admission to the competitive examination required for the Army Medical Service must be unmarried. He must produce a birth certificate from the District Registrar, or a certificate of baptism in which the date of birth is stated; or, if neither of these can be obtained, an affidavit from one of the parents, or from some other near relative who can attest the date of birth, will be accepted. The certificate or affidavit must show that the Candidate is not above 26 nor under 21 years of age. He must also produce certificates of moral conduct and character, one of them from the parochial minister, if possible.

2. The Candidate must make a declaration that he labours under no mental or constitutional disease, nor any imperfection or disability that can interfere with the most efficient discharge of the duties of a medical officer in any climate. He must also attest his readiness to engage for general service, immediately on being Gazetted.

3. The Candidate must possess a diploma in surgery, or a licence to practise it, from the Royal College of Surgeons of England, Scotland, or Ireland, or from the Faculty of Physicians or Surgeons of Glasgow, or from some other corporate body legally entitled to grant a diploma in surgery, or a licence to practise it. He must besides, and in addition to such diploma or licence, possess a legal qualification to practise medicine in Great Britain or Ireland.

4. Degrees, diplomas, licences, certificates, &c., must be lodged at the Army Medical Department for examination and registry, at least one week before the Candidate appears for examination.

5. On producing the foregoing qualifications and certificates, the Candidate will be examined by the Examining Board on the following subjects:—

Anatomy and Physiology.

Surgery.

Medicine, including therapeutics, the diseases of women and children, pharmacy, and the laws of health.

Natural History, including zoology and comparative anatomy.

Botany.

Physical geography, including meteorology.

The subjects for the three last heads of this examination will be taken from the following books:—

(1.) Carpenter's Zoology, edited by W. S. Dallas, F.L.S.

(2.) Rymer Jones', "Outlines of the Structure and Functions of the Animal Kingdom," or "Cours Élémentaire d'Histoire Naturelle," par Milne Edwards.

(3.) Lindley's or Henfrey's "Elements of Botany."

(4.) Somerville's "Physical Geography."

(5.) Kempt's "Treatise on Meteorology."

(6.) Lyell's Elementary Geology, or Page's Advanced Text Book of Geology.

(6.) The names of Candidates who pass the Preliminary Examination of the Examining Board, will be sent to the Director-General, and communicated to the Professors of the Army Medical School. The names will be arranged in the following Classes:—

CLASS I.

Names of those who have passed a pre-eminent distinguished examination, arranged in their order of merit.

Characters which distinguish the excellence of each. General estimate of individual capacity, or fitness for special service.

CLASS II.

Names of those who have passed a creditable examination, arranged in alphabetical order.

Statement of the topics in which each has individually excelled, and a general estimate of his individual capacity.

* This clause does not extend to the compliments to be paid by garrison or regimental guards, as laid down in pages 29 and 30 of the "Queen's Regulations for the Army."

CLASS III.

Names of Candidates who have passed the MINIMUM examination, arranged in alphabetical order.

Statement of the particular branches of science in which each has been found to be DEFICIENT.

This information will enable the Professors of the Army Medical School to carry out their instructions with a definite aim as regards each Class.

7. After passing his preliminary examination, every Candidate will be required to attend one entire Course of Practical Instruction at the Army Medical School, before being admitted to his examination for a Commission, on—

- (1). Hygiene.
- (2). Clinical and Military Medicine.
- (3). Clinical and Military Surgery.
- (4). Pathology of Diseases and Injuries incident to Military Service.
- (5). Applied Chemistry.

These courses to be of not less than four months' duration.

8. At their conclusion the Candidate will be required to pass an examination on the subjects taught in the School. The Examination will be conducted by the Professors of the School. The Director-General, or any Medical Officer deputed by him, may be present and take part in the examination. If the Candidate gives satisfactory evidence of being qualified for the practical duties of an Army Medical Officer he will be eligible for a Commission as Assistant-Surgeon.

9. During the period of his residence at the Army Medical School each Candidate will receive an allowance of 5s. per diem, with quarters; or 7s. per diem, without quarters, to cover all costs of maintenance; and he will be required to provide himself with uniform (viz., the Regulation undress uniform of an Assistant-Surgeon, but without the sword).

10. All Candidates will be required to conform to such rules of discipline as the Senate may, from time to time, require.

RULES FOR THE EXAMINATION OF ASSISTANT-SURGEONS PREVIOUS TO PROMOTION.

This examination is intended as a test for promotion, and may be taken at any time after the Assistant-Surgeon has served five or more years. When Assistant-Surgeons have served the requisite time they will be examined in the following manner:—A series of printed questions, prepared by the Examining Board, will be sealed and sent by the Director-General to the Principal Medical Officers of stations where Assistant-Surgeons may be eligible for examination. It will be the duty of the Principal Medical Officer of the station to deliver these sealed questions to the Assistant-Surgeons, and to see that they are answered without the assistance of books, notes, or communication with any other person. The answers are to be signed and delivered, sealed, to the Principal Medical Officer, who is to send them, unopened, to the Director-General, together with a certificate from the Surgeon of the Regiment, or other superior Medical Officer, that the Assistant-Surgeon has availed himself of every opportunity of practising surgical operations on the dead body. The Assistant-Surgeon will also be required to transmit, together with his answers to the Director-General, a Medico-Topographical Account of the station where he may happen to be at the time, or of some other station where he may have been resident sufficiently long to enable him to collect the necessary information for such a report. Failing this, he will send a Medico-Statistical report of his regiment for a period of at least twelve months. If the Examining Board is satisfied with the replies to the questions, and the Director-General is satisfied with the certificates and with the Medico-Topographical or Statistical Report, the Assistant-Surgeon will be held qualified for promotion. The Assistant-Surgeon will thus be subjected to three separate examinations within the first ten years of his service, each examination having a definite object. The FIRST, to ascertain, previous to his admission into the service as a Candidate, his scientific and professional education, and to test his acquirements in the various branches of professional knowledge. The SECOND, after having passed through a course of special instruction in the Army Medical School, to test his knowledge of the special duties of an Army Medical Officer; and the THIRD, previous to promotion, to ascertain that he has kept pace with the progress of Medical Science.

MEDICAL DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY.

Admiralty Office, Somerset House, London. W.C.

Direct.-Gen.—Sir John Liddell, M.D., C.B., F.R.S. Insp.-Gen. of Greenwich Hosp.—Dr. Wilson.
Insp.-Gen. at Somerset House.—Dr. Bryson. Dep. Insp.-Gen. of Woolwich Naval Hosp. and Marine Infirm.—Dr. O. Evans.

The following warrant was issued 30th May, 1859 :—

1. There shall, in future, be four grades of Medical Officers, viz. :—

1. Inspector-General of Hospitals and Fleets.

2. Deputy Inspector-General of Hospitals and Fleets.

3. Surgeon, who, after twenty years' service on full-pay, ten of which, in the rank of Surgeon, shall be styled Staff-Surgeon.

2. No candidate shall be admitted to the examination for a Commission in the Medical Department of the Royal Navy who does not possess such a diploma as would qualify a civilian to practise medicine and surgery; and no such candidate shall receive a commission as Assistant-Surgeon until he shall have satisfactorily passed an examination in naval surgery and hygiene before a board of examiners appointed by the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.

3. No Assistant-Surgeon shall be eligible for promotion to the rank of Surgeon until he shall have passed such examination as the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty may require; and shall have served on full-pay, with the commission of Assistant-Surgeon, for five years, of which two, at least, shall have been passed on board one or more of Her Majesty's sea-going ships.

4. No Surgeon shall be eligible to promotion to the rank of Deputy Inspector-General of Hospitals and Fleets until he shall have served ten years in the royal navy, on full pay, of which three at least must have been passed in one of Her Majesty's ships, on some one or more foreign stations, with the rank of Surgeon.

5. No Deputy Inspector-General of Hospitals and Fleets shall be eligible for promotion to the rank of Inspector-General until he shall have served five years at home, or three years abroad, in the rank of Deputy Inspector-General.

In cases of emergency, however, or when the good of Her Majesty's service may render such alteration desirable, it will be competent for the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty to shorten the several periods of service above-mentioned, in such manner as they shall deem fit and expedient.

6. The rates of full-pay for the Medical Officers of the Royal Navy will in future be in accordance with the following schedule :—

	After 30 Years' Service on Full Pay.	After 25 Years' Service on Full Pay.	After 20 Years' Service on Full Pay.	After 15 Years' Service on Full Pay.	After 10 Years' Service on Full Pay.	After 5 Years' Service on Full Pay.	Under 5 Years' Service on Full Pay.

8. With a view to maintain the efficiency of the service, all Medical Officers, with the ranks of Staff-Surgeon, Surgeon, and Assistant-Surgeon, will be placed on the Retired List, when they shall have attained the age of 60 years. Deputy Inspectors-General will be placed on such Retired List when they shall have attained the age of 65 years, and Inspectors-General, when they shall have attained the age of 70 years. Officers thus superannuated will receive the rates of half-pay mentioned in the preceding schedule.

9. The relative ranks of the Medical Officers of the Royal Navy will be as follows:—An Assistant-Surgeon will rank as a Lieutenant in the Army, according to the date of his Commission, and after six years' service on full-pay, as a Captain in the Army, according to the date of the completion of such service. A Surgeon will rank as Major in the Army, according to the date of his Commission, and a Staff-Surgeon as Lieutenant-Colonel, but junior of that rank. A Deputy Inspector-General of Hospitals and Fleets will rank as Lieutenant-Colonel, according to the date of his Commission, and after five years' service on full pay as Deputy Inspector-General, will rank as Colonel, according to the date of completion of such service. An Inspector-General of Hospitals and Fleets will rank as Brigadier-General, according to the date of his Commission, and after three years' service on full-pay as Inspector-General will rank as Major-General, according to the date of completion of such service. Provided always, that no Medical Officer, while borne on the books of one of Her Majesty's ships, or employed in establishments on shore, shall be deemed superior in rank to the Officer appointed to command such ship or establishment; but such Commanding Officer shall, under all circumstances, be held to be superior in rank and precedence to every officer under his command.

10. When Medical Officers of the Navy may be employed on shore, on joint service with Her Majesty's Land Forces, such relative rank will carry with it all precedence and advantages attaching to the rank with which it corresponds, and shall regulate the choice of quarters, rates of lodging money, servants, forage, fuel and light, or allowances in their stead; but Medical Officers serving in the Fleet, notwithstanding the relative rank thus conferred upon them, will, in all such details, and also in all matters relating to the duties of the Fleet and to the discipline and interior economy of Her Majesty's ships, be subject, as heretofore, to the authority of any executive officer of the Military Branch, while on duty, under the General Regulations which may from time to time be prescribed by the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.

11. Medical Officers will share Prize Money according to the Proclamation or Proclamations which may be in force at the time being, for regulating the distribution of the proceeds of Prizes in the Royal Navy.

12. Medical Officers will be entitled to the same allowances on account of wounds and injuries received in action as combatant officers holding the same relative ranks.

13. The families of Medical Officers will in like manner be entitled to the same allowances as granted to the families of combatant officers holding the same relative ranks.

14. Medical Officers will be held entitled to the same honours as other Officers of the Royal Navy of equal relative rank.

15. A Medical Officer retiring, after a full-pay service of twenty-five years, may, in cases of distinguished service, receive a step of honorary rank, but without increase of half-pay.

16. Good Service Pensions will be awarded to the most meritorious Medical Officers of the Royal Navy, under such regulations as shall from time to time be determined upon.

17. Four of the most meritorious Medical Officers of the Royal Navy will be named "Honorary Physicians," and four "Honorary Surgeons," to Her Majesty.

By Command of their Lordships,

H. CORRY.

* Or on promotion, should these periods of service not have been already completed.

HER MAJESTY'S INDIAN FORCES.

India Office, Westminster. S.W.

*Phys. to the Sec. of State for India in Council, Sir James Ransd Martin, C.B., 71, Grosvenor-st. W.

All natural-born subjects of her Majesty between twenty-two and twenty-eight years of age, and of sound bodily health, may be candidates for admission into the service of Her Majesty as Assistant-Surgeons in Her Majesty's Indian Forces. They must subscribe and send in to Dr. Scott, the Physician to the Secretary of State for India in Council, ten days before the period fixed for each examination, a declaration to the following effect:—

"I (Christian and Surname at full length), a candidate for employment as an Assistant-Surgeon in Her Majesty's Indian Forces, do hereby declare that I was _____ years of age on the _____ day of _____ last, and that I labour under no constitutional disease or physical disability that can interfere with the due discharge of the duties of a Medical Officer; and I also attest my readiness to proceed on duty to India within three months of receiving my appointment."

This declaration must be accompanied by the following documents:—1. Proof of Age, either by extract from the Register of the Parish in which the candidate was born, or by his own declaration, pursuant to the Act 5 and 6 William IV., cap. 62. 2. A certificate of moral character from a magistrate, or a minister of the religious denomination to which the candidate belongs, who has personally known him for at least two preceding years. 3. A diploma in Surgery; or a degree in Medicine, provided an examination in Surgery be required for such degree; from some body competent by law to grant or confer such diploma or degree. 4. A certificate of having attended two courses of lectures, of six months each, on the practice of Physic, and of having attended, for six months, the practice and clinical instruction of the physicians at some hospital containing at least, on an average, one hundred in-patients; or of having attended one course of lectures, of six months, on the practice of Physic, and clinical instruction for twelve months. 5. A certificate of having attended, for three months, the practical instruction given at one of the public Asylums for the treatment of the Insane. 6. A certificate of having attended, for three months, one of the institutions, or wards of an hospital especially devoted to the treatment of Ophthalmic disease. Candidates who may not have been able to attend the practice of an Asylum for the Insane, or of an Ophthalmic hospital, for three months previous to their offering themselves for examination, will not be excluded from examination, but will, if successful in obtaining recommendation for appointments, be required to produce certificates of having attended such practice during the interval between the examination and the time of proceeding to India. 7. A certificate of having attended a course of lectures on Midwifery, and of having conducted at least six labours. 8. A certificate of having acquired a practical knowledge of cupping. Candidates may also, at their option, send in certificates of attendance at any hospitals, or on any course of lectures, in addition to the above. Attendance on a course of Military Surgery, and the practical study of surgical operations on the dead body, are recommended.

The examination will include the following subjects:—1. Surgery in all its departments. 2. Medicine, including the diseases of women and children, Therapeutics, Pharmacy, and Hygiene. 3. Anatomy and Physiology, including Comparative Anatomy. 4. Natural History, including Botany and Zoology.

The following are the books recommended—In Zoology and Comparative Anatomy; Outlines of the Structure of the Animal Kingdom, by Rymer Jones, or Cours Élémentaire d'Histoire Naturelle, par Milne Edwards—Botany: Lindley's School Botany, or Lindley's Elements of Botany.

The examination will be conducted—1. By means of written questions and answers. 2. By object examinations and experiments, when the subject admits of such tests. 3. By practical examination of patients, and by operations on the dead body. 4. By vis à voce examination.

The persons who shall be pronounced by the Examiners to be the best qualified in all respects will be appointed to fill the requisite number of appointments as Assistant-Surgeons in Her Majesty's Indian Forces, and, so far as the requirements of the service will permit, they will have the choice of the Presidency in India to which they shall be appointed, according to the order of merit in which they stand on the list resulting from such examination.

All Assistant-Surgeons are required to subscribe to the Military or Medical, and Medical Retiring Funds, at the Presidencies to which they may be respectively appointed, and to the Military Orphan Society also if appointed to Bengal.

All Assistant-Surgeons who shall neglect or refuse to proceed to India under the orders of the Secretary of State for India in Council, within three months from the date of their appointment, will be considered as having forfeited it, unless special circumstances shall justify a departure from this regulation.

A copy of these regulations, and any further information, may be obtained on application to the Secretary of the Military department, East-India House.

The examinations will take place in the months of January and July in each year, and due notice will be given by public advertisement of the days appointed and of the probable number of candidates to be selected.

The Examiners for Assistant-Surgeons in Her Majesty's Indian Forces having received many inquiries as to the object and extent of the Examination in Comparative Anatomy, Zoology, and Botany, have considered it desirable to announce that their objects are,—1. To ascertain who of the candidates have devoted especial attention to any of these sciences, and are hence qualified to undertake duties requiring a knowledge of them, as well as the general rules of their profession. Proficiency in these sciences will, in classifying the candidates by merit, be entitled to great consideration. 2. To encourage all candidates to acquire an elementary knowledge of the structure and affinities of the principal natural families of Animals and of Plants, with the general plan upon which these are constructed, and the functions and relations of their most important organs. 3. To promote the study of Natural History as a most important adjunct or preliminary to a liberal Medical education; that of Comparative Anatomy, Zoology, or Botany, if properly cultivated, by means of specimens, for even a short period, being eminently calculated to develop habits of close observation, and to strengthen those powers of reasoning upon observed facts which must be habitually exercised by Medical men everywhere, but which must be exercised with the greatest energy and promptitude by those who practice in a tropical climate, and who are often thrown wholly upon their own resources. The general examination in these sciences will be elementary, and will embrace a very limited range of technical terms. At the written examination, a considerable number of questions will be put, with the view of allowing each candidate to select such subjects as he has attended to, and thereby of enabling the Examiners to ascertain the particular departments of science in which the verbal examination should be conducted. With those candidates who have attained proficiency in any branch of these sciences, the verbal examination will be pursued in the branch selected, so as to ascertain the full extent of their knowledge.
